MRS. DAVIS BAKER
 The community of Norboro and surrounding districts were saddened on Saturday, Nov. 23rd to hear of the passing of Mrs. Davis Baker in her 83rd year. Mrs. Baker was formerly Bertie Biggar and was the only daughter of the late Charles and Emily Williams of Upper St. John's Bridge.
 She resided in Preston for a number of years after her marriage, later moving to Summer side. For the past eight years she resided with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews of Norboro who both so willingly gave her devotion and loving care in her declining years.
 Of a cheerful and happy disposition, Mrs. Baker was loved and esteemed by all who knew her and many admired her great patience and tenderness in caring for sick and elderly persons.
 For many years she was a member and regular attendant of Preston's Presbyterian Church, also a member of the Women's Missionary Society and later attended the Presbyterian Church in Summerside where her place on Sunday was seldom vacant.
 Left to cherish her memory are her husband, Charlottetown, one daughter, Mrs. Donald Andrews, Norboro and one son Stanley of Cloverdale, B.C. also seven grandchildren and nineteen great grandchildren. Two brothers, J. Stanley and William W. resided in Summerside.
 The funeral which was largely attended was held on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 25th in the Preston Presbyterian Church and was conducted by her former pastor, Rev. Donald Kay of Summerside, who paid tribute to the deceased a a friend, a devoted wife and a devoted mother.
 Burial was in the cemetery of the same church.
 Pallbearers were Truman P. Aylmer, Andrew Jarland, Frank Murray, Fred St. John, Wilbert Drummond and Roland Sheen. Mr. Joseph Davidson was in charge of the funeral arrangements. Interment took place in New London cemetery.
 We cannot think of her as dead who is here with us no more. Along the path of life we tread, She has only gone before.
 The following were the floral tributes:-
FELLOW
 Hazel and Jack SPRAYS
 Stanley, Bessie and family Hazel, Tom and family Joan, Allan and family Annie, Truman, Nellie Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reeves and family.

 She resided in Preston for a number of years after her marriage, later moving to Summer side. For the past eight years she resided with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews of Norboro who both so willingly gave her devotion and loving care in her declining years.
 Of a cheerful and happy disposition, Mrs. Baker was loved and esteemed by all who knew her and many admired her great patience and tenderness in caring for sick and elderly persons.
 For many years she was a member and regular attendant of Preston's Presbyterian Church, also a member of the Women's Missionary Society and later attended the Presbyterian Church in Summerside where her place on Sunday was seldom vacant.
 Left to cherish her memory are her husband, Charlottetown, one daughter, Mrs. Donald Andrews, Norboro and one son Stanley of Cloverdale, B.C. also seven grandchildren and nineteen great grandchildren. Two brothers, J. Stanley and William W. resided in Summerside.
 The funeral which was largely attended was held on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 25th in the Preston Presbyterian Church and was conducted by her former pastor, Rev. Donald Kay of Summerside, who paid tribute to the deceased a a friend, a devoted wife and a devoted mother.
 Burial was in the cemetery of the same church.
 Pallbearers were Truman P. Aylmer, Andrew Jarland, Frank Murray, Fred St. John, Wilbert Drummond and Roland Sheen. Mr. Joseph Davidson was in charge of the funeral arrangements. Interment took place in New London cemetery.
 We cannot think of her as dead who is here with us no more. Along the path of life we tread, She has only gone before.
