

This week The Cadre asked: "What did you do to raise money to pay for tuition?"

"I worked at Watts Communications. It was horrible. Sometimes I cry."
Mitchell Melanson - 1st Year Arts

"I worked selling underwear to 84 year-old women."
Megan McKinnon - 3rd Year Nutrition

"Hmmm. I haven't really thought about that yet."
Matt Campbell - 1st Year Economics/Political Studies

"Worked the corner under the name 'Queen Street Queen.'
Ellen Klein - 3rd Year Psychology

"Pay? I thought this was free. That explains all the hate mail from the accounting office."
Bryce Elsley - 1st Year Business

"I sold my soul to the devil. And he sent me here. Cheapskate."
Alanna MacDonald - 2nd Year Science