

East Baltic And Vicinity

The Red Point School is taking a two-week holiday to help out with the potato digging.

Miss Phyllis Rose, Ch'town, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Rose, East Baltic.

Mr. Major Young, Red Point, was a business visitor to Montague on Oct. 1.

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Robertson, Kingsboro, in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Robertson whose marriage took place recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Jarvis, Kingsboro, and Mr. Lyman Baker, Lakeville, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McNeill, Montague.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rose, North Lake, were recent visitors to Ch'town.

Mrs. Alfred Sorey, accompanied by her brother, Mr. George Robertson, Kingsboro, motored to Montague on Sept. 28.

Miss Kathleen Robertson, nurses' aide at the Provincial Sanatorium Ch'town, spent the week of Oct. 3 at her home in Munns Road.

Rev. H. R. Bell and Mrs. Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Rose, Red Point, visited with relatives and friends in Ch'town Sept. 27.

The B. Y. P. U. of the East Point Baptist Church, Kingsboro, attended in a large group the Rally Service held in the Hazelbrook Baptist Church on Sept. 28.

Miss Lydia Stewart, Ch'town, spent the week-end of Oct. 3 with relatives and friends in Kingsboro.

Rev. and Mrs. M. Waterworth of New Glasgow, P.E.I. were visitors to Kingsboro.

M. Daniel McDonald, Campbells Cove, was a business visitor to Red Point, Sept. 28.

The Rally Day Service was held in the Kingsboro Baptist Church on Oct. 3. The service was led by the superintendents, Mr. Kenneth McGregor of the Kingsboro Sunday School and Mr. Harold Hunter of North Lake Sunday School, the service opened with the call of worship by the leader Mr. Kenneth McGregor. And responsive reading by the congregation. Scripture readings by Master Weston Rose and Miss Eileen Robertson; duet by Misses Joan Dixon, Jean McGregor; prayer by Mrs. Carl McGregor; prayers by the teacher Mrs. Lyman Rose and prayer by Miss Rowena Garrett, pupil of the Sunday School and a brief address on "Our Church" by Mrs. Walter Dixon and Miss Clarabell Ching and several Hymns sung by the congregation. The Sunday school teacher gave out several promotion certificates to the children in their classes.

Mr. Leo MacDonald, Toronto, Ont., spent a few days at his home in North Lake. Mr. MacDonald was accompanied home on the trip by his father Mr. Stephen MacDonald who spent several weeks visiting relatives and friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon and two children, East Baltic, accompanied by Mr. James Poole, Souris, motored to Charlottetown Sept. 22.

Mr. Wallace E. MacDonald, Trenton, Ont., spent his holidays at his home in Bothwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MacDonald, Nova Scotia, spent some time with relatives in St. Peters, Bothwell, and North Lake, and are both receiving a hearty welcome by their many friends.

Mr. James Allan, Rosemeath, was a Sept. 23 visitor to Red Point.

Miss Wanda Robertson, College student, Charlottetown, spent the week-end of Sept. 26 at her home in Kingsboro.

Mr. Arthur MacCallum, assistant postmaster at Souris, has recently accepted a position with the Dept. of Veterans Affairs in Charlottetown. All wish him success in his new position. He and Mrs. MacCallum are both well and familiarly known.

Messrs. Robert and Johnnie Robertson, accompanied by Miss Arlene Robertson, Kingsboro, were Sept. 21 business visitors to Charlottetown.

Mr. William Brown, Munns Road, has recently entered the Charlottetown Hospital for treatment. His many friends wish him a quick return to his home and improved health.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Drindell, Maine, are spending their holidays with the latter's mother, Mrs. J. F. Mossey, Bothwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo MacDonald returned to their home in Dorchester, Mass., having spent some time visiting with relatives and friends in South Lake and Red Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian MacInnis, Souris, left Sept. 24 by plane for Edmonton, Alta., where they will spend some time with their son, Dr. Frank and his family. Their numerous friends in the eastern districts and Souris wish them both a pleasant trip.

