ANNUAL MEETING OF THE Y. M. C. A.

The attendance at the annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last evening was not so large as it should have been, but considerable enthusiasm in the work was manifest. A determination on the part of the young men to take a more active interest in the institution was evident, and several of the officers for the past year declined to again act in order that the young men might be induced to share the responsibility of its management. The President, Percy Pope, Esq., in the course of an interesting report, reviewed the work of the past year and and explained the present condition of the institution. The financial statement for the past year shows the receipts and expenditure to be as follows:

The names of subscribers and a statement showing receipts and expenditures were ordered to be published.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—F. W. L. Moore.

Vice-Presidents—J. Pitblado, E. F. Messervey, E. Stewart, Hon. D. Laird, L. E. Prowse and Thos. May.

Executive Committee—Baptist: J. P. Gordon, R. H. Jenkins; Methodist: Lewis Haszard, Frank Hutcheson; Presbyterian: S. A. McDonald, Henry McFarlane; Anglican: W. J. Bulman, A. E. Hogg; Christian, Frank Beales.

The president elect, Captain Moore then delivered an address. Mr. Pope, the retiring president also spoke, and appropriate remarks were also made by J. Pitblado, S. C. Moore and J. D. Seaman. Regret was expressed that Mr. Pope had declined to allow himself to be put in nomination for president after nine years of faithful service.

Replying to a hearty vote of thanks tendered him, Mr. Pope said that in the future as in the past he would continue to do all in his power to further the interests of the association, and he hoped that all would join hands and work together with the same object in view.

A SAD OCCURRENCE.—Two families live in one house in the city near the Marsh bridge and in one of the families is a little girl. A fortnight or so ago the man of the other family came home in the evening and in a joking way entered the house with a mask on his face. He met the little girl, who was actually struck dumb with fright. Since the occurrence, it is reported, she has not spoken articulately and her reason appears to be unsettled. The matter is a very sad one indeed, as much for the one who was its innocent cause as for the little girl and her family. —St. John Telegraph.

UNION EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

TUESDAY EVENING.

In spite of the unpleasant weather a very gratifying congregation assembled in the First Methodist Church last night. Besides the evangelists there were on the platform the Revs. G. M. Campbell, G. W. Fisher, R. W. Weddall, D. H. Lodge, W. Kirby and Elder Stevenson. Mr. Crossley sang a solo, "Remembered," which was very much enjoyed.

Mr. Hunter opened the service with prayer especially for unsaved. After singing "I will tell it to Jesus my Lord," Rev. R. W. Weddall, B. A., of Summerside, engaged in prayer. Mr. Crossley sang a solo entitled, "Calvary," which was very excellent. This is Paul Rodney's favorite song. Mr. Hunter read and commented on I Thes. v-6. Many Christians are asleep. Sometimes a minister says something which reaches the heart and the church member wakes up and gets mad. It is a good sign when a person gets mad under the preaching, for that one is on the verge of conversion. Let the Lord do His own work in His own way. Some people are like those on that vessel which had been drifting amongst the icebergs for 13 years and the crew were found to be frozen and dead. Get out into the gulf stream. Some sinners fast asleep, God awaken them to-night. "Watch" against sin, temptation, idleness, for opportunities for doing good. Watch the tick of time, be sober, not drunken with pride, passion, deceit, or liquor, but let us wake up and not sleep as do others. Here are duties of a minister. 1. He must love his people. 2. Labor amongst them. 3 Admonish them, reprove them, and do his duty at all costs, leaving the consequences with God, and obey God. Jesus would never have been crucified had He tried to please the people. Here is also the duty of the people to their pastor. 1. Love him. 2. Revere him. 3. Esteem him. 4. Pray for him. 5. Support him, be kind to your preacher. Here are also the ten commandments of the new testament, viz., 1. Be at peace among yourselves. 2. Warn them that are unruly. 3. See that none render evil for evil. 4. Rejoice evermore. 5. Pray without ceasing. 6. In everything give thanks; 7. Quench not the Spirit. 8. Despise not prophesyings. 9. Prove all things. 10. Abstain from all appearance of evil. The address was very impressive and reached many a heart.

Mr. Crossley's sermon was on difficulties to faith, and dealt with Peter's coming to Cornelius, and gave a text from which a sermon was never preached, as many seemed so impressed that Peter turned it into a praise meeting. The text was found in Acts, x-43. The first hindrance, thinking it was difficult to believe. It will be difficult to believe while you think so. It is as easy to believe as turning the hand, even as an act of mind is easier than a physical act. Don't overlook the simplicity.

