LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Warning.
Sir.—In your pages of last evening, I read two paragraphs; the first stating that one Colonel King has said, (I presume you mean sold) a ranche and cattle in Texas for four millions of dollars to an English Syndicate, and that this is said to be the largest farm in the world.
I know not the meaning of the word "Syndicate."
I next read that "Sir Stanley Hill and Lord Louther (query Lowther) once private Secretary to the late Earl of Beaconsfield, are coming to the Northwest this fall. The two gentlemen are interested in cattle ranching, and are likely to invest largely during their coming visit." Then may Heaven have mercy upon them! I am quite impartial between the neighboring Republic or Texas, and the Canadian Dominion, which ought to have been named and constituted as a component part of the British Empire. What is to prevent the above named and unhappy and most imprudent speculators from sharing the fate of the landed proprietors of Prince Edward Island under the "Land Purchase Act, 1875!"
I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
ROBERT BRUCE STEWART.
Charlottetown, August 1st 1883.

The Markets.
Since our last report there has been a decided advance in flour. Superiors are scarce and in active demand. Montreal quotations for flour and provisions are as follows:—Superior Extra $5.20 to $5.25, some large lots having been sold at former figure; Extra Superfine $4.90 to $5.00; Spring Extra $4.80 to $4.90; Superfine $4.15 to $4.25; Canadian Strong Bakers $5.10 to $5.25; American do, $5.25 to $6.75. In hog products prices are pretty steady with rather quiet business. Western Mess $19 to $19.50; Canada Shortcut, nominal; Lard 12 1/2 to 11 1/2 c.; Hams 14 to 14 1/2. In butter only a local trade is being done, and the surplus make must be accumulating fast in farmers' hands; creamery is quoted at 20c.; Townships 17 to 19c.; Western 15 to 17c. Cheese is steady at 9 to 9 1/2 cents.

TORONTO MARKETS.
FLOUR AND MEAL.—Superior Extra, $4.75 to $4.80; Extra, $4.65 to $4.70; Strong Baker's, $4.85 to $5.20; Bran, $10.50 to $11.00. The stock of flour in store on the 23rd was 2,325 barrels, and on like date last year 1,800 bbls.
Wool.—There is not much doing in Wool, the majority of country holders are asking 20 to 21c., while dealers will not pay more than 19 to 20c. for choicest lots. A few lots, mostly small, have been taken at from 19 to 19 1/2c. There is very little offering from farmers on the street. The demand from the factories for super and other pulled wools is quiet. Last week's quotations for all grades may be repeated.
Tallow is still dull and no business to report.

BOSTON MARKETS.
July 26.—The demand for eggs, canned goods, and mackerel in barrels is very active, and if the catch here continues good, our fishermen ought to have a prosperous season. We quote from the last circular:—Reports from the Shore Mackerel Fleet still continue poor, vessels taking but few fish. Those that are coming to hand run about half large, and are eagerly taken by the trade. Last sales were at $12 from pickle.
There is a small lot of mackerel in from P. E. Island. It has been sold at $10. The scarcity of shore mackerel makes it very difficult for the trade to keep pace with their orders, and the outlook for the sale of Island fish is excellent. Owing to the scarcity of eggs our market has been quite active and we quote good stock quick at 20 to 20 1/2.

Bookkeeping a Necessity.
Many fortunes have been lost to shrewd and hard working merchants, simply because they lacked a practical knowledge of book-keeping. To a large number of business men their ledger, journal and cash book are unintelligible records, for want of a little knowledge of science. To others their business is a moving force with which they are imperfectly acquainted, because they keep no record of mercantile transactions. They cannot tell whether they are solvent or insolvent; where the leaks are that are eating up the profits; what the returns of the year's business; in fact the only thing that they do know is that they worked hard, buy and sell, and imagine they make gain, whereas if they were familiar with the principles of record keeping, or book keeping they would be masters of detail, and, therefore, masters of their business. There is in this day of cheap simple text books, no excuse for any wide-awake man of business not knowing how to keep a thorough record of business transactions, either by single or double entry.
There are a few simple and fixed principles once mastered that will give power to do it.

A despatch from Tamatave says:—A state of siege is strictly maintained. There are four French men-of-war in the harbor, and other French war ships are en route.
The British war ships Dragon and Dryad have sailed for Tamatave, and the American man-of-war Enterprise has gone to Zanzibar.
Six English missionaries, with their families, are detained in the interior, unable to reach Tamatave.

