NOTES LOCALES

La rougeole sévit dans plusieurs parties de la province.

Quoique l'opinion générale au printemps fût que nous devions nous attendre à une très mauvaise récolte dûe, comme on le disait, au retard des travaux à cause des pluies continues, la récolte a une apparence magnifique. En général, le foin est bon. La récolte de grains, de patates et légumes sera abondante.

Nos amis de toutes les parties de la province voudront bien agréer nos sincères remercîment pour l'accueil favorable qu'ils ont accordé au représentant de L'IMPARTIAL lors de sa dernière visite. Merci, bons amis acadiens qui tenez à maintenir notre seul journal français. Merci, ceux qui nous ont payé tout ou on partie. A ceux qui n'ont pas répondu à notre appel, nous leur demandont de suivre le bel exemple de ceux qui ont payé.

Le maquereau est encore rare.

Temps magnifique cette semaine.

Look out for the Assumption Tea-Party. Palmer Road is the place to go to on the 14th August.

Le Tea-Party de l'Assomption à Palmer Road est le sujet de toutes les conversations. Tous se promettent de n'y pas manquer.

Every body says that Palmer Road Tea-Party will be the social event of the season up west. All will strain a point to take it in.

Ce serait une lacune regrettable, si vous manquiez le Tea-Party de Palmer Road. Allez-y donc et prenez part à la joie générale qui sera le caractère saillant de cette journée.

Keep all your loose cash for Palmer Road Tea party. By so doing you will be laying in store a lot of fun for yourselves and at the same time you will be doing a good turn to people who will show themselves grateful for kindness received.

Jack, vas-tu au Tea-Party de Palmer Road ? Sans doute, Fred, il n'y a que la maladie qui m'en empêchera. J'y étais, il y a trois ans, et les tea-party de Palmer Road ne sont pas des réunions à faire bâiller les gens aux corneilles comme il y en a dans le pays. On s'amuse, on y goûte un véritable plaisir, c'est une journée de réjouissance.

We are informed that the managers of Riverside Park intend holding a trotting meeting on Sept. 14th next The folowing classes will be the field sport ; Green race, 3 min. and 2.40 class. Posters and full particulars will ap pear later.

Our genial Post-Master has moved into the new Post office. The new office is large and airy and with the lock boxes which are expected in a few days, the citizens of Tignish will be like other mortals-have a decent place to transact their mail business.

Messrs Bernard Bros. have placed a burglar proof safe in their office, yesterday.

Mr Charles Dalton has gone to New Brunswick taking with him "Honest Tom", which he intends placing in the maritime circuit races. Honest Tom will make it lively for some of the New Brunswick horses.

Dr Wickham has had his premises greatly improved New fences, painting and well laid off lawn will add greatly [illegible] already [illegible]

Last Sunday we had the pleasure to listen to an able and remarquably well delivered sermon, pronounced in Tignish Church, by Rev. J. P. McGrath one of Tignish celebrated young men. Rev J. P. McGrath embarked Monday on route for Montreal—Bon voyage.

The painting on Dalton and Gallant Drug Store has been completed. Mr Gallant the Junior member of the firm has also fitted up sleeping apartments for himself above the store. This will be a great convenience for the public, who are obliged to visit the Drug store at night. A night bell will be attached.

The painting on Dr. Murphy's new house is about completed. When finished it will be one of the finest looking buildings in West Prince. Mr Sobey of Summerside has the contract ; No comments are necessary Where Sobey applies the brush the effect is artistic.

Mr. Theo. Bernard is putting up a large dwelling house at the western end of Broad street.

The Railway premises at Tignish are beginning topresent a creditable appearance. The Station has received a handsome coat of paint ; the yard has been levelled ; a new siding has also been built for the convenience of J. H. Myrick & Co's extensive commerce When the engine house is painted, fences built, and the old rubbish carted away Tignish will boast of as fine Railway premises as can be seen on the Island.

DIALOGUE

Joson.—Bon jour, Pierrot. Voici un temps magnifique pour la fenaison. N'est-ce pas ?

Pierrot.—Tu as raison, mon ami.

