

MY HUSBAND.

Who in my youth said "dearest come, Forsake your precious childhood home, And with me o'er the wide world roam?" My husband.

Who gently led me in the way, And caused my heart to bless the day That took me from my home away? My husband.

Who at first sounding of alarm Would fold round me his loving arm, To shield me from impending harm? My husband.

Who at first token of distress, Exhibited by restlessness, Oft soothed me by his fond caress? My husband.

Who, if long, watchful nights there be, When sleep—sweet sleep—won't come to me, Will keep awake for company? My husband.

Who, when I, with each nerve unstrung, Next move round my cares among, If I should fret, would "hold his tongue?" My husband.

When if in haste to mar our bliss One word is thoughtless and amiss, Who asks forgiveness with a kiss? My husband.

Who through all changing scenes of life, The bright, the dark, the peace, the strife, Would call me naught but "precious wife?" My husband.

When on the couch of suffering laid, With throbbing pulse and aching head, Who anxious watches round my bed? My husband.

Who, when of kindred dear bereft, And my sad heart in twain is cleft, Proves that my dearest friend is left? My husband.

When overwhelmed with grief and fears, And through the gloom no star appears, Who cheers my heart and wipes my tears? My husband.

And when I've done with all below, And death's dark waters round me flow, Would fain with me o'er Jordan go? My husband.

MY WIFE.

IN RESPONSE TO HER STANZAS "MY HUSBAND." What maiden in the days of yore, Smote me with tremendous power, Inflicting pangs unknown before? My wife.

Who pitied me in my distress, And by one simple little "Yes," Changed all my woe to blessedness? My wife.

Who did with look almost divine, My soul in cords of love entwine, And gave her priceless heart for mine? My wife.

Who to the altar went with me, Our hearts aglow with ecstasy, And my good angel vowed to be? My wife.

Who since I to the altar led, My blushing bride, and vows were said, Has naught but blessings round me shed? My wife.

Who in our pilgrimage below Has cheered with smiles the passage through, And ever faithfull proved and true? My wife.

When pressed with sorrow, toil and cares, Who all my grief and trouble shares, And half at least my burden bears? My wife.

When tempests rage and billows roll, And human passions spurn control, Who calms the tumult of my soul? My wife.

When storms are hushed and skies are bright And shadows dark are changed to light, Who joys with me in sweet delight? My wife.

Who was in youth th' admired of men, But now, at threescore years and ten, Is far more beautiful than then? My wife.

As down life's rugged steep I go, With careful trembling steps and slow, Who clings to me and helps me through? My wife.

Who when my toilsome days are o'er, Will meet me on blest Canaan's shore, And sing with me for evermore? My wife.

CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS. The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered.

Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniment.

After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects.

Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
