This bursary is awarded annually by the PEI UPSE to: (1) its members or (2) dependants of members or retired members. The UPSE Public Relations Committee will base its decision on three factors of importance which are as follows: (1) financial need, (2) academic ability, and (3) UPSE involvement as a member or by the member of whom the applicant is a dependant. Please note that when applications are reviewed, it will be done in a blind test procedure whereby Committee members will not be aware of the applicant's name.

"MY DEGREE

IS A SOURCE OF PRIDE.

MY DIPLOMA FROM ITI

IS A SOURCE OF INCOME."

Will Booth holds a B.A. from Acadia University and a diploma from ITI. Will now works for Information Systems Management Corp., an IBM company.

You've got a university degree. But you know you could be doing so much more with it than you are right now. You'd like a challenging, well-paying job with a future. If this sounds familiar... you owe it to yourself to look into ITI.

Information Technology Institute - or ITI - offers a unique 11-month program that takes university grads from a broad range of backgrounds and gives them the information technology training that today's companies are looking for.

It's a proven program. Find out more about it today.
