BERLIN, Dec. 7.—(AP)—East German Communists today made good their threat to divorce the Protestant Church in Brandenburg from Western leadership. The cabinet of the state which surrounds Berlin adopted an ordinance requiring the Evangelical Denomination to take order only from clerics who live in the Russian zone

O'Leary and Vicinity

On Saturday Dec. 2nd Mrs. Costain celebrated her nineteenth birthday. The members of the family and relatives held a party for her at the home of Mrs. Jamie Smallman. The guest of honor received a number of lovely gifts. There was an attractive birthday cake and delicious refreshments were served. This grand old lady has the good wishes of a multitude of friends that Almighty God will continue to bless her in the eventide of her life.

The annual meeting of the Mill River East Presbyterian Young Peoples Society was held at the Haywood home. The devotions were conducted by the minister, Rev. G. B. Cunningham of Alberton. The roll call was responded to by eleven members. The following officers were then elected with the Minister presiding as chairman—President—Mrs. Jamie Gard; vice president—Mrs. Kentford Horne; secretary—Mrs. R. G. Haywood; social conveners—Mrs. George Cunningham and Mrs. Sutherland Bell. The retiring president, Mrs. Sutherland Bell thanked the members for their co-operation. This active and enthusiastic group of young people are looking forward to another year of interesting and instructive meetings. Committees for the next two weeks are: Sick—Mrs. Kentford Horne; devotional—Mrs. Harold Horne. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kentford Horne.

—There was an attendance of about thirty on Monday night Dec. 4th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Lockhart in Coleman when the annual meeting of the Brae United Church Young People's Union was held. The meeting opened with a short devotional service conducted by the President Mrs. Roy Oulton. A fine financial report was given by the secretary-treasurer Mrs. Lorne MacNevin. The Y. P. U. had a paid up membership of 24, and it is one of the largest groups in the Western Presbytery Y. P. U. During last year it bought new hymn books for the church, contributed to many charities and sponsored two community parties in which all the children of the community were invited, one at Christmas and one at Halloween. The minister Rev. W. G. Dickson presided over the election of officers, all of whom were re-elected, as follows:—President—Mrs. Roy Oulton; vice president—Mrs. Fred W. MacLeod; secretary-treasurer—Mrs. Lorne MacNevin. The following conveners were appointed:—Missions—

Mrs. Robert Oulton; fellowship—Mrs. John MacNevin; citizenship—Mrs. Donna Palmer of Freeland, school teacher at Brae; Culture—Mrs. Ivey MacPadyen, the minister then led in a study entitled "The Church" and the meeting closed by the Mizpah Benediction, after which delicious refreshments were served by the ladies.

—YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETING. —Mr. Marshall Callbeck presided at the Y. P. S. meeting of the Summerside Church of Christ on Tuesday evening in the hall and Miss Joyce Enman was in charge of the devotions. There were 21 members present and Mrs. Milton Mellish was pianist. Arrangements were made to take one church service a month, beginning the last Sunday in January, as a project in Christian Service. During the study period, the minister gave an interesting talk on "The Indestructibility of the Scriptures" one in a series of Evidences of Christianity.—S.

—MR. AND MRS. CLUB MEETS. —The regular meeting of the "Mr. and Mrs." Club of the Summerside Trinity United Church was held on Monday evening in Epworth Hall with "Bill and Betty" Gallop presiding. The Nominating Committee called for the appointment of a First Vice-President to replace Alan and Amanda Wedlock, who have left for Moncton, N. B., to reside. Don and Winnie Baker were chosen. The program was in charge of Horace and Pat MacFarlane, with Rev. L. M. Murray of Kensington being guest speaker, and giving an inspiring talk on "The Meaning of Christmas." An interesting article entitled "Fare My Memories" was read by Pat MacFarlane. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the committee in charge.—S.

—ENTERTAINS BAPTIST W. M. S.—Mrs. J. F. Taylor entertained the members of the W.M.S. of the Summerside Baptist Church on Tuesday afternoon at her home at the December meeting. The president, Mrs. Jack MacLeod, opened with the hymn "Hark, the herald angels sing." Roll call was answered by a splendid attendance of members by a Scripture verse containing the word "Love." The secretary, Mrs. C. B. Jelly, read a letter of greeting from Dr. Zella Clark, Provincial Representative, U. F. W. M. U. and now residing in Ladner, B. C. It was decided to make a box for the port worker at Halifax, N. S. The Scripture lesson in St. Luke 27 on the subject "Following Afar Off" was read by the president after which she offered prayer. The hymn "O come all ye faithful" and responsive Bible reading on a Christmas selection in St. Matthew were followed by an interesting article entitled "Making Christmas Last" by Mrs. Wilfred Inman. Mrs. Jelly read "The Day After Christmas" after which Mrs. W. A. Harper presented a paper on "Bathing in the Ganges." An instructive article written by Miss Edith Mann on the Lepers Hospital in India was given by Mrs. Sherman Parlee. It was decided that the special topic for prayer for the month would be for the lepers in India and the missionary work on their behalf. Following the Mizpah benediction, a social hour was held when the hostess served tea.—S.
