A Charlottetown service station worker, Walter G. Reid, 121 Water St., was injured Saturday evening in a waterfront accident.

He is now reported "resting comfortably" in the P.E.I. Hospital.

Mr. MacDonnell received a crushed shoulder, five broken ribs, and a badly cut hand, when he was pinned beneath a large mobile crane on the Yacht Club wharf.

The crane, which had been hoisting a float, fell over when the wharf gave way beneath it. A tow truck lifted the crane off the injured man.

Boy Is Hurt In Bicycle Mishap

Fifteen-year-old Gerald Casford, of Charlottetown, received minor injuries yesterday when he fell from his bicycle on the Southport road, about 1,200 yards south of the Trans-Canada highway intersection.

Apparently the wheel of the bicycle had hit a stone.

The youth, the son of Mrs. Evelyn Casford, 186 Queen St., was treated in the out-patient department of the Charlottetown Hospital.
