

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

SERIOUSLY INJURED—Ward was received in Charlottetown Saturday that Mr. Gordon Holmes, barrister of this city had fallen from a load of hay at his home and had been seriously injured.

ARRIVED BY PLANE—Miss Betty Burman arrived in Charlottetown yesterday morning from Halifax. She was flown here in a Gypsy Moth piloted by Mr. McDonald who returned to Halifax after remaining here about half an hour.

WILL PREACH AT CONSECRATION—His Excellency Bishop J. A. O'Sullivan of Charlottetown will preach the sermon at the consecration of Bishop-elect P. A. Bray, which will take place at St. John's New Brunswick in May. Very Rev. P. A. Bray, C.J.M., Ph.D., was Rector of Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax, for a number of years. He succeeded the late Bishop LeBlanc, whose death occurred some time ago. In 1933 he visited Charlottetown and addressed the graduating class of St. Dunstan's University.

WEDDING BELLS—Mrs. P. J. Oliver, of this city, received a message Friday from New York bringing the news of the marriage of her daughter, Margaret Alexandra (Allie) MacLeod, to Duncan Murray Cameron, an official of the Jamaica New York branch of the Bank of Manhattan Trust Company. Miss MacLeod, who was prior to going to New York with the Potato Growers' Association, has numerous friends in Charlottetown and they will extend heartfelt felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Cameron.

Oddfellows and Rebekahs held their annual church parade to St. James Church yesterday morning, commemorating the 17th anniversary of the founding of their order. At 10.30 the parade in charge of Marshal John Hearns moved off from the I. O. O. F. Hall on Richmond Street and proceeded by way of Richmond, Queen, Kent and Pownall Streets to St. James Church. The Rebekahs met in the Sunday School hall and attended the service in a body.

In an inspiring sermon Rev. Dr. Legate, spoke on "Brotherhood" taking as his text, Hebrews 13:1. "Let brotherly love continue."

ASSUMES DUTIES—Mr. Charles I. Bacon, E.Sc., (E.E.) of North Tryon who has been appointed engineer in charge of the Electric Light System for the town of Summerside entered on his duties a few days ago. Mr. Bacon received his early education in North Tryon on Public School and Prince of Wales College after which he spent one year associated with the General Electric Company, Schenectady. In 1930 he entered Dalhousie University where he took his pre-engineering course and graduated from Nova Scotia Technical College in the year 1934. Mr. Bacon has been associated with the North Tryon Electric Company of which his uncle Mr. Charles Ives is president and manager, until his appointment to his present position.

POVERTY SOCIAL—An entertainment under the auspices of the Ladies Aid was held in the Presbyterian Church, Summerside. This took the form of a "Poverty Social". Opening remarks were made by the chairman Rev. Mr. McCarey followed by a reading by Mrs. Perry, vocal duet by Rev. Wainwright and Mr. Bud Mountray. Scotch songs by Mrs. J. P. MacPherson; reading by Mrs. Alexander; solo "Grandma's Advice" Mrs. Pickering; Piano solo "Spring Song" Rev. Mr. McCarey; chorus by members of the Ladies Aid. A number present were fined for not complying with the rules of dress and the fines were imposed by Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Perry and Mr. Baker. After lunch was served all present enjoyed games for the remainder of the evening.

On Thursday morning, March 12th at her home in Lynn, Mass., the spirit of Mrs. Warren C. Bartlett took its flight to the great beyond. Mrs. Bartlett was born at Red Point, Lot 46, the daughter of the late Alexander N. Bruce, and his wife Catherine Cameron. Those left to mourn are, her husband, Warren C. Bartlett, Lynn, three sisters, Ella, in Lynn, Amy, in Oakland, Cal., Margaret, in Kingsboro, P.E.I., and two brothers, Harold at Red Point and William in Charlottetown, P.E.I. Her funeral was held on Saturday the 14th at beautiful Pine Grove Cemetery, where it was her wish to be buried. Many and beautiful were the floral tributes from those who loved her in life. During the funeral service, conducted by Rev. Mr. Howes, the two hymns she loved so well, "Beautiful Tale of Somewhere" and "Abide With Me" were sweetly sung.

