Asiatic Turkey.

The London correspondent of the "Scotsman" writes: "I understand that one of the Continental Governments has just received circular reports from various parts of Asiatic Turkey, and that the tenor of all of them is identical. They all agree that the authority of the Central Government is rapidly declining, that the condition of affairs threatens to become purely anarchical, that corruption among the ruling class is more prevalent than ever, and that the early dissolution of what remains of the Ottoman Empire is inevitable. Even if the desire for reforms of a very comprehensive character existed at Constantinople, which nobody believes, the power to carry out such a policy is passing from the hands of the Sultan and his advisers, who are shilly-shallying with the question in the hope that England will find them money. It is the belief of some of the best informed persons in Turkey that Russian influence with the Porte is now reviving, and that by means of the indemnity which the Turks have engaged themselves to pay to Russia, the Czar will be able at any time to do much to shape the councils of the Sultan. The Armenians in the first instance were sanguine enough to believe that the Anglo-Turkish Convention would secure them a better form of Government, but having discovered that it is a sham, and that its promises of reform were never intended to be realized, they are determined to fight for autonomy, and to make common cause with their Mussulman neighbours.

Woman's Love for the Beautiful.

[From the Virginia City (Nev.) Chronicle.]
A woman went into a barber's shop on C-street some weeks ago and wanted to know how much it would cost to dye a man's hair and moustache. The price was named, and she then asked the barber to get his dye and follow her.
"Why can't the man come here?" asked the barber.
"He's dead," replied the woman, "and the last thing he said when he was passing away was, 'Sally, fix me up pretty for the funeral.' His hair curled beautifully, but was a little gray. It won't look well to see a woman crying round a coffin with an old, gray-bearded man it. So I want him fixed up a little. He was always a beauty when he had his hair dyed. I know I'd want mine fixed that way if I was gray and dead."
The barber dyed the dead man's hair in the highest style of the art, and the widow remarked, when all was over, that "he was the loveliest man ever buried on the Comstock."

THE old custom of giving riddles still survives. Here are two lines from Mr. Aubertin's translation of Camoens which will surely serve a turn:—
"Better to realize, than theorize,
But theorize, who cannot realize."
For ourselves we give it up.—Mail.

THE Sultan has, through Osman Pasha, expressed to Sir H. Layard his satisfaction with the conduct of the officers and men of Admiral Hornby's fleet, whose "kind feelings both towards himself and towards Turkey" he much appreciates.

PRINCE BISMARCK'S dog struck up quite a friendship with the Papal Nuncio, Mgr. Masella, whom he followed everywhere, fawning on him and licking his hands. "Your dog seems to have taken a fancy to me," said the Nuncio one day. "He is not the only member of the family that has," said the Prince courteously.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.

The "Telegrams" London despatch to-day says the stock exchange is much calmer since the bank directors, at their regular weekly meeting to-day, decided not to increase the rate of discount.

The panic on Egyptian stock is almost over. The arrangements that Potter, Wilson & Co., proposes to make with their creditors are favorably spoken of.

American and French Government securities are still in steady demand.

A special from Manchester says a steady run set in upon the Queen's Building Society of that city, considered one of the wealthiest building associations in Lancashire. The rumor spread that it was involved in the failure of the Glasgow Bank, so far the officials has not denied the allegation, and this leads many suppose there is truth in it.

A Glasgow special to-day says dissatisfaction exists because no statement of affairs of the defunct Glasgow Bank has yet been published. The press of Glasgow insist that a statement should be made forthwith. Some of the stockholders are threatening the Bank with judicial bankruptcy.

LONDON, Oct. 17.

The "Globe" states that a private telegram from trustworthy source at Simla says an advance on Candahar may be expected almost immediately. Little resistance is anticipated this side of Candahar.

BERLIN, Oct. 17.

The Socialists declare that, as after the passage of the Anti-Socialist bill they will infest the meetings of other parties, so as to cause them to be dissolved.

VIENNA, Oct. 17.

Andrassy's reply to the Porte's circular is published. It is a refutation of the charges of cruelty against the Austrian Army of Occupation in Bosnia, and compares the present occupation with Osman Pasha's invasion in 1852. The tone of the letter is generally moderate, but concludes with a strong repudiation of what it styles the odious calumnies against its army. It also states that Count Zicy, the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador at Constantinople, has been directed to notify the Porte of the bad effect which the charges did not fail to produce in Austria and Hungary.

LONDON, Oct. 17.

The Echo says a subpoena has been issued from the Mansion House Court for the books of the Colonial Trusts Corporation, which defaulted in its debenture interest, at the suit entered against Viscount Bury and other directors of the company. Viscount Bury is Under Secretary at War.

A telegram from Buenos Ayres says a terrible hurricane on the River Plate caused inundation and considerable damage.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.

The Orangemen have been acquitted on the charge of forming an illegal assembly on the 12th July last. Judge Ramsay charged the jury to acquit, on the ground that assembling in their lodge room was not illegal.

LONDON, Oct. 17.

It is reported that England, Italy, and France informed the Belgrade Government they would not recognize Servian independence until the civil and political equality of the Jews is proclaimed.

It is believed the Rothschilds have agreed with Rivers Wilson, the Egyptian Finance Minister, to loan Egypt £30,000,000 to clear off her floating debt.

A telegraph despatch states that the Ameer's reply has been received and is unsatisfactory.

Ashton Cross, Home Secretary, in his speech at South Port to-day, defended the Government's past policy and said the Government would never cease until they achieved England's great civilizing mission in the East. In regard to Afghanistan he said the Government had no desire to extend the boundaries of the empire in that direction, and Ameer's answer might be satisfactory, and no more be heard of the matter; but the Government felt that in that part of Asia there must be no doubt of England's supremacy.

LONDON, Oct. 17.

The Eastern Roumelian Commission, at the suggestion of the English Commissioner, have appointed a commission to reorganize the finances of the Province.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 17.

The Sultan has informed Minister Layard that he has written to the Ameer of Afghanistan calling upon him to come to an amicable arrangement with England. The Sultan has renewed his assurances of the reception of the British scheme reforms in Asia Minor.

VIENNA, Oct. 17.

A Political Correspondence despatch from Constantinople declares that the statement that Saffet Pasha has threatened to forcibly resist the Austrian occupation of Novi Bazar, is unfounded.

ROME, Oct. 17.

Reports of Ministerial resignations are extensively circulated, especially with regard to Ministers of War and Marine. Capitale denies the truth of reports that underdog negotiations between Germany and the Vatican will not be resumed until the socialist bill is passed.
