A YOUTHFUL HEAVYWEIGHT.—The Agriculturalist reports that on Thursday morning last Mr. G. B. McKay, of Clifton, shipped a very fine draft horse to parties on the mainland. The animal was sired by French Barrister, is out of a Prince Edward mare, and weighs over 1400 pounds, though only three years old.

FOR THE WEAK AND LANGUID.—Campbell's Beef, Iron and Wine is one of the best tonics, possessing many nutritive and strengthening qualities. Is recommended by the leading medical men. THEY SOLD WELL.—The St. John Telegraph says: Mr. W. S. McKie, who arrived in the city last week with a carload of P. E. I. horses, has disposed of all his animals at good prices. Most of the horses were sold to parties in St. John, and the balance were shipped to Boston by the I. I. S. Company's steamer.

FROM BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester, Capt. Nickerson, with the usual general cargo and the following passengers, arrived on Saturday evening: Lewis B. Hunt, Frank Trainor, Marjorie McLean, Mrs. Archibald, Mrs. Livingstone, W. J. Johnson, G. T. Saunders, and C. B. Ladd. This will be the Worcester's last trip this season.

CODFISHING.—Fishermen are doing well the last few days catching codfish off Souris and along that coast. The fish are numerous, large and of prime quality. Some of the fishermen catch three and more quintals daily. Squid, the best bait for codfishing, are also reported plentiful there at present. No herring have been taken this fall yet.

STRIKE OF MACKEREL.—There was a great strike of mackerel along the Halifax shore on the 8th, and the fishermen are overjoyed. An Anchoat, C. B., despatch of the same date says: The fishermen of Petit DeGrat, Little Anco, and Rocky Bay, have caught about five hundred barrels of Mackerel within a week. This rich sea harvest handsomely compensates them for the small catch of fat herring and total failure of the spring mackerel, and is said to be the best haul for many years.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.—We regret to learn from the Agriculturalist that Mr. John Gillis, of Cernont, had his barn destroyed by fire a few nights ago. The barn contained all his crop, farming implements, etc. The origin of the fire is not known, but is supposed to be incendiary. The blaze was noticed about twelve o'clock by some of the neighbors, but as the barn is nearly a mile from Mr. Gillis' house, he did not know of his loss until the firemen of the next day. His loss is estimated at $1,000.

SOME RECENT SHIPMENTS.—The Summerfield Pioneer says: Mr. James McIntrath shipped 212 lambs for the St. John market on Thursday, and on Friday 200 sheep were taken over by an American for the United States. A number of horses were also sent away on the former day, eight of them being shipped by Mr. John McDonald for Mr. Geo. C. Shaw of St. John, and three by Mr. William McKay for Mr. Buckley, of Amherst. Two others were also sent over the same day, one being by Mr. John Henry.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Salisbury's Latest Speech.

LONDON, Nov. 10. At the meeting at Guild Hall on Saturday, Lord Salisbury delivered an address in which he congratulated the country upon the splendid expansion of its trade. He was glad to be able to affirm Ireland was progressing. Prosperity was increasing in that country, disorder was vanishing, and there was every prospect of a permanent settlement of the burning questions between the two countries. No members of the Government indulged in wild theories of home rule, but they were ready with a practical policy which would satisfy the country. Referring to Egypt Lord Salisbury said the policy of the Government remained unchanged, and would enable that country to protect herself against all attacks which she was unable to do without British assistance. The difficulties in Europe, he declared, appeared to be tending towards a peaceful solution. Speaking of labor matters Lord Salisbury said that employers and everybody having to do with trade disputes should remember that caution is necessary, as any imprudence might jeopardize great interests. Lord Salisbury declared it was the wildest legend that the Government had the faintest intention to alter its Irish policy. He said England was not behind other nations in its generous rivalry to promote the civilization of Africa, and the anti-slavery congress at Brussels would form an epoch marking the great progress of European opinion on that subject.
