

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

NOVEMBER 21, 1892.

Notes and Comments.

—Two systems of justice: In Chicago Thomas Neil Cream was sentenced to life imprisonment for murder and then set free to go on murdering. In England he is hanged. Which, asks the Empire, is the best?

—The Government of France has been grappling with the Press and Delespays and is likely to come to grief. A bill to increase the stringency of the press laws has been defeated, and a crisis is impending. Strangely enough, no one talks nowadays about the prospects of another French revolution. But the anarchists of Paris are making trouble.

—Speaking editorially of the discovery of six more cases of pleuro-pneumonia in American cattle the London Live Stock Journal says the circumstances favor the supposition that the disease was carried from the states over the international boundary line into the Canadian Northwest. The Perthshire local health authorities have passed a resolution asking that in view of the divided state of Scottish opinion Mr. Gardner, minister of agriculture, be requested to send portions of the lungs of the affected bullocks to Scottish veterinarians for examination.

—The following statement from a recent English interview with the Hon. Mr. Foster, Finance Minister of Canada, is very significant:—

—Twenty years ago we exported domestic goods to the value of $59,000,000, of which Great Britain took nearly 36 per cent. In 1880 the total export had increased to nearly $73,000,000, and the British purchases to 48 per cent. of this total; in 1890 the total had increased again to $85,250,000, and the British purchases to nearly 49 per cent.; and last year the total increased again to $98,400,000, and the British purchases to over 50 per cent.

The increasing value of the British market is self-evident.

—The Consul General of France has informed the customs department that it has come to the knowledge of the French government that salted pork is being exported to Europe as Canadian produce, when it was only passed in transit through Canada. As the process of curing and packing pork is the same in Canada as in the United States, the appraisers in the service of the French customs find it impossible to determine exactly the origin of this class of meat. In view of these facts the French government will hereafter require that every shipment of Canadian meat to France must be accompanied by a certificate of the origin issued by the French consular authorities. Collectors of customs are to advise exporters of Canadian meats to France of the requirements of the French authorities.

—The rapid growth of agitation among the farming classes of England and their demands for legislation which may palliate the depression in agriculture, has precipitated Government action in this direction. Among the Cabinet committees preparing the latest appointed is that on agrarian bills. It is not likely that the Government policy will take definite shape until after the National Conference on Agriculture has shown what the majority of the farmer's delegates desire. The Cabinet committee has the Right Hon. H. H. Fowler, president of the local government board, and Mr. John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, as its inspiring forces. Mr. Morley is understood to favor the creation of land courts in Great Britain, the abolition of the Small Holdings Act as well as the acquisition of land easier both to small farming capitalists, and through state loans, to the agricultural laborer. Mr. Gardner's action in prohibiting the import of Canadian live cattle has offended a considerable section of Radicals, who look upon it as both unnecessary and as an unwise adherence to his Conservative predecessor's policy. The Canadian prohibition was discussed in all its bearings at a Cabinet council before Mr. Gardner was allowed to issue it, and was finally agreed to as a necessity which must be faced, whatever risk to the party might be involved.

P. E. Island Has It

Editor Citizen,—Kindly permit me to correct the statement in this morning's Citizen that "like Principal Grant and Sir William Dawson, Prof. Schurman is a Nova Scotian." Prof. Schurman is a native of Prince Edward Island, the birthplace of Archbishop O'Brien, of Harris, the artist, of James Jeffrey Roche, the poet and editor of the Pilot, of Henry O'Meara, the poet, and his brother, Stephen O'Meara, both prominent journalists of Boston. W. C. Macdonald, Montreal's millionaire manufacturer and patron of learning. It is true that Principal Grant is a Nova Scotian, but it was not until he had spent several years on P. E. Island that he acquired celebrity, and it is highly probable that Sir Charles Tupper would not occupy the eminent position he does, had he not as a boy paddled in a "dog-out" on the Dunk River, a few miles from Prof. Schurman's birthplace. Prince Edward Island is also the birthplace of the Canadian Confederation—it was there that delegates from the British Provinces met in 1864, and laid the foundations of our Dominion. And Canadians should bear in grateful recollection that, to a summer spent on the Island in 1870, Sir John Macdonald owed the last twenty years of his life. Yours,

PUSCH.

Nov. 14, 1892.

