At 8.00 o'clock Thursday morning, between 40 and 50 Island marksmen augmented by a substantial number from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick will move down to the 200 yard firing point at the Spruce Point rifle range, five miles east of Charlottetown.

The first shots will herald the opening of the 87th annual prize meet conducted by the P.E.I. Rifle Association, which will end late Saturday afternoon with the presentation of prizes in front of the clubhouse.

At stake for the Islanders will be the coveted 23 places that are available on the provincial rifle team which will compete at the Cinnaghta Range, 14 miles west of Ottawa, August 10th to 15th.

HUGHES HURLS 2-HITTER

Juniors Blank Shamrocks 7-0

Fast-ball pitcher John Hughes last evening hurled a two-hitter in leading Junior BYC to a 7-0 victory over the B.I.S. Shamrocks. In notching his victory, Hughes struck out 12 Irishmen and walked two.

The only two hits given up by Hughes were a single by Harold (Culver) Pincus in the fourth and a double by Merrill Longaphie, first sacker for the Irish, in the final frame.

Ed Murphy started for the losers, being relieved in the top of the fourth inning with the score reading 5-0 and with two men on base. Up to that time Murphy had been tagged for four hits; having issued eight free passes and struck out five. Joe Thistle taking over from Murphy, gave up three hits, fanned two, and walked none.

The Juniors scored two runs in the second frame, 3 in the third, 1 in the fifth and one in the sixth. Jim Farley, playing centrefield for the Juniors, in the third inning, hit a long double with two men on, and got home himself, when a Shamrock outfielder bobbled the ball.

Calling the balls and strikes was Donnie 'Funnel' MacLean, with 'Fats' Connors on the bases.

Park and Bedford were winners in the final scheduled games of the National Park Softball League.

Track Record May Topple This Evening

The Charlottetown track record of 2:05, set by Newport Chief during Old Home Week of 1956, could very well be broken this evening, when such horses as Mighty Lee, Just Betty's Mark, Lady Lakeburn, Mr. Rock, Ginger E., Ann's Dream, and Sir Joseph, compete in the feature event of the evening, the free-for-all trot and pace.

Mighty Lee, who grabbed the first dash of the Monctonian in 2:05-3, and Just Betty's Mark, who was a close second to Mighty Lee in a 2:06 mile at the local track in the last days in June, plus the other entries will give a good try at toppling the track record.

This plus seven other dashes should prove to be one of the best racing programmes to date this season, and racing enthusiasts are assured of plenty of thrills at C.D.P. this evening.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

On the cover of the latest issue of "The Harness Horse" is a photo reproduction of Joe O'Brien, driving Hanover to a 2:07 triumph in the $18,300 E.H. Hartman Challenge Trophy for two-year-old trotters, defeating the Kimberley Kid colt, Merrile Duke (Patterson), Duke of Decatur (Del Miller) and Love Hanover (Ames).

The S.A. Camp Farm's colt is a half brother to the former reliable trotter, Beck Hanover, 4, 2:02 4-5. The clocking cut two seconds from the season's two-year-old trotting standard on a half-mile track.

TRIBUTE In a recent edition of The Boston American, the sports columnist pays a tribute to Clarence Hansen, of Brentwood, California. He writes: "He is so consistent that spectators are amazed at his skill; his ability to make his steeds do just a little better than others... At 37, this veteran may run away with driving honors, for he has already scored more than 17 victories, bagging a triple the other night."

"Hawkins Hoss is the star of Hansen's string... Other color bearers include May Primrose, J.A. Bennett and Ruth Prudential—all pacers. Also the trotters Proud Hanover and Good Deal". Hawkins Hoss is owned by Walter Found, formerly of this province. We have been helped greatly in this column by the receipt of programs and clippings of races at Foxboro, Mass., and other tracks. These have been forwarded by Leslie Newcombe of Boston, to our friend, George MacDonaid, a recent clipping from Foxboro Raceway shows that in the B Trot, purse $1,000, the winner was Sectionman, driven by Len O'Meara of this city, time 2:09 2-5. Sectionman is owned by Elliot Saunders, Lexington, Mass.

Another Maritime driver, Earl Avery, was a winner last week of the Goshen Cup Pace, purse $16,500, for two-year-old pacers at Good Time Park, Wachen, N.Y. Avery won it with Minny Hanover, a bay colt by Adios, dam Madam Butterfly 2:07, by Volomite. The time for the two heats was 2:04 1-5 (which equals the track record for that age) and 2:05 2-5. Minny Hanover is owned by the Clearview Stables, Winthrop, Maine.

TROTTER PROSPECT One of the best young trotting prospects at the Charlottetown track is the four-year-old Jimmy Gallon, by Dean Gallon 2:07 3-5, by Bill Gallon 1:58 1-2. This youngster's dam is Lee's Nightmare, P. 2:10 1-5, by Bud Axworthy, P. 2:14, dam Lady Lou, by Colonel Aubrey 2:16 1-4. She is the dam of Jerry's Nightmare 2:06, Jean Clegg 2:13, and other good ones. The writer's interest in Jimmy Gallon is increased by the fact that he gave Bud Axworthy his record of 2:14 pacing, and also gave Colonel Aubrey, the grand-sire, his record of 2:16 1-4. Those were in the days when tracks were very heavy, and purposely kept slow, as horses were classified by the time they made in a race.

Races 2 and 6—Bud Henley (M. Turner) 2-1, My Clegg (K. Pinkney) 1-5, Guy Haven (Haley) 7-2, Hoosier-Henley (Grace) 3-6, Czarina Volo (Palmer) 6-3, three other starters, times 2:13 3-5 and 2:14 3-5; Bud Henley owned by Harry Whelby, Dartmouth, and My Clegg owned by W.H. Peart, Truro.

