TRINITY EVENING AUXILIARY MEETING—The president, Mrs. William Roach, was in the chair for the March meeting of the Trinity Evening Auxiliary, Summerside, on Tuesday evening in Epworth Hall. After the opening hymn, "In Christ There is no East nor West", Mrs. Allison MacLean conducted the worship service, giving a short meditation and offering prayer. She was assisted by Mrs. H. D. Thomas, who read the scripture lesson. This was followed by silent prayer for the Korean missionaries. Mrs. Horace MacFarlane was in charge of the study period, the topic being "Our fellow Canadians from the Orient", and painted a vivid picture of the problems of the Orientals in Canada, after which Mrs. C. D. Matheson and Mrs. John Hopkirk, taking the parts of two Oriental women, enacted a short scene. Mrs. W. A. Tremblay's account of Mrs. Montclair who designed the poster for the World Day of Prayer, was given by Mrs. MacFarlane. Mrs. MacLean read a letter written by Dr. Margaret Hockin, specialist in domestic, social and educational problems among the veiled women in Iraq. In reference to a letter from the temperance Federation relayed by the president, it was decided to send the regular fee for corporate membership in the Federation. Miss Mary Geldart read a letter from the Presbyterian stewardship secretary, Mrs. J. F. Scott, and this was followed by a short talk on stewardship by the president. Three new members were welcomed. The Lord's Prayer in unison brought the meeting to a close after which a social hour followed.