There passed away at her home in Victoria, B.C. on Saturday, April 11th, 1936, Emily Setina, beloved wife of William H. Long, in the seventy-eighth year of her age. The late Mrs. Long was born in Crapaud, P. E. Island. A great part of her life was spent in Charlottetown before moving to Victoria, B.C., fourteen years ago.

Besides her sorrowing husband there are left to mourn one daughter, Mrs. Wallace Thomas of Crapaud, B.C., and two granddaughters, Mrs. M. J. MacPherson and Mrs. M. J. MacPherson.

bell, Rev. Dr. Samuel Howard and Rev. William Howard. Interment was made in Colwood Burial Park Cemetery.

TUESDAY

BOY SCOUT OFFICIALS OFF TO MONTREAL—Mr. L. D. Murray, President of the Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts Association, and Mr. J. J. Morris, Provincial Commissioner, leave this morning for Montreal to attend the annual meeting of the Dominion Council in the Windsor Hotel. They will also be guests at dinner of Sir Edward Beatty, President of the Dominion Association, to meet the Chief Scout for Canada, His Excellency Lord Tweedsmuir.

SMITH-RICHARDS—The marriage took place Wednesday evening, April 8th, at the Manse, Vernon, P. E. I., of Mr. Henry Ilett Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Richards of Cherry Valley, to Miss Emma Louise Smith, daughter of Mrs. J. H. Smith, Uigg. The bride wore a lovely blue ensemble which was very becoming. She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Smith. The groom was supported by Mr. E. Acorn. Rev. A. S. Weir performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Richards are to reside at Cherry Valley, where Mr. Richards is a successful farmer. They have the best wishes of many friends for happiness and prosperity.

RECEIVE DIPLOMAS—Diplomas were awarded to 23 students comprising the graduating class of the Nova Scotia Agricultural College, Truro, N.S., by Dr. J. M. Trueman, principal of that institution who presided at the closing exercises held in the college's assembly hall. The Governor-General's Medal, symbolic of general high standing, was presented to R. M. Spikes, of Bay Roberts, Newfoundland. The MacDonald Scholarship of $50, which is awarded to the student making the highest marks in the second-year course, was presented to D. W. Creelman of Brookfield, P. E. Island receiving diplomas were A. Blair Baker, O'Leary, L. C. Calbeck, Charlottetown, Donald F. Stewart, Charlottetown, Dr. W. V. Longley, book prize was won by Donald F. Stewart, Charlottetown.

Preliminary hearing of Mr. Russell Abbott of Charlottetown on a charge of manslaughter arising from the death of Mrs. Mary Johnson after a railroad crossing collision a week ago, opened yesterday before Stipendiary Magistrate K. M. Martin. The manslaughter charge against Abbott was laid Wednesday. Mrs. Johnson died in hospital less than 24 hours after she suffered a fractured skull when an automobile driven by Abbott collided with a Canadian National Railway yard-shunting engine at Grafton Street crossing.

The manlaughter charge against Abbott was laid Wednesday. Mrs. Johnson died in hospital less than 24 hours after she suffered a fractured skull when an automobile driven by Abbott collided with a Canadian National Railway yard-shunting engine at Grafton Street crossing.

A colorful and excellently acted pageant, "The Romance of the Year" was presented in the Oddfellows Hall last night to a very appreciative audience. The pageant was directed by Mrs. Ruby M. Houle, past president of the Rebekah Assembly.

AT ROTARY—Past President H. L. Palmer presided at the Rotary luncheon yesterday. A special effort had been made to make it a 100 per cent meeting, and the chairman of the attendance committee, Past President J. A. Webster, was congratulated by President Al Fisher on attaining the desired result. Out of 58 members of the club, 53 registered. The other five got in their attendance at Rotary Club elsewhere. A special feature of the luncheon was a presentation of a plaque to Mr. J. P. MacPherson, reading by Mrs. Alexander; solo "Grandma's Advice" Mrs. Pickering; Piano solo "Spring Song" Rev. Mr. McCarey; chorus by members of the Ladies Aid. A number present were fined for not complying with the rules of dress and the fines were imposed by Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Perry and Mr. Baker. After lunch was served all present enjoyed games for the remainder of the evening.

