It seems such a little while
 since he was in the arms of those whom I am so fond of.

And so for me there is no stinging
 in death. It is but crossing with abated breath. A little strip of sea, to find my loved ones waiting on the shore. More beautiful, more precious than before. Loved and missed by wife and family.

MCCORMACK - In fond and loving memory of our dear husband and dad, Joseph J. McCormack, who passed away November 8, 1961.

The winds may blow and God
 on a sweet and treasured spot. Where one we love lies sleeping And the flowers gently wave. The years may wipe out many things. But still, they'll wipe out never the memory of those happy days.

 Lovingly remembered by his wife and family.

ROSS - In loving memory of my dear husband, John William Ross, who passed away Nov. 8, 1961.

Some things you first find and remain To walk the road alone. I live in my own garden dear With happy days we know. Since you've gone first and I remain. One thing I'll have to do. Walk slowly down the path of death. For soon I'll follow you. I want to know the same you. That I may take the steps. For someday down that lonely road. You'll hear me call your name. Sadly missed and ever remembered by wife and family.
