

MR. AND MRS. IAN R. CAMPBELL

Campbell-Acorn Marriage Performed At Murray R.

Murray River United Church was the scene of an August wedding when Julia Jane, daughter of Amos Acorn, and the late Mrs. Acorn, Murray River, became the bride of Ian Richard Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Campbell, Montague. The double ring ceremony was conducted by Rev. Ewen E. MacDougall, assisted by Rev. Herbert Chapman. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Edwin Linklater, Mrs. Carl Currie accompanied Mrs. Linklater as she sang "The Wedding Prayer". During the signing of the register, Mrs. Ronald Livingstone sang "O Perfect Love". A Bible was presented to the bride and groom by Rev. Ewen E. MacDougall. Baskets of summer flowers decorated the church and guests were marked with white satin bows and lilies of the valley. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Earl, was wearing a full length sheath gown, Empire styled, of white peau de soie with seed pearl trim. Her long, detachable train fell from a cape arrangement. A cluster of fabric petals trimmed with seed pearls, held her elbow length of tulle illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The mistress of honor was Mrs. Barry Stewart, and Mrs. John Whiteway and Mrs. Richard Cockern, nieces of the bride, were also attendants. Their floor length gowns were Empire style, with bodices of white lace, and A-line skirts of aqua sparkle crepe. Their head-resses were held by matching bows of sparkle crepe, and their bouquets were of white shasta daisies. The flower girl Rosie Jane Rafuse, the bride's niece was in a long white tulle dress with aqua trim, and a headdress of matching net caught by fabric bows. She carried a bouquet of red roses. The groomsmen were his brother, Wayne Campbell, and Alfred Acorn, the bride's brother, and Kenneth Campbell, brother of the groom were ushers. Alan Campbell was ring-bearer. Following the ceremony, a reception for 112 guests was held in the United Church Hall, Murray River, at which Charles Rafuse was master of ceremonies. Rev. A. Carl Currie led the blessing, and Ronald Butler proposed the toast to the bride, Margaret Acorn, a niece of I.

Canada Providing Vaccine For Children In Saigon

Canada is providing $1,000,000 in medical aid to South Viet Nam this year. A Canadian Press reporter in Saigon tells about the delivery of a gift of 500,000 doses of oral polio vaccine.

By DOUGLAS AMARON SAIGON (CP)—Before the end of September, 250,000 Saigon children of pre-school age will have received their first doses of oral vaccine provided by Canada as part of a program to control polio in South Viet Nam.

We can use another 250,000 to 300,000 doses and hope Canada will provide them," said Dr. S. F. Farmalan, regional director of the World Health Organization, which works closely with the Vietnamese government in the field of preventive medicine.

The Canadian government's gift of 500,000 doses—two for each child—of what is called trivalent oral Sabin vaccine—arrived here in August. Help of United States authorities was enlisted to arrange storage since the vaccine must be kept refrigerated.

A one-week blitz to give children their first doses was organized for the period immediately after the Sept. 11 election. The normal health clinics, maternity services and similar agencies were not enough to cope with such a major program, and special clinics were opened, manned by senior school students, nursing students and other helpers.

Polio is not a major disease here in relation to others but it has been increasing in the last four or five years. During the last year about 1,700 cases were reported in Saigon but there may have been others unreported since symptoms are relatively light and paralysis sometimes is delayed from one to four years.

"Polio prevention hasn't priority in the health program, where first attention must be given to cholera, sanitation and nutrition, but preventive action must be taken and that is why aid from outside countries such as Canada is welcome," Dr. Farmalan said.

There are about 600,000 children in refugee-swollen Saigon but some already have been vaccinated. In addition to the children of six months to six years aided by Canada, more than 80,000 school-age children were vaccinated in Saigon in the first six months of this year.

Presentation of Canada's gift, part of a medical aid program to South Viet Nam that will cost the Canadian government more than $1,000,000 this year, was made at a formal ceremony in the new health ministry building.

Soviet Women Are Protesting Unequal Status

MOSCOW (AP)—Disgruntled Soviet housewives want pensions, extra days off, less taxes and more dignity. "A housewife has only duties and no rights," a former school-teacher was quoted as saying by the government newspaper Izvestia.

"Even maids have trade unions, paid vacations, sick leave, but what about the housewives?" Izvestia asked, noting that working women—but not housewives—have organizations to look after their welfare. In a letter to Izvestia, one woman proposed that women who are unable to accumulate the full 20 years on the job necessary to qualify for a pension, be given credit for time spent at home raising a family.

That way a woman who worked only 15 years at a job, then quit because of illness or family problems and spent a number of years raising a family, could still qualify for a pension, the housewife wrote. Other letter writers called for a shorter working day at outside jobs and an extra day off a "family day" at least twice a month.

Most laborers work a six-day, 41-hour week. Soviet authorities are experimenting with changing to a five-day week but keeping it at 41 hours. One woman proposed that the Soviet Union's tax on childless couples not be applied for at least nine months or a year after the wedding.

"This is right," Izvestia comments. "Why should we impose the childless-couple tax on a woman if it has been only a month since she was married?" Plumping for more dignity.

Potluck Supper Will Be Held By UCU Group

"Trinidad culture" was the topic of a very interesting program presented by Mrs. Fred Leard at the September meeting of Alberton UCU. Worship was based on the twenty-third psalm and included reading of the Psalm, a meditation, prayer and the singing of "The King of Love" and "The Lord is My Shepherd". It was led by Mrs. A. C. Green with Mrs. Herman Dymant as pianist. Mrs. W.

Miss Annie Hagan of Liverpool, Nova Scotia, spent a pleasant holiday in Baltic, the guest of Mrs. W.H. Burns. Mrs. Lois Brown recently accompanied her daughter Heather on a trip to St. John, N.B. Her many friends in this area will be pleased to learn Mrs. Arnold Douglas is recovering in Prince County Hospital from her recent car accident. Her daughter, Mrs. Albany Palmer and Mr. Palmer of St. John, N.B. arrived to spend a few days with her.

Valentina Litvinova of Murchison wrote: "I received my (internal) passport and in the space where it asks 'social status' they had written 'dependent'. It sounds almost like 'parasite'." "It would be better if they called me a 'home worker'. That would still imply an element of work."