There passed away at Wheatley River on Sunday, April 5th, at the early age of 77 years, Henrietta Caroline Howard, wife of Mr. Walter Ling, Mrs. Ling was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Howard, of Meadowbank, near Cornwall, and married Walter Ling of Wheatley River in November, 1934. Before her marriage she taught school at Great Appleton Shore and was a successful and popular teacher.

ber of the United Church at Cornwall and a valued teacher in the Sunday School, and a member of the W. M. S. and Young People's Union and rendered valuable service in all these organizations. Her early death cast a deep gloom over these communities where she was well and favorably known. The community of Wheatley River mourns the loss of a capable and faithful Christian worker.

The funeral was held at her late residence, Wheatley River, on Tuesday, April 7th. Rev. F. E. Boothroyd conducted the solemn service, assisted by Rev. D. K. Ross, of Cornwall. The burial took place at the Cornwall cemetery, where a large gathering of relatives and friends were assembled. The pall-bearers were: Stanley Hyde, Gordon Boyle, Roy Crosby, John McLean, Harold Chandler and Philip Mathieson.

She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband at Wheatley River, her father and mother at Meadowbank, and Mrs. John Horton, a sister, at John's River, and a very large circle of relatives and friends. She is gone but not forgotten. Our hope is that family circles broken down here, should be reunited in a land where sorrow cannot enter.

A meeting of the Community Club, O'Leary, was held in the Oddfellows' Hall on Tuesday, April 21st. Mr. Sanford Phillips occupied the chair in the absence of the President, Mr. W. H. Dennis, who is at present in Charlottetown. It was decided to repair and straighten up the sidewalks as they are in a bad condition in some places. It was also decided to put on a banquet in the near future in honour of the President. Mr. Dennis has been president of the Club since its organization and has been a hard and faithful worker in its interests. It was also decided to hold the annual picnic of the Club on July 15th.

FACE EXTORTION CHARGE—Two Summerside youths, Thomas Brewer, 17, and Donald Steele, 18, today will face preliminary hearing before Stipendiary Magistrate E. H. Strong on charges of extortion. Last week a Summerside merchant, Mr. Karol Delaney, received three notes in bills behind a local store on given evening, his store would be robbed or burned out or he would be shot. When the first threatening note arrived Delaney thought he was the victim of a practical joke, but when two others arrived carrying more ominous threats he notified the police. Directed in civilian clothing Police Chief Percy Kinch appeared behind the stable with Delaney on the night the merchant was to make payment. Chief Kinch collared the two boys, Brewer and Steele, when they appeared for the purpose of collecting.

There passed peacefully away after an illness of seven weeks, at the home of her son, 337 Kent St., Mrs. Flora Godkin, widow of the late Isaac Godkin, who died in 1908. Mrs. Godkin was 80 years of age and was leaving her with a family of seven young children whom she patiently and devotedly cared for until they were able to carry their own burdens. Later she went to live with her son Artemas, where she laboured faithfully and diligently working and caring for her grandchildren and her household duties until she was finally called to cease from her labours. She had reached the advanced age of 83 years.

She leaves to mourn three daughters, Mrs. Alfred Hol', Mrs. Seymour McInnis of City and Mrs. Frank Godfrey, Pictou, N.S., and one son Artemas of the firm of Davis and Fraser, City, also one grandchild, Mrs. Emma Crockett, Lowell, Mass.

A wave of genuine sorrow passed over the little village of Tyn Valley and the surrounding country when it was made known that the angel of death had claimed one of our most highly respected citizens, Mr. Ephraim Phillips on Monday afternoon, March 30, 1936. The deceased, who was born in Arlington, Lo. 14, P.E.I. sixty-six years ago, was the son of the late James and Mrs. Phillips of that place. He had been in failing health for the past year, having been stricken with paralysis, but was able to be up and around among his friends until about ten days previous to his death. The passing of Mr. Phillips is removed from our midst one who will be greatly missed, not only in his home where he was the joy and sunshine of the family circle, but by a host of friends and acquaintances throughout our fair province and elsewhere, for he was a man who was very widely known and highly esteemed. He was a friendly, kindly nature, wherever he went there was good cheer and friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rogerson have moved to Hazelbrook, P. E. I. Mr. Rogerson was the butter-maker in O'Leary Dairy and Cold Storage during the past year. While here, although a short time, this couple made many friends and will be greatly missed. Mr. John Pippy of Hazelbrook will take Mr. Rogerson's place at the factory.

