

MR. AND MRS. S. R. CHAISSON

Couple Pledge Vows At St. Ann's Church, Lot 65

St. Ann's Lot 65, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday, July 8th, at 9 a.m. when Mary Rosaleen Callaghan, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Callaghan, was united in the holy sacrament of matrimony with Stanley Robert Chaisson.

The altar was decorated with white lights and orange blossoms. Bows of white satin ribbon and rose bud marked the guest pews. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. L.P. Callaghan, uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. Charles McCarthy. Rev. Arthur Pendergast was present in the sanctuary.

Miss Mary E. McElroy played the wedding march. The Ave Maria was beautifully rendered by Mr. William Chaisson, uncle of the groom. Other appropriate hymns were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Marry and Marilyn.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Miss Geraldine Callaghan as maid of honor.

Mrs. Lorne Gallant was bridesmaid and little Miss Jean Chaisson was flower girl. Mr. Louis Callaghan was best man. The ushers were Mr. Clifford Callaghan and Mrs. Gerald Chaisson.

The bride was lovely in her floor length gown of white nylon net and lace over bridal satin with full buffant skirt, which featured long fitted sleeves forming points over the hands. The Peter Pan collar was trimmed with sequins and pseudo pearls. Her finger tip veil was of bridal flusion and she carried a white prayer book with white satin streamers trimmed with rose buds.

The maid of honor wore a waltz length gown of Nile green nylon net over satin with matching headress and mitts. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

The bridesmaid wore a waltz length gown of yellow nylon lace over satin with matching headress and mitts and carried a nosegay of yellow carnations.

The flower girl was lovely in a pink nylon dress with white head-dress and carried a basket of pink carnations.

Mrs. Callaghan chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of feal blue lace over satin with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 75 guests was held at the Charlottetown Hotel.

The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The guest book was in charge of Miss Shirley McGinn.

Mr. Jas. P. Callaghan, uncle of the bride, was toast master. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Fr. McCarthy and responded to by the groom. The toast of the attendants was responded to by Mr. Clifford Callaghan.

For travelling the bride donned a light blue dress styled with a cummerbund waistline and matching duster, and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Chaisson will reside in Charlottetown where the groom is employed with McDonald and Rowe Woodworking Company. Photo by Meyers.

CANOE COVE W.I.

The regular meeting of the Canoe Cove Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Douglall MacLean of Friday, August 1st. The president, Mrs. John MacConnell presided. Meeting with full buffet skirt, which featured long fitted sleeves forming points over the hands. The Peter Pan collar was trimmed with sequins and pseudo pearls. Her finger tip veil was of bridal flusion and she carried a white prayer book with white satin streamers trimmed with rose buds.

The president reported that a blood donor clinic would be held in the hall on Tuesday, August 26. It was moved and seconded to clean the school. There were no reports from committees. It was moved and seconded that all committees be reappointed.

It was moved by Mrs. Douglall MacLean and seconded by Mrs. James MacKenzie to give fifty dollars towards the new school pump. A number of articles were passed in by the members to be sold at bazaar in the near future.

It was moved and seconded to invite Argyle Shore and New Haven institutes to meet with Canoe Cove at next meeting. This meeting will be held in the school.

HAPPENINGS

The Rev. Francis W.P. Bolger of the staff of St. Dunstan's University left August 23rd for Montreal. He will sail on the Empress of Britain on August 26th for London, England. While in London he will be engaged in research preparatory to the completion of a thesis on the subject of Prince Edward Island and its entry into Confederation.

This study has been made possible by a pre-doctoral fellowship awarded to Father Bolger by the Canada Council.

Mrs. R.L. Bonham, Hampton, Virginia, and her three children, Patricia, Joan and Janet, have been visiting Mrs. Bonham's father, Dr. Heath McIntyre, Goodwill Avenue.

Miss Maxine Claybourne, Charlottetown, and Miss Kaye Murphy, Augustine Cove, left by air Thursday for Lethbridge, Alberta, where they have accepted teaching positions.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie MacDonald and Mrs. MacDonald's sister, Miss Dora MacDonald, left Saturday on a two weeks motor holiday to the United States. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ross MacCarthy who will be with the MacDonalds as far as Boston.

There Mr. and Mrs. MacCarthy will take the plane for their home in Washington. The MacDonalds will proceed to Philadelphia to visit Mr. MacDonald's sister, Mrs. William Collins and Lieutenant-Commander Collins.

Mrs. Allie MacEwen (Joyce), who lived in Charlottetown, P.E.I. also in Long Branch, Ontario, is now residing in Hampton, Middlesex, England.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Another Pleasant Week Is Word From Alderlea

By rights, we recall, this is not the harvest moon that sheds now her light over the valley, though she does look down on early reapings over the countryside. That which fulfils nearest September 23rd, is the moon which inspires Autumn romances, and turns poets to write nostalgic verse.

