

Harbor project to be launched

five-year harbor development at Gros Cacuna, Que., has been awarded to the North Shore Construction Limited of Montreal, the federal works department said today.

OTTAWA (CP) — A $3,865,000 contract for the first phase of a renovate River located 128 miles below Quebec City. Harbor development at Gros Cacuna will cost $7,000,000 when completed. Aim of the project is a protected deep water, comparatively ice-free harbor where shipments from south shore communities can be made to world markets.

Toyland has launched variety of surprises

Toyland, 1964, will launch a record variety of surprises planned to amaze, enchant and instruct youngsters and give them a chance to participate in today's headlines.

Santa's newest pack is the most topical ever and, at the same time, gives more attention to replays of history, and creative hobbies than ever before, reports Mel Freud, president of the Council for Toy Evaluation.

Nostalgic adults, too, can find old favorites like top-s rocking horses, blocks, and doll houses streamlined in design and using new materials.

Truck Is Specialized Fascinating to future historians as well as today's children, will be the operating reproductions of the latest facets in trucking.

Most specialized is a miniature kenneled truck of heavy gauge steel with a vista dome to permit plenty of sunlight for the pooches on the way to show. Kennels remove for extra play value. The young rancher's trailers for horses and cattle, incorporate most advanced details of luxury transport.

New remote control sports cars not only have complete mobility but also boast upholstered bucket seats.

Most novel of the headline-oriented toy kits is a set that illustrates the bad effects of smoking on the lungs and miniature U2 that takes reconnaissance photos.

Show Defense Features The celebration of the 20th anniversary of D Day may be responsible for a record variety of military-flavored toys evident in 1964 toylands. Miss 11 launchers and search light trucks of heavy gauge steel have the latest features of US defense equipment.

The junior army engineer will lay his airports and super-highway complexes with bulldozers, sand hoppers, and sand loaders that operate with fascinating realism.

Most versatile novelty in the military sector is a one man army which incorporates seven different types of weapons ranging from anti-tank rocket to a repeating rifle. For Communists play is a micro helmet and phone set that will permit junior GIs to communicate up to a mile away.

New, too, is an impressively real looking pillowbox of fiber-board, more than three feet high, which two kids can crawl into conveniently. This pillowbox folds flat for storage.

New thrills include an attachment for bicycles that achieves the noise of a motor and speed is stepped up.

Auto racing continues to offer new additions, designed to sharpen competitive thrills. Speeds set the pace of switch lane action. In one of the new sets, a slot lock system permits cars to spin and slide without jumping the track.

Corsage popular as holiday gift

Charming new arrangements, in fresh, bright colors, delectable up and over the bare shoulder natural scent make Christmas corsages ideal holiday gifts.

With all the festivities coming up, any girl would welcome a beautiful corsage to pin on her best dress, wear on her wrist or in countless other attractive ways, say Florist Telegraph Delivery designers.

One unusual fresh-flower idea for formal holiday parties, the nation.

IT'S A wonderful Christmas morning when Dad gets loads of shirts, socks and other wearing apparel.

F. EVERETT CAMERON APPLIANCE STORE Summerside

For Santa's helpers who want their Christmas gifts to be lit- erally, a shining success, lamp stores and departments shed light on the subject of Yuletide gifting.

Lamp categories to choose from include table, floor, desk, pole and wall. There's a lamp for every taste and need.

Table lamps come in a variety of sizes and styles to suit every room in the home. They are decorative as well as useful, with bases and shades to provide individual tastes.

Where more general room lighting is needed, a floor lamp might be the gift answer. Pole lamps, too, provide plenty of illumination, along with styling that is particularly right for contemporary decor.

Trap lamps, a newly popular group, are really double gifts since they provide a table sur- face of sizes and styles to suit every room in the home. They are decorative as well as use- ful, with bases and shades to provide individual tastes.

Wall lamps save space and can be used, attractively, al- most anywhere—over tables, mirrors, for instance.
