Mr. JOHN A. FORD arrived home last evening. Rev. RALPH BRECKEN is visiting his parents and friends in the city. LADIES' SATCHELS, cheapest in the world, all kinds at the Diamond Bookstore. A FINE SUPPLY of Family Bibles and Prayers Books at the Diamond Bookstore. The Diamond Bookstore is being daily supplied with new goods, choicest and cheapest in the city. A CHILDREN'S service and sermon will be held to-morrow at 11 o'clock a. m., in St. James' Church. The schooner R Godfrey, from Philadelphia with 250 tons of hard coal for Thomas Casley, arrived this forenoon. The Kensington races are filling well, and a good days' sport is expected. Island Chief is now at the park fitting for the contest. The letter of "Citizen," on City Taxation, etc., unavoidably crowded out of to-day's issue, will appear on Monday. REMEMBER the Furniture Sale, next Monday, June 29th, at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. MacMillan, Hillsboro' Park.—A. McNeill, Auctioneer. The bark Western Belle, Mr. A. McWilliams, West Cape, P. E. Island, which was abandoned at sea while on a voyage from Sydney, N. S. W., for Wilmington, Cal., was coal laden. The vessel was insured for $16,000 and the freight for $4,000. There were more passengers yesterday in the "Oswell Boat"—the new Heather Belle—than we have seen for many seasons. This, we presume, is partly due to the fact that the south-eastern sections prefer driving to Brush Wharf and taking the boat to the city, returning at very cheap rates. DEATH FROM NITRIC ACID.—William Stirling, the man who attempted to commit suicide a week ago by swallowing nitric acid, died last evening at 8 o'clock in the general public hospital. The acid had completely destroyed the coating of the stomach. Stirling belonged to Nova Scotia, and had a brother at Charlottetown.—Telegraph. The prisoner Gillis, arrested for robbery at York Station, was examined before Alex. Hayden, Esq., J. P., to-day, and remanded to jail for eight days. He will probably be examined before the Grand Jury when it meets at the June Term of the Supreme Court on Tuesday next. Every person who wants a choice summer drink should go to B. Balderston: Lemon Syrup, Raspberry Syrup, Pineapple Syrup, Strawberry Syrup. Special Syrups for Soda Water Fountains made to order: Home made and imported Caudies of the very finest quality: Picnics and Tea Parties supplied at reasonable rates.—B. Balderston, Queen Street. [ju272aw wky 3w pat THE I. O. G. T. second Moonlight Excursion on board the steamer Princess of Wales last evening was a successful and enjoyable affair. The steamer left the wharf shortly after 8 o'clock, and returned at 11, while the launch Lansdowne ran too and fro on the river displaying fire works. The Band of the 82nd Battalion also had a pleasant excursion on board the tug Frank C. Batt. As both excursions left about the same time, the wharves presented an animated appearance. THERE is a curious diversity of taste among smokers as to the kind of pipe they prefer. Some like like the clay pipe best, others prefer the briar root, others again the meerschaum, some must have the pipe well seasoned before they can enjoy it, others again must have a new pipe and throw it away when it gets a little old. But though this diversity of taste among them is curious it is not at all curious that there is substantial unanimity among them that the "Myrtle Navy" brand of Messrs. Tuckett & Son is the genuine article. It is high time that something were done towards repairing the sidewalks on Queen Street. The sidewalk near Bruce's is particularly dangerous to life and limb. A gentleman passing there this afternoon tripped over a projecting plank and narrowly escaped serious injury. There appears to be no earthly use calling the attention of either the Street Committee or City Surveyor to a matter of this kind. The hot weather is evidently too much for these gentlemen, and we suggest the propriety of trying the watering cart as a reviver. A CASE of manslaughter occurred in Ottawa on the evening of the 24th inst. A returned Nile voyageur, named John Elliott, got on a spree, and went, while intoxicated, to the stand of an Italian peasant vendor named Francis Pinette, and quarrelled with the Italian over the price. Whether he struck the Italian or not is now unknown, but the latter was seen to rush into his shop and return with a hickory stick. This weapon he used upon Elliott, and the latter sustained a blow which terminated fatally. Pinette has been arrested. The Nile voyageurs who were leaving Ottawa remain over to give their comrade a public funeral. THE visit of Henry O'Meara, of the Boston Journal, says the Halifax Herald, recalls the fact that there are a number of bluesoes on the staff of Boston papers. On the Journal there are three P. E. Islanders—Stephen O'Meara, news editor; and his brother Henry, is editor of the Weekly Journal and on the reporter staff of the Daily; and F. W. Webber, business manager. Henry O'Meara was a classmate of Archbishop O'Brien at St. Dunstan's College. C. B. Sellen, shipping editor of the Boston Advertiser, is a Cape Bretonian. Young Warren, of the reporter staff of the Daily Record, was formerly on the Halifax Chronicle. W. F. Murray, leading political reporter of the Boston Globe, was formerly on the staff of the Halifax Herald. Young Watmore went to the Boston Herald from the St. John Telegraph, and James J. Roche, associate to John Boyle O'Reilly on the Boston Pilot, is a P. E. Islander. TRUCKS AND VALISES.—Another lot. Good assortment. Will be sold cheap at J. B. Macdonald's. jul8 dy wky

