MR. AND MRS. JOHN WILLIAM LUNDQUIST AND ATTENDANTS

Pretty Summer Wedding Solemnized In Summerside

The United Baptist Church, Summerside, was attractively decorated with baskets of flowers and ferns for the wedding of Carol Olive Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D.W. Sears, Harvard Street, Summerside, and L.A.C. John William Lundquist of Penhold, Alberta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E.A.C. Haley on June 29, at 5 p.m. Mr. James Peach was organist, and Mr. John Leuty sang "O, Love, Be Deep" before the ceremony and "I Love Thee" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked charming in a gown of white embroidered nylon net with matching jacket and Peter Pan collar with iridescent pearl trim long pointed sleeves, elbow-length veil also trimmed with iridescent pearls. She carried a bouquet of red better-time roses.

Miss Barbara Vaughan, the maid of honor, was attired in a gown of blue taffeta nylon net with matching jacket and Peter Pan collar. Her headdress was nylon net with pearl trim and she carried an arm bouquet of Aristocrat pink roses.

Miss Audrey Woodside, bridesmaid, wore blue nylon net, and the junior bridesmaid, Miss Claudia Brooks, a sister of the bride, wore pink nylon net. Each had matching jackets with Peter Pan collars, headdresses of nylon net with pearl trim, and carried nosegays of Tony gold roses. All gowns were ballerina length with very full skirts. Miss Donna Sears, sister of the bride, was flower girl carrying a miniature nosegay of Aristocrat pink roses. She was attired in yellow nylon net with headdress of yellow roses.

Mr. William Hamilton was best man, and ushering were Mr. Floyd Acton and Mr. Claude Barrett, uncle of the bride.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a navy dress with scoop neckline, three-quarter sleeves and full skirt. She wore white hat and gloves and a pink corsage.

The reception with 70 guests attending was held at Mulberry Lodge. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, and decorated with white net, red roses and lighted candles. Miss Cora Lyn Brooks, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's going away attire was a navy dressmaker suit, three-quarter sleeves, and a Grace Kelly hat, with pink accessories. She wore a pink corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Lundquist visited various parts of the Island, then left by plane for Edmonton and Calgary, before going to Red Deer where they will reside.

DAINTY AND FEMININE

This dainty confection of a straight run to the waist. There are eight rows of tiny lace ruffles trimming the show-off front. And it's truly a warm weather delight with its tapered cap sleeves. Made of a dacron and pima cotton blend the blouse washes like magic and drip-dries without any iron board drudgery.

Lewis-Boss Wedding Is Lovely Summer Event

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday June 27th at three o'clock in the Nappan United Church when Phyllis Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Boss, became the bride of Williams Leigh Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, Cascumpeque, P.E.I. Rev. W.T. Mercer, Springhill performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of net and Chantilly lace. The bodice was made of lace with short sleeves and stand up net collar. She wore three-quarter length gloves of matching lace. Her shoulder length veil of net was held in place by a coronet of lace, trimmed with tiny pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her attendants were her two sisters, Mrs. James Dares, as matron of honor, who wore a pink gown of net over taffeta, with matching headdress and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white mums; and Miss Alma Boss, as bridesmaid, wore a blue gown, of net over taffeta with matching headdress and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white mums.

Little Beverly Lewis, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a blue flowered nylon dress. Her headdress was of white mums and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations and white mums.

Mrs. Boss, mother of the bride, wore a blue flowered terylene dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Lewis, mother of the groom, wore a blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Lawrence Lewis, brother of the groom was best man. Keith Lewis, brother of the groom, and Ormond Boss, brother of the bride were ushers.

The church was decorated with baskets of snowballs. The guest seats were marked with blue and pink rosettes on white doilies. The nuptial music was played by Mrs. Gerald Pipes. Mrs. W.D. Bickford was soloist.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for some sixty guests. The house was decorated with vases of snowballs and pink and white streamers. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth centered with a large wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom. Pink and white streamers hung from the chandelier. The wedding cake was cut in the traditional manner by the bride and groom.

Mrs. Floyd Taylor, Port Elgin and Mrs. Clifford Black, Amherst presided over the tea cups. Serving were Mrs. William Moate and Miss Mary MacLure, Summerside, Mrs. Harry Lewis, Jr. Woodstock, P.E.I. Mrs. Maxine Vidlo, Amherst and Misses Ruth Roach and Gwyneth Bird, Nappan. Mrs. Derrald Boss, Mrs. Ora Boss and Mrs. Ormond Boss replenished.

Mrs. William Moate had charge of the guest book.

For travelling the bride wore a pink brocaded dress with pink and white accessories and a corsage of pink roses and white mums. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will reside in Toronto where the groom is employed with the British Oxygen Canada Company.

Previous to her marriage the bride was on the staff of the A-M Johnson School, R.C.A.F. Station, Summerside.

BLAST RED FORGERS
The government Tuesday denounced as Communist forgeries letters to West German army commanders urging them to campaign against the Social Democrats. Many unit commanders had received letters purportedly signed by Defence Minister Franz

Joseph Straus. The letters called upon them to see their troops voted against the Socialists in the parliamentary elections Sept. 15.

Bake a batch of crusty Dinner Rolls
If you bake at home, you'll want to try a batch of crunchy Dinner Rolls. They're so easy to make when you use fast rising dry Best Yeast!

CRUSTY DINNER ROLLS
Measure into a large bowl 1/4 c. lukewarm water; crumble and add 1 cake Best Yeast—or stir in 1 tsp. granulated sugar and sprinkle with 1 envelope Best dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well. Add 1/4 c. lukewarm water and 1 tsp. salt. Add, all at once, 3 1/2 c. once-sifted all-purpose flour and work in with the hands; work in 3 tbs. soft shortening. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl. Cover with a damp cloth and set in warm place, free from draft. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough in bowl, fold over, cover and again let rise until doubled in bulk. Turn out on lightly-floured board and divide into 2 equal portions; shape each portion into a long roll about 1 1/2" in diameter. Cover with a damp cloth and let rest 15 mins. Using a floured sharp knife, cut dough into 2" lengths and place, well apart, on ungreased cookie sheets. Sprinkle rolls with cornmeal and let rise, uncovered, for 1/2 hour. Brush with cold water and let rise another 1/2 hour. Meanwhile, stand a broad shallow pan of hot water in the oven and preheat oven to hot, 425°. Remove pan of water from oven and bake the rolls in steam-filled oven for 1/2 hour, brushing them with cold water and sprinkling lightly with cornmeal after the first 15 mins., and again brushing them with cold water 2 minutes before removing baked buns from the oven. Yield—18 rolls.

COLLEGE

THIS season's college girl outfits are neat and sweet, many combined featuring the mix-match theme, as well as the dyed-to-match theme. Puffy beige orlon and tweed is used smartly for a good three-piece sweater and skirt combination. The underneath sweater can be worn tucked in or over. It has tweed inserts to ally it with the skirt, as does the over-sweater with its tweed collar and cuffs. The slim skirt has a self-belt with leather trim.
