A Comparative Statement Wanted.

MR. HACKETT, M. P., has given notice of a motion for an order of the House for a statement showing the amount of business transacted for the year ending 30th June, 1880, at the following flag stations on the Prince Edward Railway, viz: Bear River, Bedford, Little York, Freetown, Miscouche Conway and Bloomfield.

The statement to set forth in separate columns the following:

1st. The number of tons of freight received at or despatched from each of said stations along the line of the Prince Edward Island Railway.

2nd. The amount of money received at each of said Stations for freight and passengers.

The All-Absorbing Question.

AN observant and thoughtful correspondent in Ottawa, writes:—

"The Pacific Railway Contract absorbs all minor subjects at present. Sir Charles Tupper's speech has cleared away a good many Grit cobwebs. The contract ought to be popular in the older Provinces, especially in Prince Edward Island. The road must be built. BOTH PARTIES ARE EQUALLY COMMITTED TO ITS CONSTRUCTION. The only question is as to the mode to adopt in building it. Built as a Government work certainly means increased burdens to the older Provinces. Building by a Company and paying for it by a grant of lands and money, seems the only feasible and acceptable plan. The main bargain seems to recommend itself to every one—the details are fiercely attacked by the Opposition. A long session may be expected. The Grits will fight the Pacific scheme inch by inch; but there can be no doubt that the terms of the Contract will be ratified by a full (or almost full) party vote."

Salaries of Railway Officials.

DR. MUTTART, who is recognized at Ottawa as one of the most industrious members of Parliament, has given notice of a motion for an "Order of the House for a comparative statement of salaries and wages paid to all officials and employes on the Intercolonial and Prince Edward Island Railways."

This is emphatically a move in the right direction. Dominion officials on this Island, of every class and department, should be placed in a position of equality with Dominion officials of the same grade in the other Provinces. This is one united country; and no Province should be under a disability, nor should the officials in any Province be placed at a disadvantage.

We are glad to notice that Dr. Muttart is using his influence to obtain fair play for our railway officials; and we hope that justice will, ere long, be done in respect to them.

Boycotting Exemplified

The case of Mr. William Bence Jones, a gentleman farmer, near Bandon, county Cork, who is now being Boycotted, is even more remarkable than that of Captain Boycott himself. He farms nearly a thousand acres, and has lived in Ireland since 1840. He has spent £25,000 on improvements. His rents are about double the government valuation. He states that his tenants were willing to pay the usual rents, but on Dec. 2, they received notices forbidding them to do so. The next day threatening notices were posted on his front door and a grave was dug in the grass near by. Notices threatening his tenants were afterward stuck all over the town. The tenants were consequently obliged to refuse to pay more than Griffith's valuation. Last Saturday some oats which Mr. Jones had sent into Bandon could not find a purchaser. They still lie there unsold. On the same morning thirty laborers, employed on his farm, received the following notice:—"Strike on Monday. Mr. Bence Jones is Boycotted. God save Ireland!" Mr. Jones, on hearing this sent notices to the police, who visited the place and assured the workmen that they would be protected if they remained. But on Monday all left, including a mason, a carpenter, a gamekeeper and a coachman, but the baker, gardener, dairyman and another domestic remained, as they did not receive the notice to leave. Mr. Jones' son and daughter had then to endeavor to supply the wants of the cattle on the farm as far as they could. In this work they were protected by two policemen. Local traders will not supply Mr. Jones, and his house has to be guarded at night. Some most remarkable incidents in connection with his Boycotting occurred. Thirty head of cattle and forty sheep belonging to Mr. Jones arrived at Cork on the 14th for shipment to Bristol. When the cattle arrived at the steam packet company's yard they were recognized as belonging to Mr. Jones. Several cattle shippers went immediately in a body to one of the directors of the company and said that if Mr. Jones' cattle were allowed on board the vessel they would cease to have any further dealings with the company. The officials acceded to these representations and refused to allow the beasts on board. The animals were then turned out of the yard. Two drovers asked if the Clyde Shipping Company would take them on board one of their vessels. This application was also refused when the company discovered who the owner was. Then the two drovers refused to have anything more to do with the beasts, and the cattle and sheep were allowed to stray about the streets. Eventually a number of policemen succeeded in gathering them together and drove them into the premises of the Great Southern and Western Railway, whence they were transmitted to Dublin. During the detention of the cattle at Cork no fodder would be supplied by the local traders. They arrived at Dublin this morning in charge of Mr. Jones' agent, Mr. Brown, who took them to the Glasgow packet line. The cattle were immediately recognized and there was a general commotion among the drovers. Secretary Barry Mann, in the course of the day, was called upon by several dealers, who usually forwarded cattle by the company's boat. They stated that they would not send over their beasts by that line if Mr. Jones' cattle were allowed on board. Mr. Mann at once took a car to the city and consulted with some of the directors as to the course to be pursued. Meantime the man in charge of the yard received two threatening letters by the mid-day post. One of these letters warned him that his life would not be worth a day's purchase if he had anything to do with the cattle. The document was signed by "A Molly Maguire" who had followed the beasts from Cork. At four o'clock it was estimated that the cattle could not be sent by the steamer as there was no room for them. Other lines also refused on the same ground. The cattle remain in a Dublin yard under police protection. The Glasgow line's steamers sailed on last Wednesday night with 168 head of cattle. It can accommodate 350, showing that the company were intimidated. Mr. Brown will try again, and if unsuccessful will take them to Belfast. The Rev. Daniel Foley, parish priest of Tarbert, county Kerry, has also been "Boycotted" by his parishioners for three weeks. He can get no smith in Tarbert to shoe his horse, and has had to send his horse to Limerick. It appears that the smith was even warned at his peril not to do the like a second time. The people of the parish long since refused to give the usual halfpenny or penny on Sundays for seats in the chapel, and it is thought that he will not be paid his dues at Christmas. Father Foley has frequently denounced the league and persistently refused to join it. The executive of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ireland, at a special meeting in London, adopted a resolution to raise a fund for the purpose of providing means of protection for loyal men in remote districts.

JOSEPH HAYDOCK, of New York, having for a considerable time manufactured spurious imitations of "Holloway's Pills and Ointment," and largely circulated the same in the United States, South America, the West Indian Islands, Canada, and other parts, as the genuine Medicines of Thomas Holloway, of 533, Oxford Street, London, whose Agent he has falsely represented himself to be, a Perpetual Injunction was granted by the Supreme Court of New York, on the 8th of October, 1880, restraining the said Joseph Haydock from so using the name of Holloway in any way whatever to his prejudice. He was condemned in all costs of action, together with such damages as a reference may award. Holloway's Pills and Ointment are only manufactured at 533 Oxford Street, London. There is no agent for the sale of the same in any part of the United States.

I avail myself of the opportunity of recording my gratitude for the great and wonderful results produced by Giles' Liment Iodide Ammonia in removing a Ring-bone from a valuable horse without blemishing or removing the hair.—George N. Payne, 35 and 37 West 29th Street, N. Y. Giles' Pills cure Flatulency. Sold by W. R. Watson. Send for pamphlet. Dr. Giles, 120 West Broadway, N. Y. Trial size 25 cents.
