Islanders Find Range In Third Period; Defeat Glace Bay Miners 4-1

The Charlottetown Islanders broke out in a long suppressed scoring spree during the third period last night to defeat the Glace Bay Miners 4-1 and come within one game of winning the most closely contested and bitterly fought semi-final series ever played in the Maritimes.

The scoring eye of the Islanders, long dulled by the work of the Miners' defences, danced in a brilliant gleam for the final twenty minutes, much to the delight of the more than 3,000 fans who jammed the Charlottetown Forum to see the all-important game.

The victory gave the Islanders a one game lead for the third time in this series. They now lead 4-3 and can wrap it up with a win in Glace Bay tonight.

Defense Star

Big Gus Gustavson, (above), hard hitting defense star for the Islanders who has been an outstanding figure during the Islanders-Miners marathon series, turned in another top notch effort last night.

Account For Scoring

Young Chuck Holdaway, playing his finest game as an Islander, and Big Bob Gray of the bullet slap shot accounted for all the Islanders' scoring with each player firing two clean-cut goals.

Slick Kenny Watson, the little fellow with the big hockey brain, scored the only Glace Bay goal and it came during the first period. The goal was the first for Watson during the series.

But early in the third period the goal-hungry Islanders erupted. Gray and Holdaway ripped home back to back goals within a minute to put the Islanders two ahead. From then on the Islanders skated and played like champions and shortly after the 15-minute mark Gray put the game out of the Miners' reach by scoring a beautiful goal.

The Islanders forced the play throughout most of the game. They started fast and enjoyed a wide edge during the first session although outscored 1-0.

In the second period the Miners played it defensively and let the Islanders carry the attack. The Miners tried their best to get back in the game after the Islanders struck early in the third but the locals never released the pressure.

Bill Burega led a rush into the Islanders end to set up the only Glace Bay goal. Burega fired a shot into the corner which Bob Cooper slapped towards the Islanders net. George McLagan partially blocked the shot but the puck trickled through his skates to the waiting Kenny Watson who whipped the rubber into the cordage from 15 feet out.

The players roughed one another up during the early stages of the second period and the actions finally resulted in Beaudry and Hinchberger drawing minor penalties.

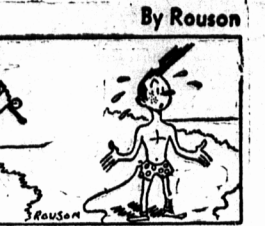

The Islanders had several good chances during the next several minutes. Gary Gordon got into the clear at the six minute mark but lost the puck and two minutes later.

HUNTERS' CORNER

The week April 5-11 has been set aside this year as National Wildlife Week in memory of the late Jack Miner whose work as a conservationist, lover of wildlife and the great outdoors in general has left its mark on the North American Continent and other countries beyond the seas. Jack Miner was a practical man, a man who learned about Nature and her children in the school of experience, and frequently clashed with theoretical exponents of the viewpoint that Nature be left alone to adjust her own balance and such measures as predator control, bounties, etc should not be instituted.

The bitter truth is, as Jack Miner discovered long years ago, that man himself was responsible for upsetting this balance and the only way in which Nature herself can re-establish it is for man to cease his predatory habits and discontinue hunting for sport. The effect of natural predators, hawks, owls, wolves, wildcats and others of their kind upon ducks, geese, partridge, rabbits, furbearers, trout, etc could not be noticed until man, with the latest in destructive weapons joined forces with natural predators.

Jack Miner in his wisdom did not advocate such a drastic step as cessation of the practice of hunting for sport. Man was given dominion over the denizens of land, sea and air only his rule must be on a sound, practical basis. Wolves are the natural enemy most feared by the deer family. When man hunted deer and left the wolves to multiply in peace it was a foregone conclusion that the deer would eventually lose out. For this reason he was a strong advocate for a heavy bounty on wolves to lessen the pressure on deer from this source.

He also established sanctuaries, and encouraged others to do the same, where wildlife, particularly waterfowl and song birds could rear their young in peace and safety.

Here again his practical viewpoint came sharply into focus. He believed no useful purpose was obtained by encouraging birds and other forms of beneficial wildlife to frequent any given spot in large numbers and then allow all forms of predators, from the weasel to the great horned owl, to move in and have a free lunch on birds that have been lulled into a false sense of security by man's own actions. Far better to leave conditions as they were unless some action was taken to weed out predators.

No truer words were ever penned than those found in 'The Good Book': "Where the carcass is there will the eagles be gathered together."

