NOT VERY FAR.

These peaks are nearer heaven than earth below,
These hills are higher than they seem;
'Tis not the clouds they touch, nor the soft brow,
Of the o'erbending azure, as we deem;
'Tis the blue floor of heaven that they upbear,;
And, like some old and wildly rugged stair,
They lift us to the land where all is fair—
The land of which I dream.

These ocean-waves, in their unmeasured sweep,
Are brighter, bluer than they seem;
True image, here, of the celestial deep,
Fed from the fulness of the unfailing stream—
Heaven's glassy sea of everlasting rest,
With not a breath to stir its silent breast—
The sea that leaves the land where all are blest—
The land of which I dream.

And these keen stars, the bridal gems of night,
Are purer, lovlier than they seem;
Filled from the inner fountain of deep light,
They pour down heaven's own beam,
Clear speaking from their throne of glorious blue,
In accents ever ancient, ever new,
Of the glad home above, beyond our view—
The land of which I dream.

This life of ours, these lingering years of earth,
Are briefer, swifter than they seem;
A little while, and the great second birth,
Of time shall come, the prophets' ancient theme!
Then He, the King, the Judge, at length shall come,
And for the desert, where we sadly roam,
Shall give the kingdom for our endless home—
The land of which I dream.

VARIETIES.

THE THIRST FOR WEALTH.

How wise is the prayer of Agur! And how few there are who imbibe its spirit, and discern the perils of riches! Insensibly the desire of wealth grows upon us, and while our convictions are all the other way, we find our hearts clinging to the world's possessions as to their best good, and our hands are busily engaged in performing what the heart, wrapped in the love of the world, designs.

The desire for wealth, "covetousness, which is idolatry," is one of the most dangerous and deadening influences which can affect our Christian life. It closes our hearts against the appeals which must constantly be made to us, while the world is still unconverted, and there are any spots in foreign lands unvisited by the messengers of the cross, or in our own, unprovided with the stated miustrations of the gospel. If all that is unwisely hoarded, and all that is worse than foolishly expended, could be turned to the great object of evangelizing the world; if men were more intent upon building up the kingdom of Christ, and less devoted to their own selfishness and pleasnres, how different would be the report from the ends of the earth—and how would ignorance, vice, and suffering diminish in our world.—Episcopal Recorder.

A doctor and a poet quarreled; an indifferent person was applied to, to settle the dispute, when the latter made the following reply: "You are faulty, both; do penance for your crimes: bard, take his physic—doctor, read his ryhmes."

One of the most celebrated members of the Paris bar was lately consulted by a younger practioner upon an obscure point of law "I cannot give you positive answer, young man," replied the advocate; "I have pleaded once one way, and once the other, and I gained my suit each time."

Foot, being annoyed by a poor fidling fellow, straining harsh discord under his window, sent him out a shilling with a request that he would play elswhere, as one scraper at the door was sufficient.

A grim bachelor-editor once retorted upon a rival's diatribe, that "it should be written in letters of salt on a board fence, for cows to lick it."

Mr. Jones, you say that Mr. Rozin is a composer. Does the court understand from that, that he is a writer of music?" "No, siree; he's called a composer becasue he never preaches to a man without pntting him to sleep." "Crier, call the next witness."

The Springfield Gazette tells a good story of a clergyman who lost his horse one Saturday evening. After hunting, in company with a boy until midnight, he gave up in despair. The next day, somewhat dejected at his loss, he went into the pulpit, and took for his text the following passage from Job—"Oh, that I knew where I might find him!" The boy, who had just come in, supposing the horse was still the burden of his thought cried ont—"I know where he is—he's in Deacon Smith's barn!"

A lemonless Irishman was observed one evening slicing a potato into his hot whisky toddy.

"Why what are you about?" inquired Charley'

"It's my punch I'm makin, dear!" quietly replied Pat.

"But what are you slicing that in for?"

"To give it a flavor!"

"What! a potato flavor?"

"Shure, and isn't a flavor a flavor, whether it's lemon or a pitaty?"

WONDER OF THE WORLD.

Gravel Cured of five years standing

Messrs. CURTIS & PERKINS, Bangor, Me.

Gentlemen,—I have been entirely cured of the Gravel, by the us of your Cramp and Pain Killer. I commenced taking the Cramp and Pain Killer in the Spring of 1847. I had been a great sufferer for ten years previous; some four or five years of the time I suffered beyond all my powers to describe.

During this time, I have had medical aid, and tried various spe- cifics, but found very little relief until I obtained your Cramp and Pain Killer. In one month after I commenced using it, I began to grow better. I continued to use it for a year, all the time improving until I was entirely cured. MILES STAPLES.

Prospect, Me., Jan. 29, 1851.

We, the undersigned, are well acquainted with the above case, and certify to the above statement of facts.

CHARLES CLIFFORD,
HANNAH CLIFFORD,
STANTON ELLIS.

Doctor Toby, a regular practising Physician, of East Machias, writes us under date of March20, 1847: "Please send me half a gallon of your Cramp and Pain Killer—it is the best medicine to cure what it is represented to, that I everused."

The Doctor first made use of it in his own case, for a severe sprain in the shoulder, caused by the upsetting of a stage, and found immediate relief, and has since used it in his practice.

Read the following. It speaks for itself.

RHEUMATISM CURED.

I certify, that I was afflicted with a violent Rheumatic pain in the small of my back, which entirely disabled me, so that I could not get up without the greatest pain and effort; nor could I walk without a cane, and but very little with. I applied Doctor Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, or Liquid Opodeldoc, and several other remedies, without any relief. After suffering in this way about a week, I purchased a bottle of Cramp and Pain Killer, prepared by CURTIS & PERKINS, Bangor, and after three applications was entirely relieved and free from pain, and am now entirely well. I also cured a friend of mine, who had been suffering for a long time with a lame side, with the same bottle. I believe it the best medicine in the world, and am happy to add my testimony in its favor

These Reprints have been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class, and from the numerous Eclectics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns, both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott and Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

Astonishing efficacy of the Oxygenated Bitters,

IN A CASE OF EIGHTEEN YEARS' STANDING.
From Fitzhenry Homer, Esq., of Boston, Mass.
Boston, September 28, 1848.

DEAR SIR—It is now eighteen years since I was first troubled with the water-brash and derangement of the stomach. I have taken advice of the best Physicians in this city and New York, in London, Paris, Germany, and Italy, followed their prescriptions, and visited the several sulphur and other springs in this country, the watering places of Germany, and elsewhere in Europe, and had found no relief. Since taking the Bitters I have never had a return of the Water-brash, which daily troubled me of late years to a very great degree. My appetite has returned; the extreme flatulence, severe constipation of the bowels, general debility, and sleepless nights unde which I suffered, have entirely left me. Having found so great relief from this most discouraging disorder. I have recommended a trial of your medicine to many of my friends, who are now using it to great advantage. And I cannot refrain from writing to you in its favour and praise, for the good you have bestowed upon the community; and trust that what little is in my scope to offer in extending the circulation of your "Oxygenated Bitters," will be done with grateful pleasure at all times.

Yours very respectfully,
FITZHENRY HOMER.
