CHANGE IN CANADA'S FAVOR.—Representatives of large Canadian interests who have had occasion recently to test the feeling of American capitalists, unite in bearing witness to the fact that the panic across the line has revolutionized the opinions of United States investors regarding Canada. Canada, standing solid through the storm that shook every financial institution in the United States, was an object lesson not altogether wasted on American capitalists. They inferred from our survival of the crisis that Canadian enterprises are honestly managed. A good Canadian investment can now be offered in New York with far greater chances of success than in the days before the panic roused the Americans from their self-satisfied dreaming.—Toronto Telegram.

EDWARD FLANIGAN ESCAPES.

He Breaks a Lock in the Jail Gate About Eight o'clock this Morning.

"If you don't succeed at first, try, try again," seems to have been the motto of Edward Flanigan, a prisoner in Queen's County jail, awaiting trial in the Supreme Court. About eight days ago, as already stated in THE EXAMINER, he made an unsuccessful attempt to break jail by cutting through the stone wall of one of the cells. This morning he made another break for liberty, and this time success crowned his efforts.

From the time that he made the previous attempt to "break out" up to yesterday, Flanigan was kept in what is known as a refractory cell. Yesterday afternoon, however, it was considered advisable to make a change in this arrangement, and he was removed to one of the larger rooms on the same floor, the intention being to keep him in the refractory cell over night. In the afternoon he was allowed out in the yard for the usual rounds, and seemed pleased at getting outside once more.

Last night he slept in the refractory cell, and this morning about eight o'clock was again allowed outside in the yard to get some water and empty slops. He left the water bucket at the tap inside the jail and started for the sink in the western end of the yard with the slop-pail. The sink is some twenty-five or thirty yards from the jail building, and Mr Harvie was standing on the steps leading into the jail from which place he could note Flanigan's movements. Flanigan walked over to the sink and, dropping the slop-pail there, made a bold dash across the yard towards the gate on Richmond street. Mr Harvie saw him run and made after him. But Flanigan was too quick for him and by the time he reached the gate Flanigan was out side and was getting down Richmond street at a lively clip. It was useless for Mr. Harvie to follow. He was out of the race as Flanigan had a lead of about thirty yards.

The gate on the Richmond Street side of the jail is a double one, opening in the middle. It is fastened by two locks, one at the top of the gate and the other about midway between the top and bottom. In some way Flannigan broke the top lock and lowered the bolt. A strong pull on the gate caused it to come open and Flannigan was free.

The High Sheriff was notified of Flanigan's escape, and will no doubt put forth every effort to have him re-captured. At latest accounts, however, he was still at large.

WATSON'S NEW DRUGSTORE.

Mr. Watson, the well-known druggist is now in full occupation of his new drug store next door to Carter's seed store opposite the market on Queen Street. The store has had extensive improvements made in it and it is now one of the largest and best-equipped drug stores in the Province. It certainly presents a handsome appearance especially when brilliantly lighted at night. The premises consists of a large cellar and store-room manufacturing, packing and dispensing departments, private office and front shop. This last is finished in ash, mahogany and wainut, the work principally of Messrs Mark Wright & Co. Mr P H Trainor has had the decorating in charge, and with the Messrs Wright deserves much credit for the artistic and satisfactory effect. In his new premises, conveniently situated in the centre of traffic, with every facility for conducting business, Mr. Watson's well established reputation for reliability, his enterprise and liberal advertising should, and doubtless will, increase his already large trade. We wish him every success.

THE CHINA-JAPAN AFFAIR.

Advices from Yokohama are to the effect that China has asked for a further extension of the armistice granted by Japan, in order that the ratifications of the treaty of peace may be exchanged. Japan has consented to extend the time of the armistice five days. Count Myoji, secretary-general to the Japanese court of ministers, arrived in Chefoo on Tuesday and met Lord Lixoun, Li Hung Chang and the junior Chinese commissioner. Count Myoji acts for Viscount Mutau, the Japanese foreign minister, who is ill, in the exchange of peace ratifications.

The United Press correspondent at St. Petersburg says he learns from a high source that Russia has a separate understanding with China. This understanding does not cede Manchurian territory wholly to Russia, but places it under Russian control to the extent of allowing Russia, when so disposed, to prolong the Siberian railroad from Nertschinsk through the valleys of Noni and Sungari in Kirin province to Broughstone Bay, Sea of Japan. China agreed to let Russia build a branch railroad from Kirim city to New Chwang.

The Hamburger Nachrichten says: "As Germany has no interest in the question of territory involved in the treaty of Simonoseki, she must hava had secret grounds for interference. Germany's active policy was premature and unnecessary. Declaration of a benevolent neutrality would have fully proved her laudable desire to do Russia a service."

The London Standard prints the following from its Berlin correspondent: "There is reason to believe Japan will not hold any position of the Chinese mainland pending payment of war indemnity, but will rest satisfied with the support of the powers. It is rumored the Chinese indemnity loan will be issued at 102 with interest at 6 per cent."

The Times' St. Petersburg correspondent wires that military preparations in the east have been suspended by telegraphic orders. Russia is evidently glad to escape from her very awkward position.

The Journal de St. Petersburg, commenting on the modification of the Simono Seki treaty says: "Japan's renunciation dispels all fears arising from affairs in the east. This wise decision only tends to render secure the position which the victor owes to his success, and earns for him the esteem of the civilized nations which hope to see Japan heal the wounds that war inflicts and resume the work of strengthening and increasing its natural resources."

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, via Galveston, May 8.—There is no longer any doubt that Great Britain will receive her money on time. The £15,000 sterling to be paid by Nicaragua to Great Britain has been raised by popular donations. Three German mercantile firms have given about £2,000, and the whole amount will be ready to be paid in London in a few days. The raising of the money has increased the popular feeling in Nicaragua against Great Britain and the feeling is now very bitter indeed. The government opinion seems to be that the Central American republics will form a combination, possibly secret, against Great Britain, and that everything possible will be done to exclude British goods from Central America.