Nevertheless we think this is almost equally engaging, lacking only that association in mind which links her reign with a time of full granaries and bins. The valley is beautiful, a place of fairy light and elfin shadow. And so peaceful and still.

Even the cows gathered in a dusky company seem to be a part of the night's spell as they rest in the meadow by the lane. We saw them there moments ago when we came to the front verandah to enjoy again before all pass, the charm and witchery of a calm August night. And all-enfolding about lay that exquisite silence that obtains in such quiet places of earth as is this Island farm at Alderlea.

For the family this has been another pleasant week, indeed especially so because of the ideal weather prevailing throughout. It took the children once more off to classes, pleased with the new books and new Grades. It continued the farm work happily and of the mid-season chores that appear between haying and harvest, it saw more than one brought to an end.

At Rob's where Jamie, eldest grandson of the name is now the right-hand man, there was that spreading of manure to the fields that keeps the barnyards and buildings summer-clean and puts the humus to work on the land. At this farm there came a day or two of lumbering with no

Mrs. MacEwen was an English girl and after her husband's death she returned to her native land and is living with a sister. Recently Mrs. MacEwen and her sister had a very pleasant trip to Italy and Switzerland.

A happy family get together was held at the lovely old MacClure homestead, Brackley Point on Wednesday evening, August 13th, when the six children of Mrs. Colin MacClure and the late Coli. MacClure were all together in their Island home for the first time in many years.

Those present were: Mrs. Ivan G. MacClure, (Roma), Moncton, Mr. Fenton MacClure, who resides on the homestead; Mrs. C. W. MacArthur, (Hilda) Charlottetown; Mr. Hugh John MacClure, Charlottetown; Mrs. John Coles, (Thelma) Stoneham, Mass.; Mr. R. Borden MacClure, Auburndale, Mass.

Other guests of the evening were Mrs. Fenton MacClure, Mr. C.W. MacArthur, Mrs. Hugh John MacClure, Mrs. Borden MacClure, Miss Paula MacClure, Mr. and Mrs. James Shaw, Mrs. Charles Flaherty and son Charles of Winchester, Mass. Delicious refreshments were served and a pleasant evening spent in music, singing and reminiscing on old times.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Sinnamon and children Brian, Douglas, Joan and Sheila of Bissett, Manitoba, spent a happy holiday with Mrs. Sinnamon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burns and brother Robert and family of Freetown. On the return trip they will visit Mr. Sinnamon's parents, and brothers in Hamilton, Ontario.

Mrs. G.W. MacDonald, 256 Eu-street, entertained Thursday evening at her home in honor of Mrs. Helen Doucette, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Shepherd, Prince Street. Dancing and cards were enjoyed by the guests. Delicious refreshments were served and best wishes expressed to Mrs. Doucette for a pleasant year in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron MacLellan leave on Saturday morning for their home in Toronto following holidays spent with relatives and friends in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

On their return trip they will be accompanied by Mrs. MacLellan's mother, Mrs. Jack Large who plans an extended visit to Toronto, Edmonton, Vancouver, Seattle and California.

On Thursday evening relatives and friends of Mrs. Large gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald MacDonald, Belvedere, for a farewell party at which time Mrs. Large was presented with a piece of luggage. Following a delicious lunch all joined in wishing Mrs. Large "Bon Voyage".

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Clarke have returned to their home in Providence, R.I. after a brief holiday in Charlottetown where they were the guests of Mrs. Clark's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Blanchard, 87 Highland Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Ross were pleasantly entertained on Tuesday evening at a miscellaneous shower by friends in Albany and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Derrell B. MacClure and three children, Shane, Laurence, and Cynthia have returned to their home in Glace Bay, N.S. where Mr. MacClure is accountant in the Canadian Bank of Commerce. They spent a pleasant two weeks vacation on the island guests at their former homes in Brackley Point and Alexandra.

Mr. James Pendergast kindly contributed the following interesting news item: Among the many native sons and daughters of Prince Edward Island who are visiting their birthplaces, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell of Delmar, California, rate among the most distant.

They have fared well financially in the land of their adoption. They have made their trip home by car for several years and take great pleasure in meeting their many friends and relatives.

Mr. Campbell is a son of the late John Campbell store manager of Long River and Mrs. Campbell, was the former Pearl McLeod a former organist in the Geddy Memorial church.

They travelled over Northern system of highways in the U.S. through the famous Yellowstone National Park and Many other place of scenic interest, over some good and bad roads. Mr. Campbell remarked the P.E. Island portion of Trans Canada Highway was the best in their journey. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell live comparatively near the prominent former Island race-horse owners and driver Joe O'Brien and Walter Found.

Mr. Rollie Sullivan and Mr. Leonard Munroe, Montague, left Wednesday for Boston, Mass., where they will be visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Maxine Claybourne, Charlottetown, and Miss Kaye Murphy, Augustine Cove, left by air Thursday for Lethbridge, Alberta where they have accepted teaching positions.
