'Pinarofe' has reached South Africa but there is little hope that it will stay there.

Sculpture in the England of to day is the least flourishing and the least popular of the fine arts, says an English critic.

There are now more mackerel off the Massachusetts coast than have been seen before in sixteen years and fishermen are having a happy time of it.

A woman dressed in man's clothing was arrested on St. Patrick Street, Ottawa, the other night, and said she was on the lookout for an erring sister.

Look out for an exceptionally hot spell: Mr. Vennor predicts a cold wave after the 20th inst., with fall like weather, frosts at night, and possibly snow in mountainous parts.

The ladies of Italy have adopted a fashion this summer of dressing only in white robes adorned with natural flowers, jewelry being put strictly under ban. To do up a white dress at the laundry $3 is charged, and the flowers cost $4 a day.

Six-year-old—'Ma, what's mellow?'
Mother—'Ripe.'
Six-year-old—'Then is pa ripe?'
Mother—'Why do you ask?'
Six-year-old—'Cause the cook said to the chambermaid that pa came home rather mellow last night.'

Mr. Ruskin shakes his thunder at the novelists. Modern English novels, he avers, are conspicuous as works of imagination, for an absence of all that is noble, of all which makes life respectable, and the primary cause of the falling away is the fact that novelists for the most part live in cities.

There is in Paris just at present a gentleman from the Ardennes who bears such a surprising resemblance to Gambetta that he is followed by crowds wherever he goes. As the Ardennaise Dromio is rather free and jovial in his habits and excessively gallant, his presence is daily productive of comical incidents.

Previous to the consecration of Canon Ryle as Bishop of Liverpool, a clergyman wrote to the Archbishop of York, charging that the canon had violated St. Paul's express statement that a bishop "must be the husband of one wife," and that he has had four wives. He ought not, therefore, to be consecrated.

A woman gave birth to triplets the other day in New Orleans and her husband rushed at once to the river and jumped in to drown himself, but was rescued. It was not, however anxiety for the support of the new comers, only his fears for his own living as his wife had hitherto provided for his wants by taking in washing. Such men don't deserve to have even twins born to them much less triplets.

Anos Harrison and Pilo Peters, bathing in the Arkansas river 40 miles east of Pueblo, Col., on Sunday, found an iron pot containing $3,000 in gold and silver. A letter in a buckskin purse found in the pot, dated April 12th, 1860, says:—"I stole money in Chicago from a farmer. My partner died in Kansas city, March 15th. I am going to New Mexico. If anybody finds this pot they can keep the money—Signed, A. T. F."

A certain member of Parliament who owned extensive estates was spending a few days at the residence of a noble family. There were several interesting and accomplished young ladies in the family to whom the honorable member showed every attention. Just as he was about to leave, the nobleman's wife proceeded to consult him upon a matter which, she alleged, was causing her no little distress. "It is reported," said the Countess, "that you are to marry my daughter Lucy, and what shall we do? What shall we say about it?" "Oh," responded the considerate M. P., "just say she refused me."

A Good Account.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness and suffering, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife, who has done her own household work for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it for their benefit."

August Flower.

The immense sale and great popularity of Green's August Flower in all towns and villages in the civilized world has caused many imitators to adopt similar names, expecting to reap a harvest for themselves at the expense of the afflicted. This medicine was introduced in 1868, and for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, with their effects, such as Sour Stomach, Sickheadache, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, vertigo, etc., etc., it never has failed to sur knowledge. Three doses will relieve any case of Dyspepsia. Two million bottles sold last year. Price 75 cents. Samples 10 cents.

Remedy for Hard Times.

Stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style. Buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of running after expensive and quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, and makes the proprietors rich, but put your trust in the greatest of all simple pure remedies, Hop Bitters that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see better times and good health. Try it once. Read of it in another column.

ST. MARGARET'S HALL, HALIFAX, N. S.

SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

VISITOR:
The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia

PRINCIPAL:
The Rev. John Padfield.

THIS SCHOOL offers, at very moderate cost, the advantages of a comfortable and pleasant home together with a thorough and refined education.

The course of instruction is the same as that of the best schools in England and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Eight young ladies from this School passed the Local Examination of the University of King's College in June last. This is the only School in Canada that has passed pupils at a University Examination.

The number of pupils is limited, rendering the School select, and while it possesses all the educational advantages of a large public school, each pupil is enabled to receive that individual care and oversight which is so important, and which cannot be given in a large establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Padfield are assisted by a staff of four resident governesses, besides visiting masters.

Parisienne French is taught conversationally. There are two resident French Governesses.

References given to parents of pupils. For further particulars address the Principal.
