Beauty Worries

Worry never helps a bit. There's no place at all for it. — Old Mother Nature.

Beauty the Wood Duck didn't like Mrs. Beauty's choice of a new home. It was in a small hole that had been placed in a tree especially for the Wood Ducks by the Old Hermit, whose cabin was not far away. Mrs. Beauty liked it. She declared it was the best one they had ever had. Beauty had been doubtful from the first time he saw it. When later he discovered that the Old Hermit was living within sight of it, Beauty was a little more doubtful than ever. He was sure that it wasn't a safe place. Mrs. Beauty went right ahead and made her nest in the new home. She loved it there. If she was a little doubtful at first, she soon got over that. The Old Hermit never came near that tree. He was quite satisfied to watch from a distance. He hoped those Wood Ducks would raise a family there and that they would like it so well that they would return in the years to come.

When there were six eggs in the nest inside the new home, Mrs. Beauty began sitting on them. Beauty was left to do what he pleased. He spent most of his time on Paddy's pond. Sometimes he went up the brook and sometimes he went down the brook. He was quite satisfied to have Mrs. Beauty do all the sitting on those eggs. It was much pleasanter to be able to do what he pleased outside than to be shut up in the dark inside. For awhile he worried a little about the Old Hermit, but he got over this worry. Then one day when he was up the brook, he found a new worry. He found Bobby Coon prowling along the edge of the bank. Every now and then Bobby stopped and reached down in the water and felt about under the bank. At first, Beauty couldn't think what Bobby was doing. Then he saw Bobby pull out a crayfish from under the bank. Bobby Coon ate the crayfish and smacked his lips.

How did you know that fellow was under there?" asked Beauty. He meant the crayfish.

Bobby grinned. "I didn't know he was there," said he. "Then, I saw you manage to get him," asked Beauty.

"I just felt around under there until I touched him, then I grabbed him," explained Bobby.

"Is that the way you always do?" Beauty wanted to know.

"Mostly," replied Bobby. "I catch things that way too. I don't have to see them. My fingers know what they are touching."

"Are you living near here?" asked Beauty.

Bobby Coon didn't answer this directly. "I'm looking around," said he. "Are you and Mrs. Beauty living down at Paddy the Beaver's pond?"

"Not exactly," replied Beauty. "That must mean that you are living somewhere near it," said Bobby Coon. "I was wondering if you had found a hollow tree big enough for your nest. How many eggs has Mrs. Beauty laid this year?"

Beauty pretended not to hear that question. He was beginning to worry again. He knew that Bobby Coon had a liking for eggs. What if he should find the new home with the nest in it?

How did you know that fellow was under there," asked Beauty.

C.G.I.T. COLUMN

MISS MONA MAYHEW

Miss Mona Mayhew, a member of Kensington United Church C.G.I.T., has been chosen to represent the groups of P.E.I. at the Canadian Girls in Training National Camp to be held from July 9-20, at Kwasind in the Muskoka Lake District near Kenville, Ontario. Miss Mayhew is president of the Kensington C.G.I.T. and is active in Young People's work in her home church at Margate. She is also an Executive member of the Presbytery Y.P.U. She is a Grade XI student at the Kensington High School where she is a member of the Student's council and on the Year Book Staff and Girl's Glee Club. In community life, she is a member of the Kensington 4-H Club and has taken a First Aid Course. Miss Mayhew is the daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. George Mayhew, Margate. Eleven other girls will also represent the Maritimes as well as girls from all of Canada. The camp is the second of its kind, the first being held in 1952, and will be directed by Miss Marjorie McBride, National C.G.I.T. Secretary. There will be at least six "international" campers at Kwasind, and they will take part in hikes, recreation and campfires.

There will be a daily Bible Study and the whole program of C.G.I.T. will be discussed. The camp hopes to give the girls a feeling of National Unity and train C.G.I.T. leaders for the future. Our best wishes follow Mona as she represents P.E.I. at this camp.

CHARLOTTETOWN BAPTIST C.G.I.T.

The C.G.I.T. groups of the Charlottetown Baptist Church held their re-affiliation service on Mar. 26. Following the ceremony the members of the W.M.S. treated the girls to Easter eggs which were displayed in a very decorative manner with Easter baskets, bunnies, chickens, etc. on a white table cloth.

During the month of April, the girls had as their guest Mrs. Wright, matron of the Protestant Ophanage, who described in a very vivid manner, life at the Ophanage. Another guest of the group was Miss Carol Creelman, of the Orthopedic Centre who dealt with the treatment given polio patients. The minister, Rev. H.L. Milton, entertained the group with slides taken last summer on a trip to Kentucky.

The activities of this group closed with the Mother and Daughter Banquet on May 14. Plans are being made for camp and it is hoped that one girl will attend the Maritime Camp Council at Rosebank Camp near Moncton, N.B. The announcement that Miss Marguerite Brehaut, Charlottetown, will leave in the fall, to continue the teaching profession in St. Catharines, Ontario, is regretted by all those who know of her invaluable assistance in all promotions of C.G.I.T. work.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation.
