A prosperous year.—Under the caption "Ireland in 1893," the London Times says that the year was one of the most peaceful and prosperous of the century. Since 1826 there has been no letter agricultural seasons, and the people have been free from distress. True, the total cultivated area decreased by 5,265 acres devoted to cereals and 11,236 acres devoted to green crops, yet the drought has not been so severely felt in Ireland as in England. The result was that the harvest was saved in good condition. The earlier intake will meet the requirements of the deficiency in acreage. The abundant crop of sound potatoes has quieted and encouraged the peasantry, who are heartily tired of agitation. The Times adds that there are many signs of the material and moral bettering of the people.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

DANCING.

Sir,—I wish to make a few remarks to the conductor of McKay's discourse in Zion Church last evening. It appears to me that that gentleman might as well stay at home as to come here and ask intelligent people to be influenced by some of his utterances on that occasion.

Mr. McKay violently assails dancing as being of the devil, that is, as one of the means his Satanic Majesty uses to foster his diabolical schemes. In this he only shows that bigoted spirit of intolerance which so animated his forefathers at a time before old-time fire and brimstone orthodoxy gave place to the more enlightened forms of religion which we now enjoy. If Mr. McKay does not enjoy dancing and thinks it would not conduce to his happiness, he is not obliged to practice it, but surely this is no reason why he should seek to deprive other intelligent and moral people from participating in an innocent and healthful amusement. If this gentleman labors under the delusion that immoral actions and thoughts must necessarily be associated with the art which is indulged in by some of the most intelligent and best people in our land, the evil only exists in his imagination, for which we must not make dancing responsible.

It is high time that McKay discovered that this kind of talk is antiquated, away behind the age, and that he should make himself better acquainted with the spirit of the nineteenth century before presuming to address an intelligent audience on matters of everyday life.

Yours, Who Was Present.

The World's Columbian Exposition.

The whole civilized world has been interested in the Great Celebration. The crowned heads of Europe, the governments of all the famous nations of the world, the islands of the Orient and the islands of the sea have all been co-operating to render the Exhibition worthy of the greatest event of modern times. Its magnitude and splendor are such as can only be described by saying that it has comprised all the rarest products of land and sea, the most dazzling wonders of nature and the greatest prodigions of human genius.

2. The Great Fair which celebrates the discovery of America by Columbus has never been equaled. It was larger and more magnificent than any similar exhibition ever held, over twenty millions of people participated in its grand spectacles, buildings, and the result was the most attractive exhibition the world ever saw.

3. This gorgeous display is vividly portrayed in our PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION, his captivating illustrations, brilliant panorama of the Great Fair which has awakened such a world-wide interest.

This wonderful work is a royal octavo volume of over 800 large double-column pages, 10 inches long by 7 inches wide, it contains nearly twice the amount of matter in an ordinary quarto book, and is therefore equal to a large volume of 1600 pages.

It contains a complete history of the World-renowned Exposition at Chicago; captivating descriptions of the magnificent buildings and marvellous Exhibits, such as Works of Art, Textile Fabrics, Minerals, National Products, Latest Inventions, Discoveries, etc., with full descriptions of Chicago, its wonderful Buildings, Parks, etc., by the distinguished Wm. E. Cameron, of the World's Columbian Exposition Building Co., with an introduction by Hon. Thomas W. Palmer, ex-U. S. Senator and ex-Minister to Spain, including a chapter on the Women's Department by Frances E. Willard, President of the World's Temperance Union, and a Christian Temperance Union.

CONDITIONS—It is printed from clear, new type, on the colored paper, and is embellished with a large number of BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS, such as have a very wide sale.

This grand work surpasses anything that has yet appeared in this line, and will be sold by subscription only. Wait for it; take it now!

MRS. N. A. STEWART is Sole Agent for this city.

A SLIGHT CORRECTION.

Sir,—In the obituary of the late Wm. Conahan, Esq., of Bay Fortune, who died January 9th, it was stated that above all he was a staunch Conservative, having left his sick-bed to record his vote at the last election. In point of fact, Mr. Conahan never took his sick-bed. For the week before the election he was out driving, and on Christmas Day (a fortnight after the election) he drove to the residence of Henry Squaridge, a mile further from his house than was the polling booth. While we endorse everything that your esteemed correspondent says in reference to Mr. Conahan being a staunch Conservative, at the same time it might appear from the obituary that his mind was more taken up with the result of the election than with the result of that journey which he knew he was so soon to close. This was not by any means the case. During the many months of wearisome illness his Christian patience was most exemplary, and his death was crowned with that hope which is full of immortality.

METCAL FRIEND.

CANNED LOBSTERS.

I will be open to receive offers from preservers of lobsters all the pack or part thereof—for the coming season, particularly those of good quality, for which I would pay full market prices.

Lobsters under legal size are scarcely saleable at any price, and inferior or No. 2 qualities are undesirable in any kind of tin.

All tins should be lined with parchment paper.

Best Templates for cans only should be used. (See advertisement in this paper.) Dealers are not willing to pay as much for lobsters packed in ordinary B. V. grade templates, as they will for those in best quality; so many contents of former become unmarketable, because of smut, and lobsters turning black, and unfit for food.

By using best quality plate, Packers will avoid smut, lobsters turning black, souring, leaks, and loss in manufacturing as with common tin plate is used.

Correspondents' letters will receive prompt attention.

—In British Columbia on the 14th inst. the earth trembled. While the quaking continued, hanging pictures swayed slightly and crockery rattled on the shelves. It is believed by many that there is chemical action going on inside the mighty mass of earth and rock known as Mount Baker, close to the British Columbia, and that some day it will become an active volcano. The last slight earthquake lends some color to the theory.