Joson : Aussi je t'assure qu nous en profitons pour avoir fini notre besogne lorsqu'arrivera le 14 août Il faut voir Eugéne à l'œuvre. Il est deux fois plus actif qu'à l'ordinaire. Pas n'est besoin de s'y prendre à deux fois pour le faire sortir du lit le matin. Il est même plus matinal que le coq de ce temps-ci. C'est que, vois-tu, il a hâte de voir tout notre foin mis en sûreté afin qu'il n'y ait rien qui puisse l'empêcher d'aller à Palmer Road la veille de l'Assomption. Si je te disais qu'Albert, par le temps qui court, est comme mu par des ressorts. Tu sais combien il est lourd d'habitude. Eh bien ! Vrai comme je te le dis. depuis que les gens du Palmer Road lui ont fait entendre qu'il doit y avoir un, tea-party, il n'y a pas moyen de réprimer son ardeur. Il saute, il court, il gambade, en un mot, il est fou de joie. Je te garantis qu'il en taille de l'ouvrage. Tu sais comme il est fort, notre gros garçon et il tient à montrer à son frère aîné qu'il compte pour quelque chose dans les travaux de la ferme.

Joson—Voici une bonne nouvelle et je m'en vais de suite la communiquer à mon garcon, Fidèle. Depuis que nous avons commencé à travailler au foin, je m'aperçois qu'il fait la moue. Il ne semble prendre aucun goût à son ouvrage. Il aurait bien plus de courage, s'il savait [illegible] pare à Palmer [illegible] Je ne le sa

Pierrot—. Voilà ce que c'est que de ne pas lire L'IMPARTIAL Il y a déjà une semaine que L'IMPARTIAL parle du Tea Party de Palmer Road. Moi, je reçois cette gazette et ce qui est encore mieux, je la lis ainsi que mes deux garçons, Eugène et Albert, sans, compter leur mère et leurs sœurs.

Joson–Pierrot, je vois que tu te tiens au courant des nouvelles du jour. Je vais faire de même Adieu, mon ami, et au plaisir de te revoir.

Pierrot—Adieu, et au revoir au Tea-Party de Palmer Road.

A MOTHER'S VALUABLE ASSISTANT

16mo, 144 pages; bound in linen, gilt top.

Home Occupations for Little Children

By KATHERINE BEEBE.

WHAT Miss Beebe's "First School Year" is to the primary teacher this little volume is intended to be to mothers. Miss Beebe believes that the ceaseless activity of children calls for employment, and "Home Occupations" is full of ways and means for mothers.

Enthusiastically endorsed by the press and leading kindergartners.

Hundreds of Hints on How to Make the Little Folks Happy

Lists of Stories, Songs and Plays

Invaluable to Mothers and Nurses

In this book the Kindergarten offers to the Home suggestions for the occupation of little children with simple materials. The author does not presuppose a kindergarten training on the part of the mother, nor an ideal environment. She simply takes for granted the child's ceaseless activity and the mother's desire to furnish him with material and opportunity for development.

The occupations here considered are of three kinds. The first are those which require the active participation of an older person; the second, those for which only occasional direction or assistance is necessary; the third, those in which the child can engage by himself.

FROM THE NEW YORK WORLD.

"Home Occupations will be welcomed by weary mothers, for it is very clever and full of hints and suggestions they can carry out."

FROM THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS.

"Home Occupations should be read by all mothers, and all other people who have the care and training of infant minds."

"One of the remarkable features of the book is the extent to which home materials and home-made contrivances are brought into play. Cedar blocks, sand, clay, boxes, scissors, paste, paper, pencils, beads, garden tools, flowers, fruits, black boards, and nearly everything called into requisition by Miss Beebe's methods, are within easy reach of most of those into whose hands her book will fall."

FROM THE BOOKSELLER.

"Home Occupations for Little Children, by Katherine Beebe, a well-known kindergartner, of Evanston, Ill., will be welcomed by many mothers, who will find it full of valuable suggestions to aid in rearing their little ones. Many cross and disagreeable children would be speedily restored to good nature if their mother or nurse knew enough to guide the immature mind to some pleasant occupation without too great interference with its own freedom."

FROM THE KINDERGARTEN MAGAZINE.

"Any mother with the problem of restless little people to lead into the paths of happiness and usefulness, can find much assistance in Miss Beebe's little book, and would do well to avail herself of its thoughtful suggestions."