(2) A want of repentance. Some say godly sorrow is repentance, but the Bible says godly sorrow worketh repentance. Godly sorrow is a feeling; repentance is an act. Repentance is turning from sin to God. Turning you do repent. Think what sin is and what your Lord has done and you will repent.

(3) Wrong idea of what believing is. John 1-12. "To as many as received Him." In this the words receiving and believing are used synonymously. God cannot save without this condition of faith, receiving. You cannot have salvation till you are willing to receive it.

(4) Unwillingness to believe—another hindrance. "Believeth me" means "will not believe." Condemnation comes to those who will not believe—when we will to believe, God accepts. If any man wills to believe that Jesus Christ is the Saviour, and now saves, he shall be saved. Those who set their will against believing love darkness rather than light.

(5) Trying to believe is a formidable barrier. To say to a friend, I am trying to believe you, would be an awful insult. And to say, "I will try and believe God" is an insult to God. Believe God straight. Leave out of your vocabulary forever the insulting word "try."

(6) The greatest hindrance of all—a want of decision. Those who are in the valley of decision are very near to salvation. As many as were disposed to eternal life were saved, and those who are disposed and decided to believe soon enter into the enjoyment of divine life. You may have convictions, desires, and be trying to become Christians, but until you decide you will not be saved. O, to-night say, I will seek the Lord until I am saved. It will not be very long until you find Jesus is mighty to save. If you decide now, there is not enough power in hell to keep you from salvation. A hush of solemnity came over the audience as Mr. Crossley sang the most pathetic solo, closing with the words, "and enter it forever, the Golden Gate." The afternoon meeting was one long to be remembered, for many gave themselves to the Saviour.

LINKS OF GOLD FROM THE CHAIN OF DISCOURSE.

Temptation is not sin. I cannot help a flock of birds flying over my head, but I can prevent them sitting there.

The minister should rebuke, admonish and reprove his people, regardless of consequences. Leave consequences with God.

Christ would never have reached the cross if He had tried to please the people; but because He spoke the truth, they took Him to the cross and nailed Him there.

"Abstain from all appearance of evil." Has the theatre the appearance of evil? Was the dance, the cards, the bottle of liquor the appearance of evil? Then abstain from them.

Let us be more patient with our wives, our children, our servants. Get out of grumbling alley into thanksgiving avenue. If you have a house in grumbling alley, don't rent it, but burn it down.

O, that the pulpit would get on fire. When that time comes, the people will come to see it burn down.

The St. Andrew's correspondent of the St. John Telegraph writes: The Rev. A. Gunn, who has accepted a call to a church in Prince Edward Island, leaves with his family to-morrow morning for their new home. The many strong and sacred ties of friendship that have been formed by all denominations in St. Andrew's with Mr. Gunn and his estimable family will be severed with the deepest feelings of regret, and they will carry with them to their new home the best wishes of all.

IN ST. JOHN.—The chief of police at St. John has given orders to his men to arrest any young girls or boys found on the streets of that city after seven o'clock in the evening without their parents or guardians, and who cannot give satisfactory reasons for their absence from home. The Telegraph says the chief bases his authority on a statute which provides that suspicious persons, or women who are supposed to be about for immoral purposes, shall be arrested.

'Eudora' is the name of the new black dress fabric put upon the market by the Priestley's, whose famous dress goods are a household word all over the world. It is like their much esteemed Henrietta cloths; indeed, it has all their merits, and a few things which they lack. It is made in black only, it is a perfect dust shedder; has extra weight and width; and, fitting easily and draping gracefully it gives a distinction to the wearer which all of Priestley's goods confer. This is their excellence, which sets them apart from all other goods. Wrapped on "The Varnished Board" and Priestley's name stamped on every five yards. 3 6

As a result of the recent unsatisfactory reports regarding the health of his Holiness the Pope, speculation regarding his successor has been rife. Leo XIII. has occupied the pontifical chair since February 20, 1878, and his career has been a long and illustrious one. Among Roman Catholics everywhere his consistent and long-continued invocation of peace and good will among men will be remembered, and the affection and veneration which he has inspired will remain in the hearts of his people long after his death. In a despatch from Washington that appeared recently in some of the leading papers of the United States, the announcement was made that Monsignor Satolli, who is about to be made a cardinal, is not unlikely to be the successor of Pope Leo, and a variety of reasons in favor of his elevation to the chief place in the church is set forth. Monsignor Satolli stands high in the present Pope's favor, he is in sympathy with Leo's progressive policy, and his mission to this country has shown him to possess rare ability and uncommon diplomatic skill. As a cardinal he will, of course, be eligible to election as Pope."