Kensington, Prince Edward Island. The funeral services for Mrs. J. Duggan of Kensington, were conducted by the Hon. E. C. Manning on Tuesday, April 7th, at one o'clock, from the parlors of Howard & McBride, Edmonton.

RECEIVE SAD NEWS—The relatives in this province of the late Robert C. Carson of Prince George, B. C., were saddened yesterday by a telegram stating that he had passed away. He is survived by his widow and several children. This is the second bereavement in this family this month, another brother, Henry C. Carson of Miami, Manitoba having died on the 2nd inst, leaving a widow to mourn. The men referred to above have resided in the western provinces for the past forty years, and were sons of the late John J. and Mrs. Carson of Brookfield this Province.

There passed away at Rosary Hall, Edmonton, Alberta, on Tuesday, April 7th, 1936, Katherine McIsaac, formerly of Halliday's Wharf, Eldon, P.E.I., widow of Thomas McIsaac who died at Eldon about eight years ago. After her husband's death Mrs. McIsaac disposed of her property and removed to the west where she lived with her son and daughter. It was her custom to spend the winters at Rosary Hall, Edmonton, and just before she was taken ill she was preparing to go to Oyen to spend the summer with her daughter, but after four days illness, attended by the good Sisters of the Institution and consoled by the last rites of Holy Mother Church of which she was such a faithful and consistent member, she passed peacefully away to the great beyond. R.I.P.

Surviving are her son Alexander, living on a ranch near Edmonton; Janie, Mrs. Chambers of Brookline, N.Y.; Clara of Pasadena, California; and Salena, Mrs. Warren Miller of Oyen, Alberta. One sister, Mrs. Murphy of Iona, and a brother, John Andrew McIsaac of Melville, P.E.I., also survive.

There was a good attendance of members at the meeting of the Caledonian Club held last night in the Board Room in the City Building. In the unavoidable absence of the President, Ciansman Aben McLean occupied the chair. The names of three new candidates for Club membership were proposed and were duly elected members of the Club. Ciansman J. M. McEwen referred in feeling terms to the great loss sustained by Ciansman T. F. White in the passing of his beloved wife, and also to Ciansman John Reid in the passing of his beloved daughter, and a committee consisting of the President, Ciansman W. R. Shaw and the Recording Secretary, T. M. McEwen, was chosen to tender the sincere sympathy of the Club to these two Ciansmen.

A communication was read from Mr. W. D. Ross, Secretary of the Gaelic Society of Kinross, extending an invitation to the members of the Club to hold the annual Scottish gathering at Kinross this year, and after some discussion the Recording Secretary was requested to write Mr. Ross concerning this matter.

Among the Ciansmen present at this meeting, there were three new members who had recently joined the Club, and these Ciansmen joined heartily in the various discussions which came before the meeting.

Under the head of "Good of the Club" the Rev. J. M. McEwen gave a brief address in which he heartily welcomed these new members to the meeting. After the discussion of several matters of interest to the Club, the meeting adjourned.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Allan Joseph Watts was held yesterday morning from his late residence, Grand Tracadie to St. Michael's Church, Corran Ban, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rt. Rev. Monsignor Maurice MacDonald, who also officiated at the grave. The pallbearers were, Messrs. Wm. Aulay, Wm. Campbell, Chas. Gibbs, Wm. Rattray and Len Cour.

Just after the Charlottetown railroad crossing collision which brought death to Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mr. Russell Abbott, her companion in the automobile which was wrecked by a yard locomotive, had declared he was driving the car when the crash occurred, three months ago yesterday as Abbott's preliminary hearing was a charge of manslaughter continued. Witnesses at the hearing yesterday were Russell H. Campbell and Henry D. Douglas, trainmen; and Clark Gratto, C.N.R. electrical signal maintainer; Police Officers Cyrus Jay and Ben McEachern, and an onlooker Hilton McNeill.

