Novel Button Blouse

By ALICE ALDEN

Buttons fasten many a fashion theme this season and appear on everything from bags to blouses. Dorothy Korby uses a parade of buttons to accent her adaptation of the Italian boy shirt. She does this in a beautiful, textured acetate-and-cotton fabric and there are smoky buttons to outline the unusual and flattering shape of the sleeves and to serve functionally as well as to decorate the tab-front. A grand, typically American fashion at a price which is what most of us want.

for this sale. Collection was $3.35. The Red Cross convener sent in the following work during the year: 9 pr. ankle socks, 2 prs. overalls, 2 tunics, 1 baby layette, 6 pull-over sweaters, and 35 knitted squares for blankets for Greece.