Here is a case in point: I have in mind a man who lived at Marshfield until his death quite a few

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

The difficulty all tracks are finding now is to get enough trotters to balance the racing classes in their programs. The trotters are popular with the public and always have been, but it is so much easier for a trainer to put a set of hopples on a horse and change him to the pace rather than spend a lot of time and perhaps get nowhere trying to make the colt or yearling into a trotter. In this province quite a number of trotters have shown up in the past couple of years and now another for the medium slow classes has arrived. The ten-year-old brown mare Forever Yours Guy 2:12, by Lulu Guy, that Myron MacArthur brought here from the U. S. last fall is in the hands of that very capable horseman Blair Andrew, New Glasgow, and is being conditioned for the coming season's events. Forever Yours Guy is a mighty attractive trotter that did not race last season but in 1950 had a good campaign, winning upwards of $2,000. She took her record on a very cold night, November 10, 1950, at Yonkers Raceway, N. Y. The purse was $1,000 and she met and defeated seven other good trotters in 2:12, an excellent performance for the conditions. We consider that Blair did a wonderful job with You'll See, giving her a record of 2:17 2/5 and winning four dashes in good company, and the four-year-old Mac's Best was given a record of 2:19.

Upwards of 100 horses have changed hands at Dufferin race track, Toronto, since last November and we notice where Jackie Quinn of this city bought Monarch from R. J. Dussault of Quebec, and then sold him two months later to C. K. Buell. Jackie's name appears in the summaries either as a winner of firsts or places quite frequently.

Aubrey Keizer in his sports column in the Sydney Post-Record writes that the Turf Club were long getting inquiries after they released their program for 1953. Heber Sweeney, the prominent Bridgewater, N. S. horseman, advised Jimmie Ferguson that he was interested in the early closing events and also stall reservations and that he might bring his toning class trotter, Clear Up, to the Spors Centre during the season, along with a good pacer.

Clean Up is an eight-year-old gelding by the good trotting sire Follow Up. He made 28 starts last season, was four times first, six times second and six times third with winnings of $2,498. His total winnings are $8,066 and he is eligible to the 2:16 class. He raced all season against good trotters, is a large steady-going horse, good zaited and good mannered and should be quite a factor over Maritime tracks this season. The pacer is Shelby Vic, a four-year-old or Victorious Hal, that took a record of 2:10 3/5 last season as a three-year-old and is eligible to the 2:24 pace. He has an awful lot of lick and has been timed quarters in 20 1/5 seconds.

His sire, Victorious Hal 2, 2:03 1/2, is also the sire of Victorious Guy 2:02, that Harry Hirsch bought for $5,100 and will pit against the fast brigade at Vernon Downs, N. Y. Victorious Hal was sired by Hal Dale 2:02 1/4, the super sire at Two Gait Farm, Indianapolis, Indiana, and he is also the sire of Good Time 1:57 2/5, biggest money winning pacer of all time. Victorious Hal's dam was Nell Cochatoe by Walter Cochatoe 2:02 1/4, and interesting to our people here is the fact that Nell Cochatoe 2:15 1/4, that Wilard Kelly brought here some years ago and is the dam of Nell Kalmuck 2:10, is a full sister to Victorious Hal 2, 2:03 1/4, sire of Shelby Vic and Victorious Guy.

Nell Cochatoe's last registered owner was John Sterling Willis.

The Y.M.C.A. Girls deadlocked their basketball series with the Abbies last night by defeating the Red and Black girls 26-15 in a game at the Y. The teams are tied at one game each in the semi-finals of the Island League.

It was a strong second half spurt by the Y team which resulted in the first series win for the Neil Young-coached team. The teams were tied 8-8 at the end of the first half but the Y scored 18 points against seven for the Abbies in the final twenty minutes.

Barbara Wran was high scorer for the Y, with 11 points, while E. Smith was runner-up with six. Lucy Smith scored nine points for the Abbies.

The third and deciding game will be played early next week.

Lineups:—
Y: E. Smith 6, H. Whitlock 4, B. Whitlock, B. Wran 11, J. MacDougall, M. Pickard, S. Perry 1, A. Guindon 4, J. Hall.
Abbies: F. Evans 2, J. Weir 2, P. Dalziel 2, W. Wood, A. MacKinnon, L. Smith 9, E. MacArthur.