None of the persons who gave testimony has seen the collision. Douglas told the hearing he had run to the rear of the backing locomotive after the collision and was seen Abbott climbing out of the wrecked automobile. Abbott did not appear to be hurt and he told Douglas a woman lay in the wreck, the witness said.

Witness stated. He considered that they were in working order the night of the accident. Other witnesses stated that Abbott had said just after the collision that he did not know how it had happened. He was perfectly sober, they told the hearing. The court adjourned until today.

PAGEANT REPEATED—"The Romance of the Year" a pageant presented by Oddfellows and Rebekahs in the I. O. O. F. Hall Monday night was repeated last night. Many of the beautiful costumes in the pageant were designed by Mrs. Ruby M. Houle who directed the production. Mr. James Caldwell acted as master of ceremonies. The audience received each part of the delightful program with every generous applause.

FUNERAL SERVICE—The funeral of the late Mrs. Belle McLean was held Sunday afternoon from the home of her son, Mr. Hanpden MacLean, at 130, conducted by Rev. L. E. G. Davies followed by a service at the United Church, Central Lot 16, at 2.30, conducted by Rev. Mr. James and Rev. Mr. Woodside. The pallbearers were Messrs. James MacLean, R. E. MacLean, Laughlin MacLean, Dan MacArthur, Ivan MacLean and Haylock MacLean. Interment in Central Lot 16 Cemetery, S.

The death occurred in Summerside Monday of Mrs. Robert T. Moase at the age of 74 years.

Mrs. Moase was born at Long River, the daughter of Samuel Burrows and Mary Johnstone. She lived all her married life, over fifty years in Kensington. Mrs. Moase was an active worker in the Presbyterian Church and leaves many friends. There are left to mourn five daughters and five sons, Mrs. Robert Stavert, Wilmet; Mrs. John A. Hogg, Kelvin; Mrs. Bracken J. Simmons, Wilmet; Mrs. Reuben Large, Wilmet; Mrs. Maxwell Robertson, Summerside; Darrach, Freetown; Edgar of Bellisville, B. C.; Davis, Travellers Rest; Major, St. Eleanor, and Harold of New Annapolis.

She leaves also one brother John A. Burrows of Wilmet and two sisters, Mrs. John Moase, New Annapolis, Mrs. H. B. Birch, Port Hill. Her husband predeceased her 12 years ago. S.

Hampshire and district received a shock when it learned the sorrowful news on March 25th that Mr. Fred Larter, aged 70, had passed away after only a few hours immediate illness. He was of a friendly disposition and will be much missed in his home and community. He was a member of the Kingston Baptist Church. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. G. Waking assisted by Rev. F. E. Boothroyd. Hymns sung were "For ever with the Lord," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Shall we meet beyond the River?" also a solo "Sometime we'll understand." Sorrowing relatives include his widow, formerly Frances Hyde, two sons, Charles and Watson, one daughter Mildred (Mrs. Richard MacLaren) on the homestead, one brother, Thomas of Washington, and four sisters, Mrs. George Bichle and Mrs. Lemuel Worthy of Charlottetown, Mrs. Alex Rooney, of Dakota and Mrs. Tremere of Hampshire, P. E. I.

The annual meeting of the Business Girls Unit of the C. W. L. to Charlottetown was held in their hall last evening with a good attendance of members. The president, Miss Margaret Douglas presided, and the meeting was honored by the presence of His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan and Rev. Dr. McMahon, chaplain of the Unit.