[This correspondent is inexact in respect to Harris, Roche and Henry O'Meara. The first was born in the Vale of Conway, Wales, the second in Ireland or upon the ocean, and the third in Newfoundland. But all three certainly possessed the great advantage of living here in their youth and breathing the invigorating island air, proved to be so beneficial in the cases of Sir John Macdonald, Sir Charles Tupper and Principal Grant. It is pleasing to note that there is someone at Ottawa willing and ready to see justice done to the tight little Island.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Despatches from various parts of Illinois say a heavy storm is raging and the mercury has fallen below zero. Advances from different portions of the Western States report heavy snowfalls.

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—During the past few months the funds of the bank of the bank of Hamilton have been relieved of between $40,000 and $50,000, by means of forgeries, one of the culprits being C. H. Davidson, of the well known firm of Davidson & Co., of Burlington. Two Pinkerton detectives have been sometime endeavoring to bring about the arrest of the culprits.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Mrs. Parnell, widow of Charles Stewart Parnell, is staying at Bedhill, Surrey. Her friends state that her liabilities, on which she claims the intervention of the bankruptcy court, are personal, and that she has no means to means to draw upon, except her resources under her aunt's will. These are strictly tied up, and beyond their benefit of furnishing a life income, Mrs. Parnell gets nothing from them.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Prowse Bros. Heard From.

SIR,—Some of the merchants are feeling badly about an advertisement which appeared in your valuable paper a few days ago, and say it is intended to mislead. Such is not the case, but it is intended to lead the public to the Wonderful Cheap Store, where we sell boys' reefer for less than competitors can buy them elsewhere for. We advertise the truth and we care not for the opinions of our competitors. We hope they won't ask us to close our store for a month, so that they may get a chance to increase their trade, for we will not do it, neither will we tell where we bought those cheap reefers. Yours, PROWSE BROS., The Wonderful Cheap Men.

Southport Ferry.

SIR,—Would it be too much liberty to inquire, through your journal, if there are any means in existence of preserving peace and good order, and protecting the lives and property of passengers, while crossing Southport Ferry? A scene occurred last Friday evening which leads to this inquiry. It appears that a farmer returning from market, on his way to the ferry boat, passed some teams that were on the wharf before his arrival awaiting the boat. Some of those who considered themselves injured took the law into their own hands, making an onslaught on the offender, knocking him out of his carriage, and seemed anxious to substitute him in the capacity of a football to the terror of the passengers on a closely packed steamboat, many of the passengers being women. Horses and vehicles were run back out of the steamer and everything thrown into confusion, until the officer of the boat, after receiving many stray blows, finally restored order. I think, sir, some means should be taken to prevent a repetition of such disorderly conduct, and that the officers in charge of ferry boats should not be subjected to such insults and abuse as they received last Friday, while they are doing the utmost to accommodate the travelling public.

Our Sale

NOW GOING ON!

Big DISCOUNTS have been the order of the day. We cannot afford them as our goods are all marked plainly at what we consider the smallest paying profit, with discount for cash.

As an instance, an article is being sold in town at $1.00, with 20 per cent. reduction, making it 80 cents. Our regular price has been and is 75 cents for the same article.

If the price on any goods changes at the factories we reduce as soon as we hear of it, and give our customers the benefit.

The WATCHES we sell now for $7.50, $10.00 and upwards are far better value than formerly could be given at these figures.

Our SOLID GOLD WATCHES, suitable for presentation, are elegant, substantial and reliable. We try every one before offering it for sale, and see that it is ready to perform properly.

Our fine REGULATOR in connection with a transit instrument, for taking observations, are great helps in this matter.

We are continually adding to our stock new designs in RINGS, BROOCHES, etc. See the new and fashionable MARQUISE RINGS.

Our ROLLED PLATE CHAINS are guaranteed to wear from five to twenty years, according to price paid.

Some of the above, together with much of our fine SILVERWARE, are of Canadian manufacture.

If we can get a home-made article of equal value with the imported we always do so and SAVE THE DUTY, but prefer to pay the duty rather than supply our customers with an inferior article.

See our KNIVES, FORKS and SPOONS.

See our SPECTACLES, which we take great care shall fit an suit.

Some people wear their Glasses like the above.

The way we fit them.

If there is anything you wish for in our line, not in Stock, we will endeavor to procure it. We solicit early orders.

E. W. TAYLOR,

Cameron Block.
