WE are informed that Mr. Nannery's fine troop will pay a visit to this city on Saturday next, and will remain until Wednesday. During their stay a series of first-class entertainments will be given in Market Hall. Further particulars in a future issue.

MR. WILLIAM MURPHY left our office, to-day, a sample of "Carter's First Crop" peas, grown in his garden the present season. They are full grown, ripe, and are the best we have, so far, seen. Mr. James Lewis, St. Clair, also left some excellent samples of this season's peas.

MR. HENRY PALMER begs to tender his sincere thanks to his friends and other citizens for their active and very valuable exertions in endeavoring to save his Dwelling House and property, on Wednesday last, and by which the whole of his household furniture was saved from the fire without damage—July 8, her 3in

A REPORT comes from Trigon to the effect that the wife of a farmer in that vicinity committed suicide, yesterday morning, by hanging herself with her husband's scarf. We have not received further particulars regarding the melancholy affair than that she has been, for some time, despondent, and a week ago attempted to murder two of her children.

A LUSSEMBURG despatch to the Chronicle says: A melancholy case of suicide has occurred here. Deputy Sheriff Caldwell, being about to proceed to LaHave Islands in his yacht, between four and five o'clock this morning, discovered the body of Mary Bailey, eldest daughter of John Bailey, in the harbor, not far from the shore. Life had been extinct several hours. No cause can be assigned for the rash act. The young lady was universally esteemed, and deep sympathy is felt for the afflicted family.

At Belleville, Ont., on Saturday last, two boys named Soles and Donoghue, aged respectively about 16 and 14 years, went to the woods near Canifon, in search of gooseberries, taking with them a gun. Soles loaded the gun with powder, but the ramrod being short he could not withdraw it. He said to his companion that, unless he got some berries, he would shoot him, when the gun, which was pointed towards Donoghue, who stood about fifteen feet off, went off. The rod struck Donoghue in the thigh, about midway between the knee and the hip, and hitting the bone, the wood splintered, making two additional wounds. One of the pieces was taken out after much difficulty, but others of the splinters remain deeply imbedded in the flesh. It is quite uncertain how the case may result, as there is much danger from the after effects of the injuries.

THE steamer Carroll arrived from Boston at noon to-day, with a cargo of merchandise and the following passengers: Mr Jacobs, Mr Everhart, Mrs Dodge, Mr Patrick Rogers, Mr B F Rome, Mr B Woodside, Miss Townsend, Miss Campbell, Mrs Daly, Miss Lizzie Daly, Mrs Moxon, Miss Sarah R Morrison, Miss E Ball, Miss Alice Campbell, Miss Victoria Walker, Mrs Flywelle, Misses Mary McLeod, Annie McPhee, Maggie McPhee, Ferguson, Ferguson, Sarah McKenzie, Sarah Mabon, Jennie McLeod, Jennie Gillis, Mrs. Caffrey, Mrs G U S Taffey, Miss Maggie Pier, Miss Mary McLean, Mrs J McKay, Misses Katie McNeill, Sarah J Murchison, Sarah McPhee, Leonard, Annie Murphy, Mary Murphy, Jane A Holland, Miss McLellan, Miss McInnis, Miss Fitzgerald, Miss Worcester, Miss Catherine McEwen, Miss Sarah McAdam, Messrs John McKay, G H Bull, Gross, Trenton, Tin, John Blake, D. Matheson, Mrs Darby, Misses Foley.

WILLIAM WHITE and Daniel McLeod, two young street Zulus, were arraigned at the bar of the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, on charge of assaulting Francis Drain. The assault was proved, and White, who appeared to be the leader in the affray, was sentenced to four months' imprisonment, with hard labor, and McLeod to one month. Patrick Cavanagh took an active part in the same 'fray. He will accompany them for twenty days. Michael Purcell, it appears, met Daniel Hogan on Water Street, yesterday evening. Daniel was returning to his home, having on his person a bottle of excellent brandy. Purcell attacked him from the rear, and, after dealing him a few heavy blows, captured the bottle and made off. Daniel preferred the charge as leniently as possible, under the vexing circumstances, and the Magistrate let Michael off with "one dollar or four days;" but threatened to send him up for six months on the next offence.

SHORTLY AFTER arrest, yesterday evening, Daniel McLeod and Patrick Cavanagh were searched. Officer Cameron found on McLeod three keys, which McLeod said he found under a stone in Mr. Connolly's lot. They were shown to Mr. Bowers, who, to-day, in Court, identified two of them as the keys of apartments in his safe, and one as the key of a tin cash box which he kept in his safe. Mr. Bowers besides identifying the keys, stated that some time between Saturday night and Monday morning, the New Era office was entered; that the safe had been broken, and six dollars in cash and a number of notes of hand and other valuable papers taken. He had no clue to the robbers, and said that he missed the keys, which were shown to him by the officers, three weeks ago. Officer Warren, found on Cavanagh, a ferral cane. Mr. Joseph Brecken appeared in Court and identified the ferral as one which had been taken off a walking cane which mysteriously left his hall a short time ago. Cavanagh said he found it on the street opposite W. D. Stewart's Auction Rooms. The case stands over for the present, and Cavanagh, McLeod, and William White are remanded on suspicion of burglarizing the "New Era" office and Queen Billiard Room
