On May 17, 1965, relatives, friends and neighbors were saddened to hear of the death in the Kings County Memorial Hospital of Murray River in her sixty-sixth year. Her illness was of several months duration and despite all that medical skill and tender nursing could do she passed away on the above date. Her kind, friendly disposition, and true Christian spirit made her an esteemed resident of the community where she lived. She was a faithful member of the Church, member of the United Church Women and took part in Church activities for many years. Her home was always open to her many friends who found in her a gracious hostess. It is in the home where she will be sorely missed by her beloved husband, family and friends.

HOWARD GALLANT

In the early evening hours of June 3rd, relatives, friends and neighbors were deeply shocked and saddened by the sudden passing of Howard Gallant in the Charlottetown Hospital where he had been a patient for the past eight days.

Relatives and friends had hoped for a return to his usual health, but God who guides our destiny willed otherwise and on the above mentioned date in his 64th year, he was called to his eternal reward there to await a glorious resurrection.

He lived most of his life in Rusticoville, where he was a good neighbor and friend to all and was always ready to lend a helping hand.

He leaves to mourn a sorrowing wife, five daughters and three sons: Helene in Los Angeles, Calif.; (Elsaine) Mrs. Johnston, Edmonton, Alta.; (Patricia) Mrs. Edward Banks, Halifax, N.S.; (Joan) Mrs. Leo Berrigan, New Wiltshire, P.E.I.; (Delma) Mrs. Alfred Gallant, Fredericton, P.E.I.; Noel in Toronto, Ontario; Harvey and Justin, predeceased him in 1957.

Also surviving are two brothers, Andy, North-Rustico; Alvin, St. John, N.B. and one sister (Vina) Mrs. Denis Blacquire.

The largely attended funeral was under the direction of the Charlottetown Funeral Home and was held from his late residence on June 7th to St. Augustine Church for Requiem High Mass, celebrated by his pastor, Rev. Joseph LeClair, who also officiated at the interment in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Leo Berrigan, Edward Banks, Alfred Gallant, Louis Pineau, Vincent Gallant and John Aylre Gallant.
