

What's on at the Panther Lounge

“... welcome on any comedy stage ... in total harmony.”
The Beat - Melbourne

“...interact confidently with the audience ... slick silliness.”
In Press - Melbourne

“scared ... weird ... bizarre ... LAUGH.”
The Herald Sun - Melbourne

What more can we say. The Scared Weird Little Guys will be performing at the Barn on Thursday November 12. Now that midterms are over, this will be a perfect night to go out and have a good time before its time to start gearing up for finals. We've been using advance tickets sales lately and it's been working really well. Advance tickets are sold for a lower price and ensure that you'll get in even though you might have a late class. Tickets for Scare Weird Little Guys will go on sale Friday November 6th and will be available between 9:00 AM and 4:00 PM at the Barn, until 4:00pm the day of the show. This will be another wet/dry event as we will split upstairs down the middle like we did for Santini and Yuk Yuks.

This week's That's Entertainment Movie Pub movies will be Gladiator (an exciting boxing movie) and My Cousin Vinny.

Movies to be shown next Friday (the 13th) will be Sister Act starring Whoopi Goldberg and Encino Man.

Second semester is really starting to look like a very entertaining one. Terry Kelly is scheduled to play February 11th and the Panther Lounge will be the location for the one and only Velcro Man. Anyone who has seen the David Letterman Show will know what Velcro Man is. The wall, the velcro suit and the trampoline will be at the Barn sometime during the second semester.

Coming up in the near future are Bacardi Dark and Dirty Fridays. Free glasses and great prizes will be given away.

A quick thanks to Kim and Labatts for sponsoring both Halloween Pubs. One more quote about the Scared Weird Little Guys before we sign off.

“... had the first and last laughs. Their vocal and guitar talents and ability to ad-lib ... a brilliant and remarkable mix.”
The News - Adelaide
