DRILL.—No. 2 Battery, G. A., will meet for drill this evening.

1 0 0 F.—Five for initiation at St. Lawrence Lodge to-night.

THE STANLEY arrived at Pictou at noon today and will leave on return to Georgetown at the usual time to-morrow morning.

TO HIS CUSTOMERS.—Mr. James McLeod, late of McLeod & McKenzie, will be prepared to receive his many customers about the beginning of next month.

AUXILIARY PIBLE SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of the P. E. Island Auxiliary Bible Society will be held in the First Methodist Church on Monday, the 27th inst., at 7.30 p. m.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon, Patrick Murphy, Pownall Street, was fined $50 and costs or two months imprisonment for selling intoxicants on Sunday. The liquor was delivered on the street.

FORCING THE SEASON.—A beautiful and rare variety of butterfly, measuring 6.3-8 inches from tip to tip of wings, was left at this office yesterday by Mr. J. C. Smith, of Orangeville, Kent Co.—Montreal Times.

RACE ON THE ICE.—There was another new race on the ice on Saturday afternoon between two-year-old colts owned by Messrs. L. B. Miller, Geo. Esary and John Mutch. It took four heats to decide the race, which was won by Miller's colt.

SLATING.—The match race in the rink at Scotia on Saturday evening was won by McConeck by about ten feet in 9.25. The distance skated was three miles, or about sixty-three rounds of the rink. Mr. Geo. B. McConeck acted as starter. The race was witnessed by about twenty-five persons.

ST. DUNSTON'S CATHEDRAL.—The fourth of the series of special sermons on "The Sacraments" was given last evening by Rev. Peter Curran, of Tracadie. The Sacrament considered was "Extreme Unction." There was a large congregation, and the subject was well handled.

NEW TRIAL REFUSED.—Recent advices from New York state that on the application for a new trial in the case of Carlyle Harris, the medical student under sentence of death for the murder of his wife by administering poison, Recorder Smyth has announced decision, refusing a new trial.

THE PIBLE SOCIETY.—The collectors of the Bible Society are now calling on the friends and patrons of that noble institution. We bespeak for them a hearty welcome. If they should happen to overlook any, these may hand in their contribution to the Treasurer, J. W. Morrison, or any member of the committee.

THE OPPOSITION MEMBERS.—In the St. John Telegraph of the 17th appear the portraits of the members of the Opposition in the Dominion House of Commons, with a cut of the Parliament building. Prominence is given to the portraits of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, the leader, and of his first lieutenants, Mr. Richard Cartwright, L. H. Davies and Hon. David Mills. The star of Davies is apparently in the ascendant, as he is placed at the top corner, while Mr. Mills and the Mixer and Muller are at the bottom.

MUSICAL.—The pupils of Miss Edith Hill entertained their parents and friends at Miss Hill's residence on Saturday evening last to a choice programme of instrumental music. Considering the ages of the performers and the short time they have been under Miss Hill's tuition, their progress must be very satisfactory to their parents, and very flattering to their talented teacher. Mr. F. L. Hozev acted as chairman and expressed himself delighted with the entertainment, and Prof. Vinicombe spoke in the same complimentary strain. At the close of the musicale the chairs engaged in anagrams and 10 o'clock terminated a most enjoyable evening.

HIS HABITS WERE REGULAR.—An exchange says: Twenty-five years ago a doctor of Massachusetts died aged 105, and the obituary notice sent a deputation to his grandson to see if they could not elicit some useful corroborations for their views. "Oh, yes, my grandfather was a man of very regular habits," said the grandson. And then it came out that he had regularly taken a glass of rum the first thing in the morning, another at eleven o'clock, two glasses at early dinner, one more at tea and another on going to bed. He rarely had a pipe out of his mouth, and every week bought twenty-one inches of pigtail tobacco, which he cut into seven pieces, consuming a piece each day.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—Yesterday was the fourth anniversary of the Rev. J. A. Gordon's pastorate of this church, and the services, therefore, were of a more than usually interesting character. In the morning three persons were baptized. At the evening service a thanksgiving collection was taken up in aid of the church fund, the collectors announcing that the handsome sum of $1,255 was realized. Of this sum, the pastor explained that $500 was contributed by a benevolent donor from Annapolis, and the rest was the voluntary offering of the people. We congratulate the people on their willingness and ability to show in such a practical and satisfactory way their appreciation of the services of the Rev. J. A. Gordon for his Master. At the parting day as in Apostolic times, "the laborer is worthy of his hire."

