Local and Other Items

--St. Peter's Day School will reopen on Thursday, January 3rd.
 --After breaking the ice a short distance the Staaley this morning returned to her wharf at Summerside.
 --Presbyterian watchnight service in St James' Church on Monday evening. Service begins at 10.30 p. m. The two city congregations unite in the service.
 --The Archibald Co. Ltd., of Truro, N. S., have forwarded us a very neat and useful calendar for 1901. The figures for the different months are large, and there is a cut of the business premises of the firm at the top.
 --We copy the following from a London paper: "Lieutenant Arthur Southey, who was killed at Tiger's Kloof on Nov. 23rd, belonged to the 2nd. Scotts Guards. He entered the army as Second Lieutenant in April 1892, and reached his present rank in May 1897. He was a son of the late Colonel William Southey, nephew of the poet Southey." Deceased was a nephew of Mrs. Theo. DesBrisay of Spring Park in this city.
 --The Minto arrived from Pictou this forenoon at 11.15, bringing number of passengers and the following cargo: 1 car paper, 1 car wooden ware, 1 car agricultural implements, 315 barrels flour, 58 p. a. k. g. s. liquors, 400 boxes and ingots tin, 30 pigs lead, 900 packages sundries--in all about eleven cars. The Minto will leave for Pictou to-morrow morning at seven o'clock, and will return on Tuesday forenoon.
 An exchange declares that the Intercolonial Railway "is now one of the worst managed railways in the world." Cause, partyism in control.
 Read the programme for the grand military concert in the Opera House on Friday evening next. It is a splendid one.
 See our Island boys as they lived in Africa at the Opera House on Friday evening.

 The mother who would be horrified at the thought of letting her daughter wander away to a strange country without guide or counsel, yet permits her to enter that unknown land of womanhood without counsel or caution. Then, in utter ignorance, the maiden must meet physical problems whose solution will affect her whole future life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been well named a "God-send to women." It corrects irregularities and imparts such vigorous vitality to the delicate womanly organs, as fits them for their important functions. Many a nervous, hysterical, peevish girl has been changed to a happy young woman after the use of "Favorite Prescription" has established the sound health of the organs peculiarly feminine.
 You pay the postage. Dr. Pierce gives you the book. The people's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to defray cost of mailing and customs. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the paper bound book, or 50 stamps for cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