The election of officers was then carried out, Mrs. Frank Murray, Diocesan President acting as Chairman of Elections. The officers elected are as follows: President, Dorothy Perry. Past President, Margaret Douglas. 1st vice president, Mary McFarlane. 2nd vice president, Florence Hogan. 3rd vice president, Breta McCabe. Rec. Secy., Katherine McKenna. Corres. Secy., Evelyn Connors. Treasurer, Mary Murphang. Councillors, Mrs. W. K. Dalton, Roxbury, Mass., daughter of the late James Dalton of Charlottetown, became the bride of Mr. John B. Clark of East Boston, Mass. The bride looked very charming in a bridal ensemble of white tulle, with hat to match; and carrying a bouquet of white Calla lilies. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret MacDonaid, as maid of honor, who was becomingly dressed in Nile green chiffon and carrying a bouquet of Talisman roses. The groom was very ably assisted by Captain Philip Colbert. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. D. P. Simpson. The bride's gift to the maid of honor was an amethyst neck lace, while the best man was tendered a gold cigarette case by the groom. After a delightful supper at the Levasis, the happy couple left on their honeymoon, followed by the best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy married life. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Clark will reside at 15 Greenville Street, Roxbury.

DIES OF SPINAL MENINGITIS—Ernest Cannon, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cannon, died in hospital in Summerside, yesterday of spinal meningitis. He was taken to hospital Tuesday when he became unconscious some time after he had fallen downstairs in his home apparently without suffering serious injury. Alarmed when the child fainted, his parents took him to hospital where doctors found he was a victim of the dread spinal disease. He died in a few hours.

SAILS WITH BUOYS—The C.G. S. Montcalm sailed from Charlottetown yesterday with buoys which are to be dropped off Tryon Shoals, Tormentine, Fairway, West Point, Richbucko, North Cape, Alberton, Malpeque, Rnstico, St. Peter's and East Point for the protection of shipping during the reopened season. Buoys have been placed at Fitzroy Rock, Point Prim, Indian Rock, Cape Bear and Murray Harbor. Aboard the Montcalm are three live buoy seals captured by members of the crew during the recent ice patrol performed by the ship. The seals are to be taken to Quebec.

The Sunshyne Sewing Class met at the home of Mrs. Harland Hill on Saturday, April 18th, with eight members and one visitor present. After the Secretary's report was given and approved the following new officers were appointed: to take the place of those who have left—the president, Miss Ruth Stevenson; vice president, Helen Houston; Secretary, Ruth Buntain. Misses Martha Ling and Jeanette Clark were reappointed on the program committee. Roll call was answered with "My First Recollection." A contest put on by Miss Martha Ling was then enjoyed after which the usual hour of sewing was held under the direction of Mrs. Harland Hill assisted by Miss Ella Semple.

The sympathy of this community and surrounding country goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Melone, Hope River, in the passing of their little son David Lloyd George which occurred at his home Wednesday, April 22nd at the tender age of two years and nine months. Lloyd was a very bright and lovable child and the only son. At the early stage of his sickness he contracted whooping cough and complications followed and at the above mentioned date his little soul went to be with Him who gave it. Besides his sorrowing parents he leaves to mourn one little sister, Clair. The funeral was held the following Thursday from St. Ann's Church at Hope River. Interment at St. Ann's cemetery, Hope River.

Y'S MEN'S CLUB MEETING—Mr. E. E. Clawson, Charlottetown, district Governor of the Y's Men's Club for the Maritime Province, paid an official visit to the Charlottetown Club at the regular weekly meeting last night. The District Governor gave a general outline of the work of the different Maritime clubs are doing, how they conduct their meetings and other information of interest to club members. He also told briefly of the extent of the organization throughout the world. Clubs have been established in fourteen different countries he told the local club members. Mr. N. D. McLean, president of the Charlottetown Club, made a presentation to Mr. Clawson. Arrangements were made for the installation of new officers at the next meeting. They were elected some weeks ago. Fine arrangements were made for the club dance tonight. Mr. Jack McNair was the chairman at last night's meeting.

The annual meeting of the St. Columba Sub-division of the Catholic Women's League was held Sunday, April 26th. The President, Mrs. W. S. McIntyre occupied the chair.

After prayer, the minutes of the last annual meeting were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Charles McMahon, and were adopted on motion. The reading of the minutes was followed by an address by the retiring President.

A review of the year's work was outlined in reports by the Secretary, Mrs. Charles McMahon, and the Treasurer, Mrs. Aeneas McPhee. Mrs. Paul McEachern, chairman of the Nomination Committee, presented her report and those elected to office for the ensuing year are: President—Mrs. J. J. McDonald. 1st Vice President—Miss Mary E. Bailey. 2nd Vice President—Mrs. Aeneas McPhee. 3rd Vice President—Mrs. Duncan Campbell. Secretary—Mrs. W. S. McIntyre.

