Hall on Saturday afternoon, at half-past four, sharp. HIGHEST price given for Bank Prince Edward Island Notes in exchange for goods at the London House. ap 9 eod 1 wf

Mr. DOULL's paper on Electricity was further discussed last evening by the members of the Literary and Scientific Institute. It is pleasing to learn that under the kind and skilful treatment of Dr. S. R. Jenkins, Mr. Thomas P. Green is rapidly recovering from his recent severe illness. THE traffic receipts of the Canadian Pacific railway for the week ending March 31 were $226,000, an increase of $43,000 compared with the corresponding week last year. McDONALD & Co., have opened a Carriage Factory on Kent Street, opposite the Rocklin House, where all orders in their line of business will be promptly attended to. See their advertisement in another column. REV. G. L. HOWIE's lecture this evening, in the Hall over J. D. McLeod's store, should be heard by those who wish to hear something new from the lips of one of the inhabitants of the East, on the subject announced in another column, "Bible Wines in the East."

THE Brethren of Victoria and St. John Lodges, A. F. & A. M., will meet at their Lodge Room, Water Street, on Saturday, 10th inst., at 2.30 p. m., to attend the funeral of their late Brother, Christian Hansen, which leaves the house at 3 o'clock. Brethren are requested to attend in Masonic costume. LAST evening a little boy named Dewar, son of Mr. P. Dewar, of Montague, was lying on the stable with his skull fractured. The woman who discovered the boy was so terrified that she died shortly afterwards. The boy it is supposed was kicked by a horse. At latest accounts he was progressing favorably. We are pleased to learn that Mr. A. A. Sandeman, the active and popular traveller for Messrs. H. Shorey & Co., Wholesale Clothiers of Montreal, has been promoted to a more lucrative position in the employ of the firm. During the four or five years that Mr. Sandeman has been "doing" the Island he has made many warm friends, who will be glad to hear of his success. AN Iowa woman has sued a whole sewing-circle, 27 persons, for slander, and wants $50,000 from each of them. Such an action should be frowned upon, as a blow at the fundamental principles of church work. If woman cannot be allowed to freely express her views and opinions at the sewing-circle, what will the benighted heathen in Africa do for embroidered suspenders and crazy-quilts? We learn that the King's County Court for the Revision of the Lists of Voters, adjourned last evening for one week. Some 2,080 names have been added to the lists, and about 26 struck off for informality. The papers were well prepared, reflecting credit upon all concerned. The matter of voting by proxy was discussed, and judgment will be given on Thursday. Messrs A. A. McLeod and A. B. Warburton were in attendance, the former looking after the interests of the Liberal-Conservatives and the latter after those of the Liberals, and Michael McCormack acted as Clerk. THE death occurred at Wimbledon on Monday, the 8th ult., of Major Henry Buckton Laurence, of the 2nd Battalion Royal Lancaster Regiment, late Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General in Bombay, Major Laurence, who was in his 44th year, took part in the Zulu campaign. Major Laurence was well and favorably known in Charlottetown, as Lieut. of the 4th King's Own Royal Regiment, which was stationed here for some years at the time of the Tenant League troubles. His early death will be learned of with regret by the many warm friends he attached to himself at that time.

THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

Carefully Collected by "The Examiner's" Reporters. A rich silver find is reported from Dakota. There is a Greek general in Rome buying mules for the Greek army. The British Minister to Greece has been ordered to join the other Powers in an ultimatum. A St. John's, Nfld., mob have broken into the Parliament House and placed their flag on the table. Wm. Hutto, of Georgia, had four wives. He sold one for a bucketful of peas and another for some shucks. It is rumored that Parnell contemplates making arrangements to collect funds in America irrespective of the league agents. A stuffed moose, the work of J. H. Carnal, the taxidermist, will be among the New Brunswick exhibits at the Colonial Exhibition. There is a negro living in Atlanta, Ga., who says she was born in 1767. She says there wasn't any such man as George Washington. A Pennsylvania woman has named her two daughters Gasoline and Kerosene. The father of the family is probably old Pete Roleum. John L. Sullivan says the fight between himself and Smith must take place in the United States or its territories, Smith's expenses to be paid. The London Daily Telegraph believes that the removal of the Parnellites from Westminster is an essential part of Mr. Gladstone's scheme. An exchange says a cure for cold is to stuff the nostrils with beeswax and starve the cold out. Wonder if a few whacks on the nose wouldn't be quite as effectual. The Empress Elizabeth, the largest transport in the Austrian naval service, and six torpedo boats have been ordered to re-inforce the fleet in the Greek waters. It is announced as a fact that there is a woman living in Corning who weighs over 400 pounds, and measures 63 inches around the waist and 30 inches across the shoulders. One of the candidates for justice at the recent election in Dakota announced that if elected he would marry couples for $1 and wait for his pay till the first child was born. He was elected. The Austrian Sanitary Council has advised the Government not to send an official delegate to Paris to study Pasteur's system, the value of which the Council says has not been proved. The city of Port Huron, Mich., is 29 years old. During its life as a city 22 different men have been elected mayor, 15 of whom are now living in the city, six are dead, and one has moved away. The London (Eng.) School Board is causing much dissatisfaction by its prosecution of parents for not sending their children to school, when it is shown in many cases that extreme poverty is the reason. The death of William Cassidy is announced. He died at Clover Hill, King's County, in his 90th year, leaving 10 children, 71 grand children, and 37 great grand children. Six brothers survive him. The agent-general in England of the Canadian Pacific Railway reports very encouraging prospects of a large immigration from Europe of a desirable class of agricultural settlers for the Northwest this spring and summer. She went into a store to buy some toilet-soap, and when the clerk was expatiating on its merits, about made up her mind to purchase but when he said "it would keep her out of chaps," she remarked that she did not want that kind. Sarah Bernhardt is having forty-two new dresses made for her next American tour. As Sarah had only thirty-six new dresses the last time she visited this country the New Haven News concludes that she is a greater actress than ever. William Dogberry is anxious to have a chopping match with any resident of St. John County, in the Parish of Simonds or St. Martins, N. B. He is prepared to stake $100 that he can defeat any one in a month of a day, a month or two months. A distinguished physician, in a German scientific journal, advocates the general use of sugar as an article of diet. He affirms that during 40 years he has eaten at least a quarter of a pound of sugar daily, not counting sugar-forming substances taken at the same time with benefit. The municipal council of Milan has reduced the tax on bread, and workmen are now becoming quiet. Thirty-five more rioters have been arrested on Friday. Twenty being sentenced to short terms of imprisonment, and thirty have been committed for trial. "How many girls are there here to-night?" asked Sam Jones of his Chicago audience for women only, "who were never sent to their mothers? Stand up." A woman, notes the reporter, "who was a girl sixty years ago, arose in one of the front seats and looked admiringly at the evangelist. A young lady teacher in the high school at Tiffin, Ohio, accomplished the feat of whipping 35 boys, ranging from 9 to 14 years, in 35 minutes. Next day she wrote an essay entitled "Woman the Weaker Vessel," and that night sat up with a young man six hours. Despite her many talents she can't vote.

Some time ago Dr. W. H. Boyd, of Camden, Ark., was incarcerated in the county jail there for horse stealing, for which the doctor is a much wanted man in several localities in that state and Texas. Thursday he confessed in writing to Sheriff Bragg to eleven marriages or rather bigamous relations. Mrs. Maggie Van Cott, the New York evangelist, is now conducting a series of meetings in Denver. To a reporter of that city she recently said that during the last seven years she has delivered 1,978 sermons, conducted 5,094 meetings, spent 8,446 hours in churches, written 8,199 religious letters, brought 12,663 seekers to the altar, received 4,330 converts on probation, and baptized 1,096 persons. She is 56 years old.
