Diamond-McInnis Nuptials
A wedding of much interest was solemnized on Monday morning at six o'clock in Trinity Church. Parsonage, when the Rev. Canon Malone, Minister of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. McInnis, was united in marriage to Miss Oscar Diamond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Diamond and the late Mr. Diamond.
The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon Malone, assisted by the Rev. Canon Malone, assistant pastor of Trinity United Church. The bride was dressed in a rose colored ensemble with mauve hat and shoes and a corsage of mauve sweet peas.
Her sister Mildred, who was bridesmaid, wore powder blue with a corsage of pink sweet peas. Mr. Oscar Diamond was groomsmen.
Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home. At the wedding breakfast, which was served to intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom, Mrs. Sterling Giddings and Mrs. Ivan McInnis poured coffee.
The bride's reception at Mrs. Diamond left by motor for Montreal. Mrs. Diamond wore a wine costume for travelling.
Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Wm. Diamond, Amherst, Mr. Fred Bowser, Miss Bowser and Frank Bowser, Moncton, and the Reverend and Mrs. McLeod, Illinois.

W. I. Convention

The Rollo Bay East division taking in Rollo Bay East, Souris West, Gowan Bay, New Zealand, Bear River South, Bear River North and St. Margaret's, held their district convention in Rollo Bay East hall on Tuesday, July 4th. There was a good attendance. The convention opened with the installation of Officers followed by the singing of "Your Own Star in My Blue Heaven", Virginia Hughes. Recitation, Children of the Empire, Mrs. Montgomery and Miss Louise Hazard. Assistant Supervisor, gave a demonstration on Felt Work which was very interesting. He also read a paper on Handicraft and gave a short talk on sewing clubs. There was quite a display of handicraft which showed that at least some of the members were interested in such work.
Mrs. Lawrence Lannigan was appointed to attend the Provincial convention in Charlottetown or in case of her being unable to attend, Mrs. Wm. Hughes was appointed to take her place. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Abden Howell; Secretary, Minnie A. Chais.
Remarks were made by Mrs. Rich Klokham and a lively interest was taken in the Question Box. A vote of thanks was tendered the retiring President, Mrs. Lawrence Lannigan and retiring Secretary, Mrs. Lazarus McLaughlin, also Miss Louise Hazard. The pianists for the afternoon were Mrs. Chester McLaughlin and Minnie A. Chais.
A feature of the afternoon program was a delicious lunch in which each member was copiously served. Convention adjourned by singing the National Anthem.

S. D. U. Alumni

Dr. F. O. Dougan of Charlottetown was elected president of the St. Dunstan's University Alumni Association at the annual meeting of the organization held Thursday evening. Vice presidents named include E. J. H. McCreary and Amos C. Carson; Secretary, Rev. R. V. MacKenzie; Assistant Secretary, Rev. J. A. Sullivan; Committee, Leo F. MacDougall, Dr. J. A. MacDougall, Dr. Wm. McLellan, Rev. R. P. MacDougall, Dr. Roy Grant, Alfred Doucette, and J. Pius Callaghan.

Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan was re-elected to the Board of Governors of the College.

Arthur McGulgan and Charles Praught were appointed auditors for the ensuing year.

The College was packed with former students back to renew old associations and friendships of College years. They varied in years from the graduate of 1939 to the venerable Francis Dean, who entered St. Dunstan's in 1865. Many came from distant points for the reunion from Oklahoma, New York, Massachusetts, Quebec, Maine and Nova Scotia. Retiring President, Leo F. MacDougall presided.

In his report of the year's activities he stressed the effort of the Association to provide a suitable athletic field for the boys of the College. Among the speakers were: Mr. Justice Arsenault, A. H. McLellan of Boston, Dr. J. A. MacDougall, Dr. Wm. McLellan, Mark R. McGulgan, Rev. James Rooney of Oklahoma, Rev. Charles Trainor of Baltimore, H. F. MacPhee, and Rev. P. Callaghan.

Visitors were heartily welcomed by Rev. Dr. J. A. Murphy, Rector of the University.

The sympathy of many friends here is extended to the family of Mr. Boyd Harding, French River, in the passing of the loved wife and mother from the home so suddenly following an operation in Prince County Hospital. The deceased was a highly respected lady and by her cheerful disposition made for herself many friends who all deeply deplore her passing in the prime of womanhood. We do not know her but now but thou shalt know her after.

The Sea View W. I. was held on Wednesday evening in the Institute Room. Owing to the rain there was a much smaller meeting than usual. President presided and opened the meeting with the Ode followed by the Creed. The different committees gave satisfactory reports. Owing to the small attendance no new business was decided on. Several suggestions were made about raising funds but was left over. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. J. A. Coulson and Mrs. Joseph Coulson. The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

Mrs. J. A. Brown is spending a pleasant visit in Sea View, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Donald.

Miss Anna Donald was a recent visitor to Sea View the guest of Marie Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Adams have had as their recent guests Mr. and Mrs. Kenny, Mr. Wood and Miss Marjorie Wood. They left on Friday morning for their home in Medford, Mass., making the trip by motor. They all greatly enjoyed the beautiful weather and were greatly enthused with the fishing, the lovely beaches and all other enjoyments, provided them.

The blueberries are scarce this year no doubt owing to the dry season.

A large crowd gathered in Darnley on Tuesday evening and spent a pleasant time in dancing music was furnished by Mr. Russell McKenzie and Mr. James Harding.

The Darnley W. I. held a most pleasant afternoon at Darnley Beach on Tuesday when the members with several visitors gathered for a picnic. The day was ideal for bathing and sunbathing on the beach when later a beautiful tea was served to which all did ample justice.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Crozier were visitors to Summerside on Wednesday. Their little son Delmer was a patient in Prince County Hospital for a short time.

A number of friends from this community attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Harlow French River, which was held from her residence on Tuesday afternoon. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining St. Thomas Church at Spring Brook.

Dr. Pearl H. Wood of Dartmouth, Halifax, is spending her holidays at her home in Malpeque the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hume Hopgood.

The friends of John Bassett are pleased to see him out again after his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Borden Connell