FOR all Americans there is an unfailing interest in the scenes and places of that historic little country that gave us our laws, our language, our conquering instinct and our faith. Divided many times by the bitterness of those contests that have made us what we are, she turns again to us and we to her, as the Mother Land whose splendid story is also so largely ours, and in common with whom we claim the genius of Shakespeare, the laws of Alfred, and the dominant instinct of that Saxon lineage which wins and conquers and subdues by processes known to us two alone; the American and the Briton side by side. And as the centuries have passed England has grown nearer to us. She is no longer a far-off land of which we have only heard. The first voyages of those who made America, and made it English, occupied nine stormy and perilous weeks. It required two centuries to reduce that time one-half. Now our green shores and the white cliffs of Albion lie less than one week apart, and for thirty years we have talked with England under the sea in a common language, about common interests. To go and to return is an incident of daily life.

The Saxon, English and American, travels more than any other man, and with a stouter purpose to see, to know and to appreciate. England and America exchange visits every year in the person of thousands of individuals. The Briton finds with us brighter skies, and higher mountains, and larger rivers, and broader lakes, and taller trees, and more stupendous waterfalls than his islands know. And for the old, the storied, the historic, we go to him. What he has is in a sense our own. It is a hand-made and a time-mellowed beauty ; for us the beauty of history and association, ours as well as his. We give him stupendous nature dotted with new cities that seem old enough to us. He gives us the story of our common race written in piled stones and clustering ivy, representing the toil and hope of centuries; a toil and hope which we inherited, and whose memorials are also ours.

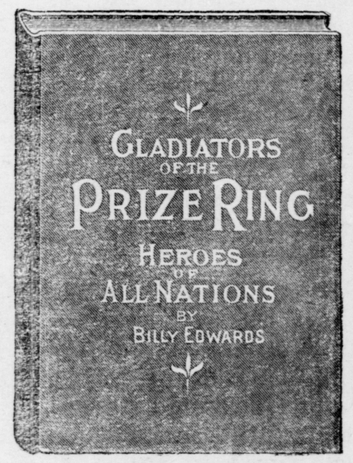
Gladiators of the Prize Ring



A MAGNIFICENT WORK FOR SPORTSMEN

96 Large Half-Tone Portraits of All

NOTED PUGILISTS From Hyer to Corbett

Together with their Records in Battle and the Histories of their Lives.

..BY..

BILLY EDWARDS

The Famous Ex-Champion Light-Weight Pugilist.

THE ONLY WORK OF THE KIND ON THE MARKET.

The portraits are produced from copper plates, and a photograph of this size would be worth $1.50 apiece, making a collection of photos worth $150.00, to say nothing of the invaluable work of reference accompanying same.

.. Size 14 x 11½. Novelty cloth binding... Aluminum and gold title stamp. 200 pages.

OF recent years the interest taken in the noble art of self-defense has been almost universal. The cultivation in our colleges of athletic exercises, and the great interest taken by all classes of people in physical culture, would seem to indicate that this is the golden era of muscular development and the establishment of a perfect manhood.

Gladiators of the Prize Ring has been prepared in the most careful manner; every fact has been verified by exhaustive research and careful compilation of official data. Every important event in the fistic arena, from the first ring encounter down to the great battles of the present day, both in this country and abroad, is given a place. The biographical matter is historically correct and the portraits are taken from authentic photographs or sketches from life. The accounts of fistic combats in this book are composite compilations from the personal experiences of those most competent to describe the events—the principals, seconds, timekeepers, backers, referees, etc. The book will be found unexcelled as an accurate work of reference, for not a fact has been distorted nor a line set down in malice.

Special Features

1. This is the only work of the kind ever published.
2. The portraits are the finest in existence—taken at the time the men were in their prime.
3. It has been edited by the greatest authorities now living, and is the only authentic work of reference ever published.
4. The boxing lesson by "Young Griffo" and Walter Campbell is a series of twenty-four plates taken by instantaneous photography and shows every important blow with guard for same, and the positions reversed, while the instructive text, accompanying and explaining them, is thorough and complete. This is the first time such results have been obtained, and the two men represented are the most scientific in their profession.
5. Three years' time has been consumed and $25,000 have been expended in collecting, completing and reproducing the portraits for this work.
6. All "tough" phraseology has been carefully avoided in the editing of the work so that there is nothing to offend the most refined.