Georgetown and Vicinity

On October 4, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McNis of Borden, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Boyle and three children of Hunter River, motored to Georgetown, where they visited friends and relatives.

Mrs. Lindsay, who spent the summer at her cottage at Morrison's Beach left recently on return to Winthrop, Mass., accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Butler's son, who motored here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. MacLaren left October 5 for Hamilton, Ont., where they will spend the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Aitken. Mrs. Aitken arrived here last week and her parents accompanied her on the trip to Hamilton.

On October 5 Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Walker had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fraser of North Lake, and Mr. William Buffet of Souris.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston MacDonald and family recently motored to Souris, where they were the guests of friends.

Mr. Paul Donovan of Picou, N. S., is the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Donovan.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stewart returned home late last week from Trenton, Ont., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobbs, and in Shubenacadie, N. S., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. E. R. and Mrs. McVicar. They also visited Montreal and Halifax.

Mr. Peter MacDonald, employee of the Abegweit at Borden, spent the recent week-end at his home in East Lake.

Mayor Arthur J. Peters of Souris spent some time as a patient in the Souris Hospital.

Mrs. Harold Hunter and daughter returned to their home in North Lake from the Souris Hospital.

Rev. Donald and Mrs. McClare returned to their home in the Kingsboro Manse and were accompanied back by Mrs. Horace MacClare who was joined later by her husband, Mr. Horace McClare of Hilltop, N. S., and Rev. Donald MacClare's grandmother, Mrs. John MacClare. They returned to their home in N. S. on Sept. 21, having spent an enjoyable few days with the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. D. McClare.

Mr. Arthur Bruce, Red Point, has had the misfortune of having his head cut and received medical care which required several stitches. Mr. Bruce was working on the pulp boat recently being loaded at Souris wharf and in some manner a chain broke and struck him on the head. He is about his work as usual.

On Sept. 20 Mr. Spl Sutherland of Souris, an employee on the dragger owned and operated by Mr. Richard Power of Norris Pond, had his face badly cut while at his work. He was taken to Souris Hospital and had medical care and nine stitches were necessary in closing the wound. All wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Hume of Port Hope, Ont., were recent visitors to Murray River, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hume's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. Hume were recently married in Ontario, Mrs. Hume was the former Miss Myrna MacKay of Murray River. While home, they were tendered a shower and best wishes is extended to this young couple, home with them were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moore, also of Port Hope, Ont.

Mrs. Lilah Acars and daughter Judy spent the week-end of Oct. 2, in New Glasgow, N.S., visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnston and family.

Mr. Stirling Whiteway, Murray River, left recently for Charlottetown, where he has accepted a position with the Bank of Nova Scotia.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Peter MacLean was held at the Little Sands United Church on Saturday Oct. 3, at 2 p.m. Rev. T. R. Goudge of Pownal United Church, conducted the funeral services. Pallbearers were Mr. Stanley Livingstone, Mr. Norman C. Stewart, Mr. Malcolm MacNeill, Mr. Bruce Stewart, Mr. John H. MacLean, and Mr. Malcolm Livingstone. Flower bearers were Messrs. Hertz MacDonald, Charles Whitcomb, Raymond MacLean, Walter Livingstone, and Stirling MacKay. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. MacLean and his family.

Mr. Norman E. Stewart, Charlottetown, spent the week-end of Oct. 3 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank.

Mrs. Royal White and family, Murray River, spent the week-end of Oct. 3, in Charlottetown visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mae Porter.

Miss Charlotte Gordon, Public Health Nurse, Charlottetown, recently visited the new babies in Murray River and surrounding districts.

Miss Janet Stewart, Charlottetown, spent the week-end of Oct. 3 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Aiden Blue, Hopefield, whose marriage took place on Sept. 26. Mrs. Blue was the former Miss Louise Stewart of High Bank.

Brenda Ann Irving, Charlottetown, is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. MacKay, High Bank.

Mr. John Giddings has returned to his home in White Sands, after being employed in the tobacco fields in Ontario for the past few weeks.

Mr. Brent Moore who is employed at the general store of D. M. MacKinnon is enjoying his annual vacation.

The first New Zealand Maori, or native, to receive a university degree was Sir Aprana Ngata, who died, at 73.

Guy Fawkes Day Nov. 5 commemorates the abortive gunpowder plot of 1605 at the British House of Commons.

IN MEMORIAM

RALPH DOUCETTE

Sadness was felt over the whole community when people learned of the death of Ralph Doucette of North Rustico at the early age of 42 years, after a long illness which was borne with great courage and fortitude. He was a fisherman by occupation. After many months of treatment by competent doctors in the City Hospital his condition remained unchanged. He decided to go to the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, for treatment which was of no avail. He returned to the City Hospital where he was cared for until he was called to his eternal reward on August 24, fortified by the last Rites of the Roman Catholic Church. Left to mourn his passing is his wife and six children, his mother Mrs. (Capt.) William Doucette, Montreal, and the following sisters and brothers, (Lillian) Mrs. Tudor MacKay of Australia, (Jean) Mrs. Albert Provost, Virgil, Eleanor and Martina all of Montreal, Francis and Harold of Rusticoville. His funeral was held August 27, and was largely attended. Requiem Mass was sung by his Pastor, Rev. Fr. Robin. Also present in the Sanctuary was Rev. Fr. Pitre who also conducted the service at the grave. Pallbearers were: Messrs. Ray Doiron, Benoit Pineau, James Peters, Lawrence D. Gallant and Stephen Peters.

Georgetown and Vicinity

On October 4, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McNis of Borden, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Boyle and three children of Hunter River, motored to Georgetown, where they visited friends and relatives.

Mrs. Lindsay, who spent the summer at her cottage at Morrison's Beach left recently on return to Winthrop, Mass., accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Butler's son, who motored here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. MacLaren left October 5 for Hamilton, Ont., where they will spend the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Aitken. Mrs. Aitken arrived here last week and her parents accompanied her on the trip to Hamilton.

On October 5 Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Walker had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fraser of North Lake, and Mr. William Buffet of Souris.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston MacDonald and family recently motored to Souris, where they were the guests of friends.

Mr. Paul Donovan of Picou, N. S., is the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Donovan.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stewart returned home late last week from Trenton, Ont., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobbs, and in Shubenacadie, N. S., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. E. R. and Mrs. McVicar. They also visited Montreal and Halifax.

Mr. Peter MacDonald, employee of the Abegweit at Borden, spent the recent week-end at his home in East Lake.

Mayor Arthur J. Peters of Souris spent some time as a patient in the Souris Hospital.

Mrs. Harold Hunter and daughter returned to their home in North Lake from the Souris Hospital.

Rev. Donald and Mrs. McClare returned to their home in the Kingsboro Manse and were accompanied back by Mrs. Horace MacClare who was joined later by her husband, Mr. Horace McClare of Hilltop, N. S., and Rev. Donald MacClare's grandmother, Mrs. John MacClare. They returned to their home in N. S. on Sept. 21, having spent an enjoyable few days with the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. D. McClare.

Mr. Arthur Bruce, Red Point, has had the misfortune of having his head cut and received medical care which required several stitches. Mr. Bruce was working on the pulp boat recently being loaded at Souris wharf and in some manner a chain broke and struck him on the head. He is about his work as usual.

On Sept. 20 Mr. Spl Sutherland of Souris, an employee on the dragger owned and operated by Mr. Richard Power of Norris Pond, had his face badly cut while at his work. He was taken to Souris Hospital and had medical care and nine stitches were necessary in closing the wound. All wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Hume of Port Hope, Ont., were recent visitors to Murray River, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hume's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. Hume were recently married in Ontario, Mrs. Hume was the former Miss Myrna MacKay of Murray River. While home, they were tendered a shower and best wishes is extended to this young couple, home with them were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moore, also of Port Hope, Ont.

Mrs. Lilah Acars and daughter Judy spent the week-end of Oct. 2, in New Glasgow, N.S., visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnston and family.

Mr. Stirling Whiteway, Murray River, left recently for Charlottetown, where he has accepted a position with the Bank of Nova Scotia.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Peter MacLean was held at the Little Sands United Church on Saturday Oct. 3, at 2 p.m. Rev. T. R. Goudge of Pownal United Church, conducted the funeral services. Pallbearers were Mr. Stanley Livingstone, Mr. Norman C. Stewart, Mr. Malcolm MacNeill, Mr. Bruce Stewart, Mr. John H. MacLean, and Mr. Malcolm Livingstone. Flower bearers were Messrs. Hertz MacDonald, Charles Whitcomb, Raymond MacLean, Walter Livingstone, and Stirling MacKay. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. MacLean and his family.

Mr. Norman E. Stewart, Charlottetown, spent the week-end of Oct. 3 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank.

Mrs. Royal White and family, Murray River, spent the week-end of Oct. 3, in Charlottetown visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mae Porter.

Miss Charlotte Gordon, Public Health Nurse, Charlottetown, recently visited the new babies in Murray River and surrounding districts.

Miss Janet Stewart, Charlottetown, spent the week-end of Oct. 3 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Aiden Blue, Hopefield, whose marriage took place on Sept. 26. Mrs. Blue was the former Miss Louise Stewart of High Bank.

Brenda Ann Irving, Charlottetown, is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. MacKay, High Bank.

Mr. John Giddings has returned to his home in White Sands, after being employed in the tobacco fields in Ontario for the past few weeks.

Mr. Brent Moore who is employed at the general store of D. M. MacKinnon is enjoying his annual vacation.

The first New Zealand Maori, or native, to receive a university degree was Sir Aprana Ngata, who died, at 73.

Guy Fawkes Day Nov. 5 commemorates the abortive gunpowder plot of 1605 at the British House of Commons.

Georgetown and Vicinity

IN MEMORIAM

RALPH DOUCETTE

Georgetown and Vicinity

On October 4, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McNis of Borden, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Boyle and three children of Hunter River, motored to Georgetown, where they visited friends and relatives.

Mrs. Lindsay, who spent the summer at her cottage at Morrison's Beach left recently on return to Winthrop, Mass., accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Butler's son, who motored here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. MacLaren left October 5 for Hamilton, Ont., where they will spend the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Aitken. Mrs. Aitken arrived here last week and her parents accompanied her on the trip to Hamilton.

On October 5 Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Walker had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fraser of North Lake, and Mr. William Buffet of Souris.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston MacDonald and family recently motored to Souris, where they were the guests of friends.

Mr. Paul Donovan of Picou, N. S., is the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Donovan.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stewart returned home late last week from Trenton, Ont., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobbs, and in Shubenacadie, N. S., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. E. R. and Mrs. McVicar. They also visited Montreal and Halifax.

Mr. Peter MacDonald, employee of the Abegweit at Borden, spent the recent week-end at his home in East Lake.

Mayor Arthur J. Peters of Souris spent some time as a patient in the Souris Hospital.

Mrs. Harold Hunter and daughter returned to their home in North Lake from the Souris Hospital.

Rev. Donald and Mrs. McClare returned to their home in the Kingsboro Manse and were accompanied back by Mrs. Horace MacClare who was joined later by her husband, Mr. Horace McClare of Hilltop, N. S., and Rev. Donald MacClare's grandmother, Mrs. John MacClare. They returned to their home in N. S. on Sept. 21, having spent an enjoyable few days with the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. D. McClare.

Mr. Arthur Bruce, Red Point, has had the misfortune of having his head cut and received medical care which required several stitches. Mr. Bruce was working on the pulp boat recently being loaded at Souris wharf and in some manner a chain broke and struck him on the head. He is about his work as usual.

On Sept. 20 Mr. Spl Sutherland of Souris, an employee on the dragger owned and operated by Mr. Richard Power of Norris Pond, had his face badly cut while at his work. He was taken to Souris Hospital and had medical care and nine stitches were necessary in closing the wound. All wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Hume of Port Hope, Ont., were recent visitors to Murray River, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hume's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. Hume were recently married in Ontario, Mrs. Hume was the former Miss Myrna MacKay of Murray River. While home, they were tendered a shower and best wishes is extended to this young couple, home with them were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moore, also of Port Hope, Ont.

Mrs. Lilah Acars and daughter Judy spent the week-end of Oct. 2, in New Glasgow, N.S., visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnston and family.

Mr. Stirling Whiteway, Murray River, left recently for Charlottetown, where he has accepted a position with the Bank of Nova Scotia.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Peter MacLean was held at the Little Sands United Church on Saturday Oct. 3, at 2 p.m. Rev. T. R. Goudge of Pownal United Church, conducted the funeral services. Pallbearers were Mr. Stanley Livingstone, Mr. Norman C. Stewart, Mr. Malcolm MacNeill, Mr. Bruce Stewart, Mr. John H. MacLean, and Mr. Malcolm Livingstone. Flower bearers were Messrs. Hertz MacDonald, Charles Whitcomb, Raymond MacLean, Walter Livingstone, and Stirling MacKay. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. MacLean and his family.

Mr. Norman E. Stewart, Charlottetown, spent the week-end of Oct. 3 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank.

Mrs. Royal White and family, Murray River, spent the week-end of Oct. 3, in Charlottetown visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mae Porter.

Miss Charlotte Gordon, Public Health Nurse, Charlottetown, recently visited the new babies in Murray River and surrounding districts.

Miss Janet Stewart, Charlottetown, spent the week-end of Oct. 3 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Aiden Blue, Hopefield, whose marriage took place on Sept. 26. Mrs. Blue was the former Miss Louise Stewart of High Bank.

Brenda Ann Irving, Charlottetown, is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. MacKay, High Bank.

Mr. John Giddings has returned to his home in White Sands, after being employed in the tobacco fields in Ontario for the past few weeks.

Mr. Brent Moore who is employed at the general store of D. M. MacKinnon is enjoying his annual vacation.

The first New Zealand Maori, or native, to receive a university degree was Sir Aprana Ngata, who died, at 73.

Guy Fawkes Day Nov. 5 commemorates the abortive gunpowder plot of 1605 at the British House of Commons.

Georgetown and Vicinity

IN MEMORIAM

RALPH DOUCETTE

Georgetown and Vicinity

On October 4, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McNis of Borden, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Boyle and three children of Hunter River, motored to Georgetown, where they visited friends and relatives.

Mrs. Lindsay, who spent the summer at her cottage at Morrison's Beach left recently on return to Winthrop, Mass., accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Butler's son, who motored here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. MacLaren left October 5 for Hamilton, Ont., where they will spend the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Aitken. Mrs. Aitken arrived here last week and her parents accompanied her on the trip to Hamilton.

On October 5 Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Walker had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fraser of North Lake, and Mr. William Buffet of Souris.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston MacDonald and family recently motored to Souris, where they were the guests of friends.

Mr. Paul Donovan of Picou, N. S., is the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Donovan.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stewart returned home late last week from Trenton, Ont., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobbs, and in Shubenacadie, N. S., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. E. R. and Mrs. McVicar. They also visited Montreal and Halifax.

Mr. Peter MacDonald, employee of the Abegweit at Borden, spent the recent week-end at his home in East Lake.

Mayor Arthur J. Peters of Souris spent some time as a patient in the Souris Hospital.

Mrs. Harold Hunter and daughter returned to their home in North Lake from the Souris Hospital.

Rev. Donald and Mrs. McClare returned to their home in the Kingsboro Manse and were accompanied back by Mrs. Horace MacClare who was joined later by her husband, Mr. Horace McClare of Hilltop, N. S., and Rev. Donald MacClare's grandmother, Mrs. John MacClare. They returned to their home in N. S. on Sept. 21, having spent an enjoyable few days with the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. D. McClare.

Mr. Arthur Bruce, Red Point, has had the misfortune of having his head cut and received medical care which required several stitches. Mr. Bruce was working on the pulp boat recently being loaded at Souris wharf and in some manner a chain broke and struck him on the head. He is about his work as usual.

