PGE 1 BURNHAM

Burnham Made Guiana Premier

FROM REUTERS-AP

GEORGETOWN (CP)—Forbes Burnham, leader of the Peoples National Congress party, has been sworn in night as premier of British Guiana.

The ceremony was performed by Governor Sir Richard Luyt shortly after a constitutional amendment had been signed in London empowering the governor to dismiss Cheddi Jagan as Premier.

Jagan, who had refused at first to resign after his party failed to win an over-all in last week's general election, outlined Monday, a program of vigorous non-violent opposition to the new government, aimed at regaining power in the next election if not earlier.

European Security Talks Urged

UNITED NATIONS (CP)—Polish Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki has proposed a conference of all the states of Europe to deal with continental security. He said the United States and the Soviet Union should participate.

Rapacki made the proposal in a policy speech to the United Nations General Assembly in which he declared the plan for the multilateral nuclear force advocated by the U.S. would wreck disarmament negotiations, widen the East-West split and spark Communist countermeasures.

Cyprus Force Extension Is Suggested

By CARMAN CUMMING

UNITED NATIONS (CP) — Secretary - General U. Thant has reported civil fighting on Cyprus, which broke out almost a year ago, has "virtually ceased."

But he warned a "state of potential civil war" still exists on the Mediterranean island and recommended the United Nations force be kept there for another three months after Dec. 16.

Thant said he assumed countries now contributing men and money for the operation will continue their support. Nine countries are supplying troops and police to the 6,279 - man force, which includes 1,146 men from Canada, 1,060 from Ireland and 1,049 from Britain.

Duke Admits Apprehensive

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The Duke of Windsor said here he definitely will undergo abdominal surgery but said he does not believe his ailment is serious.

"Are you fearful?" he was asked at a press conference.

"Everyone is a little apprehensive," he replied. He said he had suffered no distress and expected to be out of the hospital by Christmas.

20,000 Believed Killed By Rebels

LONDON (Reuters)—The total number of persons killed by rebels in The Congo is estimated to be more than 20,000, including 5,000 in Stanleyville alone, George Thomson, minister of state for foreign affairs, said here.

The worst atrocities committed by the rebels were against other Congolese, he told questioners in the House of Commons.
