LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

NOT TRUE. Sirs.—D. Nicholson, Esq., last night at the sewerage meeting stated that it was their intention to make a fair and square fight upon the merits of the question. The Guardian in its report of the meeting commences this "fair" business by the most palpable of falsehoods. I trust that your reporter, who is the secretary of the meeting, will make a correct statement as to the proportion of those present favorable to sewerage, and also as regards the "great majority of those present (who signed it)." A little truth from a religious paper would be polished by the people. TANTU. CONSISTENCY A JEWEL. Sirs.—The only speakers at last night's meeting who spoke in opposition to the introduction of a system of sewerage for this city were Mr. John Phillips, Tanton and Joseph Knight, Esq. Is it not a fact that those gentlemen were among the many who offered continuous and obstinate opposition to waterworks, for the reason that without sewerage waterworks would give rise to all manner of diseases, and prove a curse instead of a blessing to the city. To-day, after many a hard fought battle, we have a system of waterworks second to none in Canada. To be consistent, those who contended against waterworks on the ground that it would necessitate sewerage, should now take fourth rank among its advocates. CONSISTENCY. ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION. To Mr. A. E. Venning: DEAR SIR.—Before taking your departure from Gowan Brae, at the close of the first cheese-making season, we beg, on behalf of the patrons of Gowan Brae Cheese Factory, to express to you in a formal manner how thoroughly satisfied we are with your work as cheese-maker during the past season. Notwithstanding the many inconveniences you experienced as a consequence of its being our first year in the business, yet it is a matter for congratulation that the quality of the cheese manufactured by you scored very high at the World's Fair at Chicago. We beg of you to accept the accompanying present as a small testimony of the high price you hold in the estimation of all the patrons. Hoping to have you with us again next spring, and that the same pleasant relations shall ever exist between us, signed on behalf of the patrons: R. WALKER, A. J. McDONALD, CYRIL WHITE, JOHN PETERS, THOMAS WHITE, H. MONAGHAN, LAMAR MULLAHL, PATK. MANNING. For sick headache, sour stomach, loading of food, dyspepsia or biliousness, take Hawker's Liver Pills. They will cure you. Recommended by leading physicians as a most reliable medicine.

ESSAY ON THE NORTHWEST.

The Windsor Journal says:—The late Richard Fenton, the 15-year-old son of Robert Fenton, of Northfield, has carried off the prize of $50 offered to all schools in Canada by Mr. Haslam, of the C. P. R., for the best essay on the Northwest. The competition, Mr. Haslam writes, was very keen.

A GREAT ATTRACTION.

The Tea and Fancy Sale in the Lyceum is proving a great attraction. Last night there was a large attendance, and business was lively. The tea and sale will be continued tonight, when the various articles remaining unsold will be disposed of at public auction. Don't fail to attend. The money realized goes towards the Convent de Notre Dame, a very deserving institution.

ARROX SALE.—The "Importunate"

Circle of King's Daughters intend (D. V.) holding an arrox sale and tea in aid of their work for the P. E. Island Hospital, in St. Paul's Schoolroom, on Thursday, 7th December. Contributions for the above will be thankfully received by Mrs. Hensley, Mrs. A. Loré, Miss May Dawson, Miss McGill, Miss Mary Davies, Miss M. Johnson. n7 31

SLAPPED HER FACE.—A man named J. B. Slocum, of Slavs Mills, Pa., quarrelled on Saturday with his daughter Charlotte, aged 30, because she had neglected to sew a lesson on his overcoat, and slapped her face. The indignity preyed so on Miss Slocum's mind that she went to her room and hanged herself. The Slocums are wealthy. The daughter was to have been married to a prominent lumber operator.

RETURNING FROM THE STATES.—The Yarmouth Times says:—On Wednesday, seven families with their effects, who are informed, returned from Boston. The head of another family who returned recently, after having lived seven years in Cambridgeport, says more families are coming back as quickly as they can get back. When times are good we can make more money over there than we can at home, but he has to spend more, too, and, "when times are bad they are—bad."

CRANKS IN WASHINGTON.—Crankers are constantly appearing at the White House, and, although the epidemic which has broken out since the murder of Carter Harrison has not yet struck Washington, there seems to be some fear that it will. The President has no fear himself, but his official friends and family have insisted that greater precautions shall be taken. The result is that the executive mansion is now guarded by more watchmen than ever, and a private detective in plain clothes keeps near the President when he goes out.

ISLAND REGULATORS CAPTURED.—Two young men belonging to Charlottetown are under arrest in Pictou on a charge of burglarizing the store of Daniel Douglas. Their names are William Doyle and Joseph Dunn, and they were for a time employed on the steamer Stanley. A man who was passing Douglas's store about midnight on Tuesday, saw the two worthies inside raiding the shelves and counters. He informed Mr. Douglas of his discovery and that gentlemen lost no time in getting to his place of business. The burglars, when they saw Douglas, jumped through a window, but Douglas pointed a key at them, and they, thinking it was a revolver, gave themselves up. The value of the goods stolen amounted to $300. The burglars had a boat all ready to take away their plunder. They were to have been up for trial to-day.