On Sept. 20 Mr. Spl Sutherland of Souris, an employee on the dragger owned and operated by Mr. Richard Power of Norris Pond, had his face badly cut while at his work. He was taken to Souris Hospital and had medical care and nine stitches were necessary in closing the wound. All wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Hume of Port Hope, Ont., were recent visitors to Murray River, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hume's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. Hume were recently married in Ontario, Mrs. Hume was the former Miss Myrna MacKay of Murray River. While home, they were tendered a shower and best wishes is extended to this young couple, home with them were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moore, also of Port Hope, Ont.

Mrs. Lilah Acars and daughter Judy spent the week-end of Oct. 2, in New Glasgow, N.S., visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnston and family.

Mr. Stirling Whiteway, Murray River, left recently for Charlottetown, where he has accepted a position with the Bank of Nova Scotia.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Peter MacLean was held at the Little Sands United Church on Saturday Oct. 3, at 2 p.m. Rev. T. R. Goudge of Pownal United Church, conducted the funeral services. Pallbearers were Mr. Stanley Livingstone, Mr. Norman C. Stewart, Mr. Malcolm MacNeill, Mr. Bruce Stewart, Mr. John H. MacLean, and Mr. Malcolm Livingstone. Flower bearers were Messrs. Hertz MacDonald, Charles Whitcomb, Raymond MacLean, Walter Livingstone, and Stirling MacKay. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. MacLean and his family.

Mr. Norman E. Stewart, Charlottetown, spent the week-end of Oct. 3 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank.

Mrs. Royal White and family, Murray River, spent the week-end of Oct. 3, in Charlottetown visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mae Porter.

Miss Charlotte Gordon, Public Health Nurse, Charlottetown, recently visited the new babies in Murray River and surrounding districts.

Miss Janet Stewart, Charlottetown, spent the week-end of Oct. 3 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Aiden Blue, Hopefield, whose marriage took place on Sept. 26. Mrs. Blue was the former Miss Louise Stewart of High Bank.

Brenda Ann Irving, Charlottetown, is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. MacKay, High Bank.

Mr. John Giddings has returned to his home in White Sands, after being employed in the tobacco fields in Ontario for the past few weeks.

Mr. Brent Moore who is employed at the general store of D. M. MacKinnon is enjoying his annual vacation.

The first New Zealand Maori, or native, to receive a university degree was Sir Aprana Ngata, who died, at 73.

Guy Fawkes Day Nov. 5 commemorates the abortive gunpowder plot of 1605 at the British House of Commons.

Georgetown and Vicinity

IN MEMORIAM

RALPH DOUCETTE

Savage Harbour And Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Douglas of Charlottetown, were visitors to Savage Harbour on Wednesday where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Coffin.

Mr. Glen MacLaren of New Perth was a visitor to Savage Harbour during the week.

Mr. John MacDonald of St. Andrews was a visitor to Peake's Station during the week-end. While there he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rogerson.

Mr. Lloyd Robertson Amherst, N.S., visited Savage Harbour on Tuesday. On return he was accompanied by Mrs. Robertson and daughter Elaine who were holidaying on the Island the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacLaren of Charlottetown, were visitors to Savage Harbour during the week where they renewed many old acquaintances.

Mrs. J. J. Trainor of Charlottetown, was a motor visitor to Savage Harbour on Sunday. While here she was the guest of Mrs. Allen Morrison.

Mr. D. J. MacDonald of St. Andrews was a business visitor to Charlottetown on Tuesday.

William MacIntyre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine MacIntyre of Savage Harbour, was painfully injured during the week. The young chap and his seat mate were pumping water for the school when his finger got caught in the pump and the top of his right index finger was cut off almost to the base of the nail. However, Billy has the stuff of which heroes are made and the next morning he was back at school ready and willing to resume his studies, despite the fact that he was unable to write for several days.

Messrs. Ralph Pigot, Cyrene Morrison, John Pig