

Doctors now agree that consumption is curable.

Three things, if taken together, will cure nearly every case in the first stages; the majority of cases more advanced; and a few of those far advanced.

The first is, fresh air; the second, proper food; the third, Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil with hypophosphites.

To be cured, you must not lose in weight, and, if thin, you must gain. Nothing equals Scott's Emulsion to keep you in good flesh.

50c. and $1.00, all druggists.

For The Children

For Ambitious Boys.

A boy is something like a piece of iron, which in its rough state isn't worth much nor is it of very much use; but the more processes it is put through the more valuable it becomes. A bar of iron that is only worth $5 in natural state, is worth $12 when made into horse-shoes; and after it goes through the different processes by which it is made into needles, its value is increased to $50. Made into penknife blades it would be worth $3000 and into balance wheels for watches, $250,000. Just think of that, boys; a piece of iron that is comparatively worthless can be developed into such valuable material! But the iron has to go through a deal of hammering and beating, rolling and rolling, and pounding and polishing; and so if you are to become useful and educated men, you must go through a long course of studying and training. The more time you spend in hard study the better material you will make. The iron doesn't have to go through half as much to be made into horse-shoes as it does to be converted into delicate watch springs; but think how much less valuable it is! Which would you rather be, horse-shoe or watch spring? It depends on yourselves. You can become whichever you will. This is your time of preparation for manhood. Don't think that I would have you settle down to hard study all the time, and I should be very sorry for you to grow old before your time; but you have ample opportunity for study and play, too and I don't want you to neglect the former for the sake of the latter.—Ex.

A Polite Monkey.

The following incident seems to indicate that politeness, always invaluable in man, sometimes stands animals in good stead:

A brave, active, intelligent terrier, belonging to a lady friend one day discovered an organ grinder with his monkey seated upon the bank within the grounds, and at once made a dash for him. The monkey was attired in jacket and hat and awaited the onset in such undisturbed tranquility that the dog halted within a few feet of him to reconnoitre. Both animals took a long, steady stare at each other. The dog was evidently recovering from his surprise and about to make a spring for the intruder. At this critical juncture the monkey who had remained perfectly quiet hitherto, raised his paw and gracefully saluted by lifting his hat. The effect was magical. The dog's head and tail dropped and he sneaked off and entered the house, refusing to leave it till he was satisfied that his polite but mysterious guest had departed.

Nothing is more dangerous than a friend without discretion.

Historic Reigns.

William the first from Normandy came, William his son by an arrow was slain; Henry the first was a scholar bright, Stephen was king without any right, Henry the second Plantagenet's scion, Richard the first was brave as a lion, John though a tyrant, the charter signed.

Henry the third had a weakly mind, Edward the second was born Prince of Wales, Edward the third humbled France in its pride; Richard the second in prison died;

Unequal Eyes.

Do you see equally well with both eyes? If not, both may be defective. One certainly is. Have them properly examined.

We prescribe glasses only when absolutely necessary and guarantee satisfaction. Consultation free.

G. F. HUTCHESON, OPTICIAN AND JEWELER, Charlottetown.

Henry the fourth for himself took the crown, Henry the fifth pulled the French king down, Henry the sixth lost his father's gains Edward of York laid hold of the reins, Edward the fifth was killed with his brother, Richard the third soon made way for another, Henry the seventh was frugal of means, Henry the eighth had a great many queens, Edward the sixth, Reformation began, Cruel Queen Mary prevented the plan, Wise and profound were Elizabeth's aims, England and Scotland were joined by Fitz James, Charles I. found the people a cruel corrector, Oliver Cromwell was called Lord Protector, Charles the second was hid in an oak, James the second bore Popery's yoke, William and Mary were offered the throne, Then Anne succeeded and reigned all alone, George I. from Hanover came, George II. kept up the name, George III. was polite and grand, George IV., the Emancipation began, William IV., had no heir of his own, So Queen Victoria ascended the throne. I have the offer of lines on the same subject from J. H. W. (Cecil street, Toronto). I hope they are more musical.—Ed. of N. and Q.

To A Dear Little Grumbler.

O never give way to your fears my lad, And don't be too wise for your years, my lad; The Soul that is bright should live in the light, And your eyes are too pretty for tears, my lad.

Just think what a world it would be, my dear, If every kind face that we see, my dear, Should pout and should frown, go scowling about, And frown on poor you and poor me, my dear!

'Tis better to whistle and play, my lad, 'Tis better to laugh and be gay, my lad, For night comes too soon to go fretting at noon, While the sunlight is dancing away, my lad!

There's plenty of dust and alloy, my love, To mix with the gold of our joy, my love. But leave us our rights to that best of all sights— The sunny face of a boy, my love. —M. E. B.

Suffering caused by Piles

Is Quickly Ended when Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is applied

Besides the intense agony caused by the itching, burning sensations of piles, there are other symptoms which produce restlessness and at times excruciating pains known only to the victim of piles. What would one give to be free of this terrible disease? And yet there is a cure—a positive cure—which does not cost much and is not painful or difficult to apply. Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is, so far as is known, the only absolute cure for blind, itching, bleeding and protruding piles. It gives relief at the first application and affords a perfect cure in the most aggravated cases. Mr. Isaac Foster, Erieview, Ont., says: "I was troubled with itching piles for two years and could not sleep at night. I was half-crazed and tried everything. Finally seeing Dr. Chase's Ointment advertised I tried it and found it good. After a second application I found relief, and one large box cured me. Have never been bothered since, and I can recommend it to all suffering from the same trouble." Dr. Chase's Ointment is for sale by all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto
