The marriage took place at Wilmar Heights United Church, Toronto, Ontario, of Emma Isabel Weatherbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Weatherbie, Millview, and Mr. Kenneth Docherty, son of Mrs. Alex Docherty and the late Mr. Docherty. Rev. Kersey officiated.

NEW GLASGOW W. I.

The October meeting of the New Glasgow Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. R. W. and Anna Stevenson. The president presided. Nine members answered roll call by passing in an article for a "grab bag," there were two visitors present. The music teacher committee reported engaging Mrs. Hall of Hunter River to teach music in the school. Discussion followed on ways and means of making money. Several suggestions were made and it was decided to send around a "travelling basket" again. Mrs. Ray Dickieson is to prepare and start the basket, and have it completed before the November meeting.

Sick and school committees gave their reports. Roll call for next month will be a get-well card or the money to buy one, also a verse or quotation on "Peace." New committees for next month are: sick, Mrs. Harold Dickieson and Mrs. Earl Houston; school, Mrs. George Dickieson and Mrs. C. S. Dingwell; lunch, Mrs. William Nicholson.

IDA BAILEY ALLEN

Slight Pause For Tea Time Is Found Most Refreshing

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN
"In this era of atom-splitting, supersonic speeds and space satellites, the custom of serving afternoon tea is a reminder of the leisurely time of the past, an opportunity to leave the Madison Avenue pace and traffic, to enjoy a friendly chat, or perhaps relax alone over a hot cup of tea."

WHILE STIRRING TEA
Jim McTigue, General Manager of the New Weston, stirred his tea reflectively and gazed at the well-peopled room.
"Evidently other persons feel the same way," he continued "for every week day from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. we entertain dozens of guests. Yet this room never seems crowded and the service is never rushed!"
I relaxed to such an extent that I forgot to take notes!

OTHER THOUGHTS
Who could think of business in an atmosphere reminiscent of an old English drawing room with oriental rugs, lounge chairs, paintings and soft candlelight reflecting the formal tea table in a giant mirror.

There was a lace cloth over creamy silk, silver tea service, flowers, assorted thin, thin, thin tea sandwiches; petits fours; half slices of pound cake and exquisite tea, all charmingly served by Mrs. Clara Pushee, hostess at the Hotel New Weston where afternoon tea is a gracious interlude.

TOMORROW'S BAKED DINNER
Tomato Juice Piquante
Crumbed Fish Fillets Nouveau
Potatoes Rissole
Creamed Spinach
Pickled Beets-on-Lettuce

On 5" by 9" loaf pan; line with waxed paper. Spoon in cake batter.
Bake 1 1/2 to 2 hrs. in slow oven, 225 degrees F., or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean.
Poundcake should not be iced, is thin sliced and cut in half slices or fingerlengths.
Baking powder is not used; consequently cake is fine-grained in texture.

THE CHEF'S CRUMBED FISH NOUVEAU

Today I tell the world of a new trick in eggling and crumbing fish, that imparts a taste elegant to fish fillets of all kinds.
For 1 1/2 lbs. fish fillets beat 1 large egg; add 2 tbsp. milk, 1/2 tsp. instant garlic or onion, 1 tsp. parsley flakes, 1 tsp. each salt and monosodium glutamate, 4 drops Tabasco and 1-3 tsp. Worcestershire sauce.
Let stand 5 min.
Brush over fish. Dust with unseasoned bread or cornflake crumbs.
Let stand 10 min. more to set crumbs so covering will not break while cooking.
Saute 8 to 12 min. according to thickness, in enough corn oil to barely cover bottom of pan.