Race 5—Jolly Liz (Palmer) 1, Vibration (Larabee) 2, Prince Jollity (MacKenzie) 3, four other starters, time 2:20 1-5; winner owned by Lloyd Palmer, Leon's Brook, N.S. Race 8—Doctor Pence (J. Conroy) 1, Debra H. (Pinkney) 2, Brookdale's Tip (Williams) 3, five other starters, time 2:17; winner owned by Jenkins and Napke, Newcastle, N.B.

GOOD SHOWING At Sackville Downs Monday night Island horses and Island drivers had a particularly good record. In races 1 and 4—Gahagan (E. Shaw) 1-6, Miss Wilma Dale (J. MacGregor) 2-1, Guy Haven (D. Constable) 4-2, Jollity (Mac) (Ray O'Brien) 5-3, three other starters, time 2:15 2-5 and 2:13; Gahagan owned by Dr. George Bishop, Lexington, Ky., and Miss Wilma Dale by James MacGregor, Charlottetown.

In Races 2 and 6—Red's King (Elmer Smith) 1-1, Billy Elgin (S. Daniels) 2-3, Little Mose (R. McCarthy) 8-2, five other starters, time 2:15 and 2:13 4-5; Red's King owned by Mrs. Keith Thomas, Halifax. Races 3 and 7—Pineand Duke (G. Turner) 1-1, (Continued on page 9)

This minister of transport says: "This end up, handle with care!"

The family minister of transport jokes as he lifts his young son into the car but he is well aware that raising a growing child is no joke. It means watching family expenses with an eagle eye.

The government has been spending more than you have been paying in taxes. To narrow the gap between income and expenditures, new taxes have been imposed.

The annual expenditures of the Minister of Transport at Ottawa involve millions of dollars - and his department is only one of many.

You can encourage the government to live within its income by asking only for those services you are willing to pay for with taxes. Tell your M.P. at Ottawa that since you are trying to save, you expect government to do the same.

This money comes through the Minister of Finance who gets it largely in taxes from Canadians such as you. When he spends more than he takes in, he must borrow from you... or else create new money. The creation of new money is one factor that leads to inflation - which means your dollar buys less and less.

You also help when you save more by means of life insurance, savings deposits, and the purchase of government bonds. Your savings help to create a SOUND dollar; and this, in turn, helps to create job security for you and more jobs for other Canadians.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

MAYBE THE THOUGHT of having another birthday for Governor A. B. (Happy) Chandler in a bad mood. The other day Governor Chandler was 61. He celebrated the occasion by levelling his heavy guns at baseball - or at least at the men who now run it. As fans will remember Chandler was once baseball's high commissioner, serving from 1945 to 1951 when he was unceremoniously booted out by the game's various club owners.

Now chief executive of the Bluegrass State, Chandler singled out present commissioner Ford Frick for special mention. "As far as leadership is concerned," said Chandler, "baseball is bankrupt. Baseball liquidated the office of commissioner when it refused to renew my contract and got just what the owners wanted, when they named pliable (Ford) Frick."

"FRICK KNOWS nothing of baseball and he spends more time in places like Toots Shors than he does on baseball matters. He and Taubman are more interested in holding their jobs and pleasing the major league owners than in helping baseball, the players and fans."

"The office of commissioner was set up to restore public confidence in baseball and to protect the people and the players. The players have so little support from and so little confidence in Frick that they had to get their own representatives to fight for them. That lack of confidence on the part of the players would have caused me to resign - but Frick is interested only in the owners."

CHANDLER OBSERVED that the calibre of baseball has deteriorated 25 per cent in the last few years and predicted it will continue on the downgrade as the minor league training empire dwindles.

"We have a limit on how little a fish can be caught," he said, "but baseball has no such limits on players. They vetoed the rule which banned the signing of high school and college players and they're paying these huge bonuses to untried youngsters."

"Major league ball players must be smart and mature or at least mature. But you'll find a lot of kids up there who just aren't ready and a lot of old timers who should have retired years ago. Baseball just isn't as good as it used to be."

"THEY HIT a new low when they passed that rule to allow inter-league trades without getting waivers. Frick was against it but that made no difference to the owners. It just shows how much power Frick has. I just wouldn't have permitted it no matter what the owners wanted."

ON THE THIRD MAJOR LEAGUE PLAN which is being studied Chandler observed: "If baseball is to survive - and I think it is headed for destruction - you must have local rivalries. Who cares whether the Phillies beat Los Angeles or San Francisco? You can't find out until the next day anyway if they play on the coast."

The three-league answer is to set up one circuit on the East Coast, one in the Mid-West and one in the Far West. It would cut travelling expenses and set up rivalries, which do not exist.

"I ALSO THINK umpires should be handled only by the commissioner, and that they should be officials of baseball - not of the American and National Leagues. That would get away from World Series and All-Star game incidents such as choke up signs. Umpires should work in both leagues during the season."

Concluding his blast Chandler said: "Baseball no longer belongs to the fans. They have no say about anything. Baseball belongs to those selfish men who own the major league clubs - and they will ruin it eventually."

NEW YORK YANKEES are at present in the midst of what could be their most important series of the entire campaign. These three games with the Cleveland Indians could go a long way in deciding whether or not the Bombers from New York have a chance to share in the world series money this coming October.

If the Yankees fail to gain on the Tribe in this set, their chances of repeating as American league champions will just be that much smaller. However, if the Stengeletes can gain ground in this three-game series in the Indians' park, then there will be a kick left in the boys from Yankee Stadium.