Y Girls Tie Series

The former owner of the Vel Stables, John D. Forbes of Fredericton, N. B. has also been in touch with the Turf Club, Sydney, and has intimated that he may bring his free-for-aller Shamrock Thoughts 3, 2:04, to Cape Breton during the summer and start him against his former free-for-aller Pat D. 2:06 3/5, Shamrock Thoughts is an eight-year-old bay stallion by the midwest sire Wilmington 4, 1:59 1/2, that is the sire of such great pacers as Wilmington Star 3, 1:59, Friskaway 3, 1:59 1/5, and five others with records better than 2:05. Shamrock Thoughts dam is Sweet Thoughts 2:11 1/4, the dam of Deep Thoughts 2:00, True Thoughts 3, 2:07, Pure Thoughts 2:07 1/2 and several others. His breeding is truly superb. He is a splendid individual and has an awful lot of whiz. His all time winnings are $23,643 but with allowances he is eligible to a 2:14 pace.

Paddy Young Wins Decision

NEW YORK, (AP)—Paddy Young, smashed his way into an American middleweight title fight with Carl Olson by scoring a unanimous decision over rugged Ernie Durando Friday night in a bruising Madison Square Garden 12-rounder. Young, an 11-10 favorite, weighed 160 to Durando's 157 1/4.

Little Yid Is Race Favorite

AINTREE, England, (CP)—Little Yid, who was bred by a bookie and once sold for 40 guineas ($120), rules as top favorite in today's Grand National Steeplechase.

The 10th running of the race is scheduled to start at 3:15 p.m. 10:15 a.m. EST. The field for the world's toughest and most unpredictable steeplechase is regarded by racing regulars as one of the worst in Aintree's history. Thirty-five horses are expected to start.

St. F.X. Defeats S.D.U. 68-48 In Opener For Hoop Championship

ANTIGONISH, N. S. (CP)—Al Grassi waltzed through for 28 points Friday night as St. Francis Xavier University outclassed St. Dunstan's University of Charlottetown 68-48 in the first game of a two-game, total-points series for the Maritime intermediate basketball title.

The second game will be played here Saturday.

Grassi, from Portland, Me., set a high-scoring record for St. F.X. players, tossing his last basket with less than a minute of the game remaining.

St. F.X. led 14-7 at the first quarter, 30-13 at the half-way mark and 46-31 at the end of three quarters.

Grassi started rolling from the opening whistle, hopping into a 12-point scoring spree in the first half. That was as many as St. F.X.'s second man, Howie McNally, racked up for the game.

The P. E. I. squad was sparked by Gus Dorais, who rolled up 18 points. Usually impressive Jack Reardon, who piled up 27 points last week against the same opponents, came through with nine.

Watches Reardon
St. F.X. coach Ambrose Gilment was responsible for Reardon's off-par night. He kept a tall boy on the scoring ace's tail and succeeded in hemming him in safely. McNally and Russ McNeil felled many of his scoring attempts.

Johnny Taylor matched Reardon's nine points to split second place honors. Mooney came up with eight.

St. Dunstan's Dorais 18, Reardon 9, Taylor 9, Mooney 8, McKinnon 2, MacDonald 2, Mulally, Dunphy, McIsaac, Slowey—48.

St. F.X.: Grassi 28, McNally 12, McNeil 10, Shea 8, Campbell 8, Gallant 2, McFarland, Carrigan, Richards, Connors—68.

Hockey Finals At Forum Tonight

Tonight at the Charlottetown Forum four Island hockey titles will be decided when Abegweit Paperweights, Pee-Wees, Bantams and Midgets take on Kensington and Summerside teams in Island finals for Physical Fitness and other awards. Abbie Paperweights are playing Kensington in the second of home-and-home games with Abbies having taken the first game at Kensington.

In the other classes all games are sudden-death affairs due to the fact the weatherman prevented further games earlier this week on natural ice. These games bring together Abegweit and Summerside teams, so as is always the case, keen competition can be expected between these teams. In order to assist outside teams to travel to the City a nominal charge will be made tonight, so it is hoped local fans will turn out in goodly numbers.

Following is the night's program:—
Paperweights: 7 p.m.—Kensington vs. Abbies.
Pee Wees: 8 p.m.—Summerside vs. Abbies.
Bantams: 9 p.m.—Summerside vs. Abbies.
Midgets: 10 p.m.—Summerside vs. Aoolies.

Hoop Games Tonight

The third and deciding game in the Abegweit Basketball House League semi-finals between Rays and P.W.C. will be played tonight at Prince of Wales College at 7:30.

Share Scoring Honors

Holdaway opened the scoring for the Islanders in the second period. Gray came up with two and Chuck another during the wide open third frame when the Islanders displayed their best form of the season.

All goals were three pointers with line-mates Clements and Wiseman assisting on Holdaway's markers while Whitlock and Grosse assisted on both of Gray's goals.
