IN MEMORIAM

JOHN D. MacPHAIL

In loving memory of John D. MacPhail, who departed this life, May 1, 1944.

God takes the best for reasons Divine, But memories cling to the end of time.

Inserted by Wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Birt, who passed away May 1st, 1945.

Today I am thinking of someone, Who was loving, kind and true, Whose smile was as dear as sunshine, Dear Grandmother, that someone was you.

Inserted by her granddaughter, Mrs. Olive Carr.

Says F.D.R., Willkie Planned New Party

WASHINGTON, April 30—(AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt and Wendell L. Willkie wanted to form a new political party uniting "liberal elements" in Democratic and Republican ranks but death intervened and prevented them from doing anything about it.

IN MEMORIAM

GEORGE REEVES
DORCAS REEVES

In loving memory of George Reeves and Dorcas Reeves, who passed away, April, 29th, 1946 and May 1st, 1946.

Oh, how oft they come before us, Their dear faces so sweet and true, Resting now in peace with Jesus, Loving hearts still long for you.

Sadly missed by family.

IN MEMORIAM

HARRY R. CRASWELL

In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Harry R. Craswell, Clyde, P. E. I. who departed this life on April 29th 1950.

It's just two years ago, dear Dad, Since you went home to rest, And those who think of you today.

Are the ones who loved you best. Sometimes it's hard to understand, Why our dear ones have to go, But your Saviour beckoned come To that better home above.

Lovingly remembered by his family.

eral elements" in Democratic and Republican ranks but death intervened and prevented them from doing anything about it.

This new sidelight on the new deal era, with supporting letters, is contained in an article in the Ladies' Home Journal by Samuel I. Rosenman, a Roosevelt adviser and speech-writer.

It is published today as an abstract from Rosenman's book, "Working With Roosevelt", soon to be published by Harper and Brothers.
