The Fight Is On

DETAILS appear to have been finalized for the heavyweight championship fight between champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Sonny Liston.

Patterson will get 45 per cent of the net gate and that should be a crown evening's earnings. Even if Sonny loses the fight he is sure to feel too sorry for the challenger Patterson. Liston has been guaranteed a minimum of $200,000, probably the greatest sum a challenger has ever taken home.

NOW the promoters will start their predicting. Many have already come out and stated that Liston will knock Patterson all over the ring. They are avid by the destruction of Sonny's punches and they feel that Patterson will not be able to stand up to it.

Just about everybody agrees that Patterson is the better boxer but they don't seem to think that the champion can stay out of the ring of Sonny's blasts. They insist if Liston really connects it will be curtains for Mr. Patterson.

We think, however, that they are underestimating the ability of the set-soon crown holder. He has the ability to rebound off the floor and go on to flatten his tormentor. Those who maintain he can't take it are definitely off the beam.

The Big Question

THE big question of course is whether he can withstand the big attack that is also supposed to be a very close copy that Liston has accumulated a really something and the sight of it should terrify the young champion.

But Patterson is a systematic gentleman. He studies his opponent well and he will not go in against Mr. Liston expecting an easy evening. However, we don't for a moment believe that he will be the ring in a scared condition.

He obviously has the greatest respect for Sonny's talents but he is also convinced his own capabilities are not too bad. The advance yards on the big fight should make interesting reading and go much to make the attraction the huge financial acres they are hoping it will be.

Our advice is not to sell Patterson short on this one. Liston probably is the greatest threat yet to his crown but he hasn't lost this championship fight yet.

It Has Started

CHICAGO Black Hawks and Montreal Canadiens started the season. The Hawks acquired defenseman Al MacNeil for the right money. Wally Hicke and a bundle of cash.

Hawks apparently have started playing that defense that seemed a bit wobbly in the Stanley Cup finals. MacNeil will help them considerably in relieving the pressure.

Other trades should be forthcoming soon. All clubs can do with help. Of course Boston and Detroit need a bit more than the others. Rangers can strengthen quite a bit without affecting their record.

Great Sport Passes

A great follower of local sport, George McMahon, died Thursday night in the Charlotte hospital.

Although he failed to play for a number of years, he kept in touch with all the local deals in the sport field and could chat with you on these things anytime you came in contact with him.

His wife, Mrs. Reg. Williams, Sports Front extends deepest sympathy.

Wally on his fine job of sponsoring the event, which was a reminder of the gathering that Howard Wade was a member of the 1946 world champion.

Garvone "Windy" Steele, featured poet of the evening, was introduced by the referee who reviewed his career as a boxer.

The following players in addition to their trainer, Truman J. Kelly, received honorary citizenship: David Coffin, Gary Rogers, Wendell Coffin, Gerald Smith, Richard Perry, Philip Gallant, Richard Allen, Paul Williams, Norman Burgess, Alan Candel, Donald Aronson, Ivan Baglow, Richard Gallant, Elmer Aronson, Wayne Trause, Paul Gallant, Whitmore Mattart and Paul Mullin.

Bob Schurman was master of ceremonies and introduced the various speakers. George Key, deputy mayor, congratulated the team and sponsor. He said the town of Summerville was proud of the boys. He reminded the players that hockey teaches them to work together as a team and they are expected to extend the spirit of co-operation in later life towards the betterment of their community.

Jim Hovak, president of the BAA, congratulated Howard Summerside.

Deals May Be Cooked Up Before NHL Meet Mon.

By W. R. WHEATLEY

MONTREAL (CP) — The National Hockey League opens its annual meeting Monday and there were reports that weekend deals may be cooked by the time the three-day session gets under way.

There was no indication that Montreal's star defenseman Al MacNeil would be traded, but it was believed that two of them—Bernie Goffron and Dickie Moore—were 31 years old and Jean Beliveau will be 30 this season.

last season, were reported looking for further experienced talent and willing to make some attractive offers if they can get the players they want.

GLAMORIZE PENALTY-SHOT Monday's meetings open with the NHL rules committee considering changes. One expected to be adopted will glamorize the penalty-shot rule in order to make the play more spectacular.

The joint rules committee, bringing together representatives of the pro leagues and the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, will be held the same day, followed by a meeting of selectors for the Hockey Hall of Fame.

The Tuesday morning schedule calls for a meeting of the NHL publicity directors and a session of the joint relations committee of the pro and CAHA.

The inter-league draft—when the NHL drafts from the Western Hockey League and the Eastern Professional Hockey League—will be held Tuesday afternoon. The draft price—the money a player is paid to leave his old team—will also be $20,000. NHL clubs must file their lists of protected players.
