Kingston Y.P.U. Presents Play

"A Pair of Country Kids," a three-act comedy produced by Kingston Y.P.U. was presented in Kingston Hall before a large and appreciative audience. The youthful players portrayed their parts with poise and assurance, and gave a pleasing performance of a well-chosen play.

Much credit is due to the directors, Mrs. Zephra Newson and Mrs. Whitfield Yeo, in their untiring efforts to make this play such a success. Mr. Heber Barrett acted as chairman. Sale of candy was enjoyed for intermission.

In addition to the dramatic ability displayed, the audience was also favored between the acts by the musical talents of little Miss Mary Burgess, Mr. Heber Campbell, Roland Ward and Mrs. Stanley Newman. The stage was artistically arranged.

The cast of characters are as follows:
 Mrs. Sarah Starr—Edna Colwill (proprietress of the Starr House).
 April Starr, her daughter—Shirley Newson.
 "Bis" Spooner, maid of all work at the Starr House—Velda Green.
 Lucindy Appleby, who wants a first husband—Olive Barrett.
 Susan Grimes, who wants a second husband—Aetha MacGregor.
 "Hi" Hawkins, the village pest—Allan Green.
 Ambrose Snuggins, a horse doctor—Gordon Docherty

Philip West, a young lawyer—Harold Smith.
 Arthur Roberts—A guest at the Starr House—Roy Younker.
 Albert Roemer, another guest—Erroll Green.

The entire action of the play takes place in the office of the Starr House at Joggins Junction. This play has already been invited to perform at many different communities in the near future.

Ernest Bevin To Be Re-buried in Westminster Abbey

LONDON, May 31 — (Reuters)—Ernest Bevin, former foreign secretary, is to be re-buried among British and Canadian servicemen while outside North America.

A gift of $15,000 was returned to the order by the Manitoba members in appreciation of help that had been sent during the flood, the money to be set aside and used in case of emergency calls.

Britain's kings, queens, statesmen and poets in Westminster Abbey.

The rugged trade unionist, son of a poor farm laborer, will be the first socialist statesman to be interred there.

This recognition of the services he rendered the country in 4 1/2 years at the Foreign Office and as minister of labor during the Second World War was announced today by Prime Minister Attlee.

Attlee told the House of Commons that the burial will take place without official ceremony, in the presence of the Bevin family and a few friends and colleagues June 8.

He said that Winston Churchill, leader of the Opposition, and Clement Davies, leader of the Liberals, had agreed it was fitting Bevin's ashes should be interred in the Abbey "having regard to his great services to the country in many capacities for a long period of years."

Interment in Westminster Abbey is an honor for commoners paid only to the nation's greatest statesmen, men of letters and soldiers.

Bevin died in London April 14, aged 70. He was cremated.

MONTREAL, May 31 — (CP)—Two Americans and a Montrealer were arrested here last night on charges of smuggling 300,000 cigarettes into Canada. Superintendent J. Lemieux of the Montreal R. C. M. P. division identified the three men as Emile Filion of Champlain, N. Y., Bernard Girard, Montreal, and Fransk Deshaw, Plattsburg, N. Y.