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS.—We were shown on Saturday afternoon a plan of the new building which R. B. Norton & Co., intend erecting on the corner of Queen and Sidney Streets on the site of the store lately destroyed by fire. The plan was drawn by Mr. C. R. Chappell. The building will be of brick throughout, and will be four stories in height. The main retail store will be on the ground floor, and the next floor will be reserved as a wholesale department. The third and fourth floors and basement will be used as store rooms for sundries and lease stock. Mr. Norton expects to be able to move into the new store about the middle of June; until which time he will carry on business at Robertson's old stand.

J. B. McLeod has also had plans made by Mr. Chappell for a brick building to be erected on his property on Queen Street, adjoining Mr. Norton's. The building will be four stories high, with large basement, and will be finished in good style throughout. The building will be divided into two stores, which it is expected will be ready for occupation about the 1st of July.

Two Stories of a Mutiny.

ASSASSINS COMMIT A MURDER IN THE SOUTH SEAS.

Two terrible stories of mutiny and murder in the South Seas were brought to San Francisco recently by the steamer Australia. One mutiny occurred on the whaling bark Wilian B. Yates, which resulted in the dangerous wounding of the fourth mate Joe Bapiti, by a sailor named Carl Hendryk. Six of the crew came up on the steamer, while thirteen are in irons at Honolulu. The other occurred on the American bark Hesper, which resulted in the death of the second mate, M. Fitzgerald.

The Hesper reached Honolulu February 22nd. The captain brought information of a plot to kill him and four others, and their lives were only saved by the accidental discovery of the first murderous move on the part of the mutinous crew. The plot is alleged to have been hatched by Thomas LeClair, a sailor, who shipped as a native of Norway, but it was afterwards learned that he was born in New York. LeClair's alleged partners in crime were Herman Sparf, Hans Hansen, Thomas Green and Edward Larsen. They picked out a dark night, and about 10.30 o'clock LeClair murdered the second mate by striking him with a hatchet. The murderer lay in wait about midnight, and when his victim came along he struck him a blow on the back of the head with the sharp edge of a hatchet and almost instantly killed him.

Sparf and Hansen wanted to throw the body overboard and then remove all traces of crime by washing up the blood stains. LeClair would not consent to this, and immediately proposed that they go after the captain and other marked men and murder them also. His companions weakened and would not give their consent, and LeClair left them and went safe. The two men then picked up the body of the murdered man and threw it overboard. The next day the captain placed LeClair, Sparf and Hansen in irons, and then changed his course and made for Tahiti, which he reached after a voyage of fourteen days. The mutineers confessed their crime.

The Story of a Novel.

Mr. Howells' latest novel, "The Coast of Bohemia," now running through the pages of The Ladies' Home Journal, was written in four different States. Mr. Howells began the novel at his father's home in Ohio last May, continued it in Boston in June; took it to the mountains of New Hampshire during the summer and worked at it, brought it to New York and wrote a number of chapters there in October; took it back again to Ohio in November, and finally finished it in New York last December. And yet, despite all these changes of place of writing, the novel turns out really to be the brightest piece of work that Howells has done for a long time.

The McLean Case.

SHELBERNE, Feb. 6.—The case of Mr. McLean, of Horning's Mills, as published last week, is still the talk of the vicinity, and many people have taken the trouble to go to Horning's Mills to see him. Mr. McLean, the daughter here, who sold Mr. McLean the pills, is much for the truth of the statement, as also does Mr. William J. Jolly, ex-M. P. for Dufferin County. Dod's Kidney Pills are indeed a wonderful remedy, as they cure the most deadly as well as the most prevalent diseases that affect humanity, namely, Bright's Disease, as well as all forms of kidney trouble, dropsy, diabetes, stone in bladder, and most especially rheumatism.

MARRIED.

On March 15th, at the Parsonage, Belemque, by the Rev. W. J. Kirby, Mr. Charles Crossman to Mrs. Mary Curtis, of Wilmot Valley.

A TERRIBLE AFFAIR.—According to a late despatch news of a horrible affair which recently occurred at Waverly, N. S., has been received at Halifax. For many years John Lingly has been postmaster at Waverly. Mr. Lingly is probably one of the best known men in the province. He is 82 years old. His daughter went to visit a friend and on her return a horrible spectacle was presented. The room was full of smoke and flames issued from under the stove, which had been knocked down. On the top of the stove was lying the prostrate form of her father. His breast rested on the stove and one arm was round the stove pipe, which had also fallen. So long that the house would soon be in flames and thinking it impossible to remove her father from his perilous position, the daughter ran out and alarmed the neighbors, who quickly responded. Mr. Lingly was rescued and the stove carried outside. He is in a very precarious state, very slight hopes being entertained of his recovery. It is thought the old gentleman took a bad turn and fell across the stove, knocking it down.