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.] The Fishery Question. OTTAWA, June 27. In the House of Commons, yesterday, Mr. L. H. Davies attacked the Government for their delay in giving attention to the fisheries of Canada. Hon. Peter Mitchell followed Mr. Davies. He was quite willing to leave the matter in the hands of the Government. These were delicate negotiations. Our neighbors across the border were sensitive on the fishery question. He wanted no money compensation, and believed in reciprocal trade relations. He was quite willing to give six months of our most valuable fisheries if good results could be obtained. If nothing came out of the proposal then he hoped the Government would take means to protect our fisheries. Sir John Macdonald said the final acceptance of the proposed arrangement only took place on the 22nd of the present month. He pointed out that the Senate of the United States was Republican while the House of Representatives was Democratic, and it required both Houses to give effect to the arrangement. The discussion then dropped. European Political Notes. LONDON, June 27. Negotiations between England and Spain for a treaty of commerce, are about to be re-opened. Sir Henry Drummond Wolf is instructed to report on the state of the administration and the condition of Egypt. The Marquis of Salisbury, in an interview with Mr. Waddington, explained that the mission is intended to facilitate the settlement of the Egyptian question, and that he would be unable, without the report, independent of papers left by the late Government, to state the course of the Conservative policy. A Catholic Manifesto. VIENNA, June 27. The Catholic Bishops of Austria have issued a manifesto to the faithful, warning them against increasing skepticism, secret societies and influence of the anti-religious press, which are undermining the Church. The Bishops have followed the manifesto with a memorial, asking the Government to legislate with a view of protecting the Church from adverse influence. The Flagship Coming. HALIFAX, June 27. The Flagship Northampton, Admiral Commerell, sailed yesterday from this port en route to Charlottetown, Dalhousie, and Quebec. Admiral Commerell has been appointed one of the Sea Lords of the Admiralty by the New Ministry. The Jew Peer. LONDON, June 27. The Jewish Chronicle says that the elevation of Sir Nathaniel de Rothschild to the Peerage sheds lustre on the entire Jewish community, and the creation of the first Jewish Peer is one of the last significant acts of Mr. Gladstone. Ontario Local Elections. OTTAWA, June 27. The local elections in Ontario yesterday resulted in the return of Hawley, (Grit) for Lennox by fifteen of a majority, and Drury, (Grit) for South Simcoe, by one hundred of a majority. The Quarantine Officer. OTTAWA, June 27. Dr. Hobkirk, Quarantine Officer, has been appointed a Justice of the Peace in the limits of his quarantine station. The Troops Returning. WINNIPEG, June 26. THURSDAY, June 26. Joseph H. Webster vs. Newton McArthur and Robert McArthur.—This was an action of trespass and was before the court from Friday last until last night, when a verdict was found for the Plaintiff—damages $100. The main point in dispute was the position of the southern side line of the Plaintiff's farm, on Lot 19. M. McLeod, Q. C., and Mr. D. C. McLeod for the Plaintiff, and Morson and McQuarrie for the Defendants. Bank of P. E. I. vs. Taylor.—This is an action of ejectment to recover possession of 20 acres of land at Dunk River. The case commenced this morning and at six o'clock this evening the Plaintiff's side was not closed. Mr. Hodgson, Q. C., and Mr. McLeod, Q. C., for the defendants. The court to-day discharged the petit jurymen except those engaged in above case, and informed the counsel that all remaining cases on the docket should stand over until October.

Arthur W. Greehan Dead. A GENTLEMAN WHOSE KINDLY ACTS MADE HIM HOSTS OF FRIENDS. (Morning Journal, June 24.) Arthur W. Greehan, of the business department of the Morning Journal, died yesterday morning of Bright's disease of the kidneys. Mr. Greehan was born of Irish parents in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, thirty-three years ago, and was graduated from the normal school in his native town when little more than a boy. He became attached to the Charlottetown Herald as a reporter and soon was raised to the city editorship. Being of an energetic and ambitious nature he struck out for the United States, and secured employment on the Golden Rule, then edited by Adirondack Murray. He also reported for several of the Boston dailies, and then went out to the Black Hills, where he "roughed it" during the gold excitement. Returning to civilization he located at Buffalo and "melted" all his money in running a weekly paper. He afterwards worked on the Albany papers. His next move was to Jersey City, where, after working as a clerk for the Standard Oil Company, he started the Eagle, which had a brief but warlike and successful career. About three years ago he came to this city and after working on several papers he secured a responsible position in the Morning Journal office, becoming one of the most successful men in the business in which he embarked. Mr. Greehan was a man of fair intelligence, manly, courteous, generous and popular, yet unassuming. He was an untiring worker, thoroughly conscientious in all his dealings, and incapable of doing an injustice to any one. He enjoyed the esteem and confidence of many of the most prominent business men in this city, with whom his position brought him into daily contact and who were pained at the news of his death. He had a very large circle of friends in this and surrounding cities.
