

JUNE.

Lily! uplifting pearly-petals cups
A sceptre thou—a silver-headed wand,
By lusty June—the Lord of Summer, waved
To give to blade and bud his high command.

CURRENT NOTES.

Princess Beatrice's marriage will take place on July 23 next.
The German Imperial Army is to be increased to 480,000 infantry, and 60 per cent in artillery.

A well-beaten egg is a great addition to a dried-apple pie, giving lightness and a good flavor also.

An increase of ten per cent, in the cotton acreage points to low prices for cotton goods for some time to come.

A number of social young folks in Cincinnati have revived the old-time popular game of battledoor and shuttlecock.

A little borax put in the water in which scarlet napkins and red-bordered towels are to be washed, will prevent them from fading.

Pots of mignonette are now considered chic for the boudoir. A broad band of orange or pale blue ribbon and bow ornament the pot.

One reason why a tame alligator at a certain aquarium is let alone, is because of a sign reading: "Idiots will please stir him up."

A dainty little fashion is introduced of having a card-case made to match the calling costume, and any lady can easily make one to match any dress she desires.

The weather conundrums of Ireland. My first is the beginning of winter, my second ushers in autumn, my third is the end of summer; my whole is a terrible thing.

The California Chinaman hit it plumb-centre, when he said:—"Your churches spend millions of dollars to teach us the Gospel, and then your Christians use us like dogs if we seek homes among you.

It is rather early to start the open rebellion question, but here's "the first brick." "Open rebellion is more than probable, in the Green Isle, now that the Tories have come into power, with all their old animosities and overbearing bitterness."

Our strawberry growers may be glad to know that, among all the new varieties of strawberries, the "May King," grown by Mr. Thomas G. Zane, of Crew's Landing, New Jersey, and sold last year by Mr. Charles H. Stewart, Water and Callowhill Streets, Phil., is a big strawberry which retains the fine wild flavor of the little ones, says the Record.

On various occasions when friends are together of an evening, provide a pencil and a slip of paper to each, then agree on a word, for instance, take the word "orange" and see how many other words you can make with the letters in it. Those who may never have tried this "interlude to music" have little idea how pleasurable as well as instructive the effort is.

Henry Ward Beecher gets along rapidly. He now denies that God is the direct author of the Bible, and says that Slavery and Mormonism are both taught by the Bible and that the Mormons "believe in it like thunder." Beecher's dignified rhetoric is as powerful as his logic. Beecher evolves "like thunder," making a loud noise and then dying away in the distance.

The new Connecticut law against "flash" literature, which has just gone into effect, imposes a fine of $50 or less, and imprisonment for three months or less, or both, at the discretion of the Court, upon every person who shall sell, lend, give or offer, any book, magazine, pamphlet, or paper devoted wholly or principally to the publication of criminal news, or pictures and stories of deeds or blood-shed, lust or crime.

The convention of American railway master mechanics met at Willard's Hall, Washington, D. C., on Tuesday. The vice-president, Mr. J. Davis Barnett, of Port Hope, Ont., presided. The object of the convention is to discuss all matters relating to the question of extending the improvements and still further developing the railway "art." Mr. H. A. Whitney, of the I. C. R., Moncton, is among the delegates present.
