MR. AND MRS. CYRIL PETER WALSH

Pretty Wedding Solemnized At Miscouche, P.E. Island

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. John The Baptist Church, Miscouche, on July 14th, at 10 a.m., when Rev. Michael Rooney, cousin of the groom, united in marriage Mary Nova Veno, R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Veno, Miscouche, and Cyril Peter Walsh, son of Mrs. Benjamin Walsh and the late Mr. Walsh of Montreal.

The altar of the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white and yellow tulle. Mr. John DesRoches was organist and accompanied Miss Mia Becker, who sang "Mother, At Your Feet We're Kneeling", "Pans Angelicus" and "O Lord, I'm Not Worthy".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her wedding gown of embroidered net over satin, ballerina length, featuring a fitted bodice with tulle neckline. The fingertip veil of imported illusion was held in place with a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Geraldine Veno, sister of the bride, as bride maid, was gowned in white organza over tulle, ballerina length, with pale green cummerbund and green floral embroidery. She wore an apple green picture hat of imported illusion and carried a cascade of pink roses.

Mr. Benedict Walsh was his brother's best man. Messrs. Elia Veno, brother of the bride, and Leo Walsh, brother of the groom, ushered the guests to their seats which were marked with white ribbon and yellow carnations.

Mrs. Veno chose for her daughter's wedding a pure silk flowered sheath dress, with matching hat, white accessories and a

Following the dinner, the eldest grand-daughter extended congratulations, love and all good wishes to Grannie and Pops as they are affectionately called. She presented them with an envelope containing a sum of money from their two daughters, their son, seventeen grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

ELLEN'S DIARY

September A Month Of Charm And Mellow Days

By this, it comes to mind, the September-month will have come. She is a dainty miss, my fancy, blue-eyed, golden-gowned. She wears a sparkling necklace of sapphires, a wreath of asters gathered at a brookside in her fair hair.

"I love September best of all the months—love her mellow days and her ripeness: the array of stocks on the stubbles, and the gardens and orchards so full!" I recall one day, the joy of it at heart. She has been called away since last harvest to a land of eternally green meadows and watered gardens to dwell.

A sweet-sad month it is. Full of charm, gold and blue days, fruited trees and vines; corn golden on tall green stalks; grainlands being harvested—sound of binder reaping, of combine gathering in, of thrasher winnowing, a long length and breadth of the farmlands. Sweet, yes but sad when glimpsing the Autumnal tues creeping into the woodlands and touching the trees in the hedgerows, we remember another year of our precious time is drawing now to a close.

This however was an August day. One with overcast skies and odd showers, of concern to the farmers who would like to get on apace with their fieldwork. "No day this to dig potatoes," one coming by offered with a disappointed air, "You need a..."

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes expressed deepest thanks and appreciation to best family ever. Later all joined in a sing-song with Mrs. Arthur Coffin at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Carroll and Miss Rose MacDonald of Somerset, Mass., spent a holiday in Souris recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Winters of Halifax, N.S. and Mrs. T. Brown and Carrie and Carol of Dartmouth, N.S., spent a holiday with relatives and friends in Souris recently.

Baskets of white gladioli and bouquets of vari-colored sweet-peas made a pretty setting for a miscellaneous shower for Miss Elinor Bernard, R.N., held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bernard, Kensington. Pink and white streamers marked the seat of honor to which she was escorted by Miss Lois Shaw of Charlottetown. She was presented with a bouquet of sweet peas by her niece, Cindy Bernard. Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Charles Kennedy. The well filled baskets were carried in by Beverley and Stephen Bernard, niece and nephew of the bride-elect, and the ribbons were cut by Miss Betty Milton of Malden, Mass., and Miss Pamela Shaw of Charlottetown. Miss Beth Carruthers of Augustine Cove and Mrs. Roger Kennedy read the gift cards, and the many lovely gifts were arranged by Miss Joan Bonness of Kensington and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Mrs. Allison Roach.

Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Fred Semple, Mrs. Allison Bernard, Mrs. E. H. Bean, Mrs. Charles Kennedy, Mrs. Horace Paynter and Mrs. John Milton.

Mr. John Milton followed the various phases of the shower for Miss Elinor Bernard with a polioid camera, the rapid development of the prints adding much to the interest of the evening.

Martel-Doucette Vows Pledged At Palmer Road

The Immaculate Conception Church, Palmer Road, was the scene of a pretty wedding recently when Edna Doucette, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Doucette, became the bride of Joseph Martel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Desere Martel of Halifax, N.S. Rev. Patrick Walsh officiated and performed the Nuptial Mass. Mrs. John S. Gaudet was organist and sang several appropriate hymns.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of nylon net over tulle, floor length, featuring a very full skirt, slim fitted bodice, long tapering sleeves and a high neckline accented with sequins. A coronet of tiny pearls held her waist length veil in place and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Ida Doucette, sister of the bride, was to be sober at work, giving it all his attention, but the dimples happily when at play. Thoughtful and generous and of a mild to be fair, he is much interested in his 4-H work and doing quite well at it, under the capable and kindly instructors that are his.

His calf? Granddaughter chuckled to her grandfather this evening: "She did well? How else could she do? Didn't I put a good wish on her' that night of the weighing?"

September will have come by this—but this was an overcast and sometimes showery, August day.

bride, as maid of honor, was gowned in ballerina length pearl green net over tulle with matching bolero and white accessories and carried a bouquet of Queen Elizabeth roses. Mr. Alphonse LeClair was the best man. Mrs. Doucette chose for her daughter's wedding a blue nylon dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. Following the ceremony breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents with Rev. Patrick Walsh and Rev. N. Gallant among the guests. The bridal party then motored to different points of interest in the province returning in the evening to the home of the groom's parents where supper was served to a large number of invited guests. The dining room was attractively decorated in a color scheme of blue and white streamers and wedding bells and the table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The evening was spent in music and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Martel will take up residence in Halifax, N.S.