The parents of fifteen Chinese ladies in Canton had arranged for a wholesale marriage of their daughters on a certain feast day. The girls didn't like their prospective husbands, and went in a body to the river and drowned themselves on the eve of the feast.

J. E. Millais, R. A., is engaged painting a portrait of Henry Irving, the actor. The work is intended to be hung at the Garrick Club.
Duty is a power which rises with us in the morning and goes to bed with us at night. It is co-extensive with the action of our intelligence.
Only three members of the British House of Commons, Mr. Gladstone, Mr. Talbot, and Mr. Villiers, were there when Queen Victoria ascended the throne.
The largest object glass in use is the twenty-six inch lens at Washington, with a focal length of thirty-three feet. Its light gathering power is 16,000 times that of the naked eye.
Polk, ex-treasurer of Nashville, Tenn., has been found guilty of embezzlement and sentenced to a fine amounting to the full sum of his embezzlements and twenty years penitentiary.
A Chicago liquor dealer says he doesn't care how young his customers are. "I will sell liquor to a baby," he says, "if it has the money to buy." That man ought to be strung up.
Detective Wiggin has received a despatch from the deputy minister of justice saying that he has issued a warrant for Amoro's extradition, and forwarded it to the Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia to be delivered to a sheriff. Amoro will likely be in Boston some time during the present week.

Let all your words be full of truth, Let kindly feelings reign;
Do good to all, and let your smiles Leave blessings in their train.
If Satan seeks by winsome wiles To fill your life with woe, Oh! heed him not, but turn away,
And boldly answer, No!
A deserted named Holman, belonging to the Yorkshire Regiment, stationed at Halifax, who ran away three months ago, was brought back to the city on Monday.
He was the youth who was once before the police court for committing an alleged rape on a girl at Melville Island about a year ago.
Like most garments, everything in life has a right and a wrong side. You can take any joy, and by turning it round, find troubles on the other side; or, you take the greatest trouble, and by turning it round, find joys on the other side. The gloomiest mountain never cast a shadow on both sides at once.

Professor John Macoun, of Belleville, Ontario, the well-known Canadian botanist and authority of the North west, is now taking a tour of Cape Breton, accompanied by a professor from the Kingston Military College. They have visited various points and are now at Margaree. Prof. Macoun has discovered in Cape Breton the existence of several plants hitherto unknown in this part of the Dominion.
Professor Proctor reasons that the moon has grown old six times as fast as the earth, a comparison of the masses and radiating surfaces of the two bodies making it evident that the earth's internal heat was originally sufficient to last six times as long as the moon's supply. On the assumption that only 12,000,000 of years have passed since the earth and the moon were at the same stage of planetary life, 60,000,000 of years must elapse before the earth will have reached the stage of life through which the moon is now passing.

After the opening of the Circuit Court at Dorchester on 31st ult., Mrs. Taylor, of Shediac, who had been found guilty of manslaughter in the killing of Thos. Morrison, was sentenced by Judge Fraser for four years in the Dorchester penitentiary. Before delivering sentence His Honor asked the prisoner if she had anything to say why sentence should not be passed on her. She did not reply. His Honor then referred to the dreadful life she had been leading and hoped that after her sentence had expired she would lead an honorable, faithful and virtuous life. He did not excuse the rovyism, but such houses as she and many others kept were temptations which very often led young men astray. The Judge said, in conclusion, that the circumstance of her having in her younger days been deprived of her mother, had a great deal to do with the shortness of the sentence.

The search of the rains for the bodies of the victims of the earthquake, on the island of Ischia, continued during the night. All the bodies removed are buried immediately to prevent miasma. An eye-witness describes the scene at the theatre at Casamicciola, where the earthquakes occurred as an awful one. The curtain had just risen when a tremendous shock was felt. A fearful roar followed, the ground rocked like the sea in a storm, a great cry of terror arose from the audience, who were thrown into a heap, and a large number were buried beneath the timber of the building, which fell upon them. Two more shocks occurred. All who could rushed outside the theatre and hundreds of persons clambered into the trees in the vicinity for safety. Most of the people, however, escaped to the shore, where bonfires were lighted as signals of distress. Hundreds of half naked men and women, wild with terror and grief, ran to and fro among the ruins with torches during the night searching for missing friends.