Councillors—Mrs. Paul McEachern, Mrs. Marcellus McInnis, Mrs. John D. Gillis, Mrs. Eugene Murphy, Mrs. J. R. McDonald, Mrs. Charles McMahon.

RAILWAY OFFICIALS HERE—Lt.-Col. C. C. Sibbard of Ottawa, chief operating official of the Board of Railway Commissioners accompanied by Mr. D. G. Kilburn of Ottawa also of the Board Commissioners arrived in Charlottetown last night. They were met in Moncton by Mr. E. W. McKinnon, superintendent of the Island Division. The men are here on a regular inspection tour and leave today for Souris by special car. The railway officials remain in the province until the first of the week when Charlottetown they are staying at the Canadian National Hotel.

I. O. D. E. MEETING—The monthly meeting of the Abergavon Chapter of the I. O. D. E. was held in St. Mary's Hall on Wednesday, April 29th. Business included the appointment of representatives for the annual convention, reports, etc., and arranging a ticket in Moncton for a picture "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer" to be given in the Capitol Theatre under the auspices of the I. O. D. E. After the regular meeting, Miss G. Holman read a paper on "David Livingstone," written by Mrs. George Miller of the Royal Edward Chapter of Charlottetown. The paper was delightfully and sympathetically written. It covered Dr. Livingstone's childhood and education and various journeys of exploration. Mrs. Miller particularly emphasized how Livingstone in revealing the horrors of the slave traffic, stung awake the heart of some world. She referred to his personality that made him famous by those who opposed him, Arab slavers and the like, and loved and honored in England and throughout the world for his 30 years of merciful mission. No life of Livingstone would be complete without referring to Mrs. Miller did, to the great loyalty and heroism of his African friends, who doing him honor after his death, buried his heart in Chitambol village in Central Africa, then carried his body 1,300 miles to the coast through enemy country and under great hazards. From there the body of Livingstone was conveyed to England and buried in Westminster Abbey. The meeting closed with the National Anthem—S.

BIRTHS

BRUCE—On April 23, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. Laurence F. Bruce, Maden, Mass., a son, Laurence Augustin. Mr. Bruce was formerly of Charlottetown.

SINNOTT—At Morell April 11, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sinnot a daughter. (Patriot Please Copy.)

DOYLE—On April 20, 1936, at the City Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Doyle, a daughter.

FLEMING—At Hope River, P.E.I., on April 7, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fleming, a son, Daniel Richard.

SIMMONS—At the home of Mrs. Martin, Crapaud, April 20, 1936 to Mr. and Mrs. Everett Simmons, Crapaud, a son.

HARVEY—At the home of Mrs. Martin, Crapaud, April 27, 1936 to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harvey, a son.

MYHER—At Charlottetown, on Monday, April 27, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Myher, a son.

MARRIAGES

PARKMAN-STEWART—On April 18th, in the Parsonage at Winsloe, Bessie C. Stewart, of Charlottetown, was united in marriage to E. I. Rev. Thos. Palethorpe, officiating.

DEATHS

CANNON—At the Prince County Hospital Wednesday, April 29, 1936, Ernest, five and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cannon, Summerside.

MACDONALD—At Bellevue, P. E. I., April 29, 1936, Murdoch F. MacDonald, age 72. F.

CROKEN—At Emerald, April 29, 1936, John A. Croken, age 80 years.

CARSON—At Miami, Manitoba, April 2nd, 1936, Harry Chown Carson, formerly of Brookfield, P. E. I.

CLARKIN—At North Wiltshire, April 26, 1936, William Clarkin, aged 77 years.

CARSON—At Prince George B. C., April 27th, 1936, Robert Crabbe Carson formerly of Brookfield, P. E. I.

MORRISSEY—At the Sacred Heart Home, April 28, 1936, Catherine Morrissey, aged 90 years, widow of a late Walter Morrissey, formerly of Emscastle.