GRAIN

WINNIPEG, Jan. 31-(CP)—All contracts of coarse grains scored new seasonal highs today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, but early advances in oats, barley and flax were reduced and rye gains were erased before the session closed.

Hesitation on United States markets brought out late selling and increased offerings here to send prices down. Early aggressive demand by shippers and processors were on the buying side in flax, but found little for sale.
Rye made good advances at the opening but later followed Chicago rye's downward trend.
Export loadings included 400,000 bushels of Canadian wheat to the United Kingdom and 300,000 bushels to Japan.

STOP BUTCHERING YOUR WOODLOTS

Young trees are the wage-earners of tomorrow. Why not replace the usual indiscriminate cutting for immediate gain with a selective system on a sustained yield basis.
You would not only have a regular annual income but would also be aiding our main industry—Agriculture, because trees hold moisture and prevent soil erosion. They also protect wild life and provide recreational facilities.
