Companies Plan A Large Merger TORONTO (CP) - Massey-Harris-Ferguson Ltd., Canadian farm-implement company, has offered to buy all the ordinary shares of Standard Motor Company of Great Britain which are not already held by Massey-Harris. Announcement of the offer was made Wednesday on behalf of the RESOLUTIONS Resolutions passed at W.C.T.U. Convention, held at Mrs. Gordon MacMillan's July 3rd. 1957 were as follows.

Whereas the sale of intoxicants on our island is no attraction to the type of Tourists-we desire and whereas each new outlet means greater consumption by our people, resolved that we request our government to refuse permission for any further outlet.

Resolved that we express deep appreciation of the action of our government in appropriating $5,000 for alcohol education in the schools of this province.

Whereas the ideals expressed in popular songs are less than Christian and whereas it is said that the songs of a nation have bearing on it's laws, be it resolved that the W.C.T.U. bring to bear all the influences at their disposal to uphold Christian ideals of home, truth, purity and Christian Character.

CONDITIONAL OFFER The offer has been approved by Standard directors. It is dependent upon acceptance by not less than 90 per cent of the 22,451,750 ordinary stock units of Standard and by not less than 75 per cent in number of the holders of the units, or such lesser percentages as Massey-Harris may decide.

Consent of the appropriate British governmental authorities also must be obtained. Standard itself would remain as a separate corporate entity with its existing board and the addition of Massey-Harris representation.
