Miss Nadine Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Hardy and Miss Pauline MacNeill, daughter of Mrs. Basil MacNeill, arrived on the Island from Toronto to spend a holiday with their relatives here. The many friends of Mr. David Williams are pleased to learn that he has almost completely recovered from the accident which necessitated his removal to the Prince Edward Island Hospital where he spent a couple of weeks. Congratulations are extended to Misses Margaret and Phyllis Williams on the successful completion of their year's work at the Union Commercial College, Charlottetown. Both girls received honors, and besides Miss Margaret took a high standing in the Civil Service examinations. A miscellaneous shower was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wallace recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wallace, Alma. A very large number were present and the newly-weds were the recipients of many useful and costly gifts accompanied by the best wishes of all for a happy life together. Many friends and relatives in this community attended the funerals of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hardy, which were held within a few days of the death of the other at Elmsdale. The deceased couple had been highly respected residents of Elmsdale until recent years when they made their home in Charlottetown. The sympathy of many friends and neighbors is extended to the bereaved family in their double loss. A wedding of interest to many friends took place in Alma on July 5th when Miss Zena Barbour, daughter of Mr. Frank Barbour and the late Mrs. Barbour, was united in marriage to Mr. Wentworth Yeo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yeo, Elmsdale by Reverend John M. Sheen. Congratulations and best wishes are extended to this popular couple for a happy wedded life. — E
