LOVE'S PHILOSOPHY.

BY P B. SHELLEY.

The fountains mingle with the river,
And the rivers with the ocean,
The winds of heaven mix for ever
With a sweet emotion;
Nothing in the world is single;
All things by a law divine
In one another's being mingle—
Why not I with thine?

See the mountains kiss high heaven,
And the waves clasp one another;
No sister flower would be forgiven
If it disdain'd its brother:
And the sunlight claps the earth,
And the moonbeams kiss the sea;—
What are all these kissings worth,
If thou kiss not me?

THE DEAD WIFE.

In comparison with the loss of a wife, all other earthly bereavements are trifling. The wife! she who fills so large a space in the domestic heaven—she who is so busied so unwearied in laboring for the precious ones around her—bitter bitter is the tear that falls on her cold clay! You stand beside her coffin and think of the past. It seems an amber-colored pathway, where the sun shone upon beautiful flowers, or the stars hung glittering over-head. Fain would the soul linger there. No thorns are remembered above that sweet clay, save those your hand may unwittingly have planted. Her noble, tender heart lies open to your inmost sight. You think of her now as all gen leness, all beauty and purity. But she is dead! The dear head that laid upon your bosom, rests in the still darkness, upon a pillow of clay. The hands that have ministered so untiringly, are folded, white and cold, beneath the gloomy portals. The heart, whose every beat measured an eternity of love, lies under your feet. The flowers she bent over with smiles, now bend above her with tears, shaking the dew form their petals, that the verdure around her may be kept green and beautiful.

Many a husband may read this in the silence of a broken home. There is no white arm over your shoulder; no speaking face to look up into the eye of love; no trembling lips to murmur, "O, it is so sad."

The little one whose nest death has rifled, gazes in wonder at your solemn face, puts up his tiny hand to stay the tears, and then nestles back to its father's breast, half conscious that the wing that sheltered it most fondly is broken.

There is so strange a hush in every room! no light footstep passing round. No smile to greet you at nightfall. And the old clock ticks and strikes, and strikes and ticks—it was such music when she could bear it! Now it seems to knell only the hours through which you watched the shadows of death gathering upon her sweet face.

It strikes one—the fatal time when the death-warrant rang out, "There is no hope!" Two! she lies placidly still—sometimes smiling faintly, sometimes grieving a little, for she is young to tread the valley of the shadow. Three! The babe has been brought in, its little face laid on her bosom for the last time. Four! Her breath comes fainter, but a heavenly joy irriadiates her brow. Five! There is a slight change—O, that she might live!—Father, spare her! "Thy will be done."

It was her soft, broken accents. Yes, heavenly Friend, who gavest her to bless me—Thy will be done!

Six! There are footsteps near--- weeping friends around. She bids them farewell as she murmurs, "Meet me in heaven!" The damp drops gather upon her pallid features at the seventh hour. She lies very still---sometimes she hears sweet music—Eight! passing away so gently. But her hand still clings to yours, and so she lies while that old house-clock tolls forth nine ---ten---eleven----twelve----solemn strokes. You spring to your feet. The lips are still ---cold to your lips. The hand has fallen back; its touch grown icy. She is gone. She will never speak to you again on earth. —You must bear that cold gaze that love so lately kindled—and you fall weeping by her side.

And every day the clock repeats that old story. Many another tale it telleth too---of joys past, of sorrows shared, of beautiful words and deeds that are registered above You feel—O, how often---that the grave cannot keep her. You know that she is in a happier world, yet that sometimes she is by your side, an angle presence. You look at your innocent babe, and think that a seraph is guarding it. Cherish these emotions; they will make you happier. Let her holy presence be as a charm to keep you from evil. In all new and pleasant connections, give her spirit a place in your heart. Never forget what she has been to you---that she has loved you. Be tender of her memory---so may you meet her with soul unstained---a bright and beautiful spirit bride where no one shall say any more for ever, "She is dead."—Olive Branch.

MRS. PARTINGTON says that her minister preached about the parody of the probable son.

INTERESTING SIMPLICITY.—"I say, mamma!" "Well, my pet!" "Was Uncle Tom the husband of Anti-Slavery?" "Nonsense, child! Tell Jane to put you to bed."

Tis said the devil has many imps, we presume that the following are among the number: Imp-erfection, Imp-etuosity, Imp-ertinence, Imp-lacability, Imp-udence, Imp-urity, and Imp-iety.

A CURE FOR STUPIDITY.—"You are very stupid, Thomas," said a country teacher to a little boy eight years old. "You are like a donkey, and what do they do to cure them of stupidity?" "They feed them better, and kick them less," said the arch little urchin.

POETS seldom make good astronomers. They so love women, they cannot see the other heavenly bodies.

TO INCREASE THE MILK OF COWS.—I would recommend to milk rapidly, and gently, and never be harsh in your treatment. It is also better to milk three times a day than twice.

WONDER OF THE WORLD.

Gravel Cured of five years standing.

Messrs. CURTIS & PERKINS, Bangor, Me.

Gentlemen,—I have been entirely cured of the Gravel, by the us of your Cramp and Pain Killer. I commenced taking the Cramp and Pain Killer in the Spring of 1847. I had been a great sufferer for ten years previous; some four or five years of the time I suffered beyond all my powers to describe.

During this time, I have had medical aid, and tried various spe- cifics, but found very little relief until I obtained your Cramp and Pain Killer. In one month after I commenced using it, I began to grow better. I continued to use it for a year, all the time improving until I was entirely cured. MILES STAPLES.

We, the undersigned, are well acquainted with the above case, and certify to the above statement of facts.

STANTON ELLIS.

Doctor Toby, a regular practising Physician, of East Machias, writes us under date of March20, 1847: "Please send me half a gallon of your Cramp and Pain Killer—it is the best medicine to cure what it is represented to, that I everused."

The Doctor first made use of it in his own case, for a severe sprain in the shoulder, caused by the upsetting of a stage, and found immediate relief, and has since used it in his practice.

Read the following. It speaks for itself.

RHEUMATISM CURED.

I certify, that I was afflicted with a violent Rheumatic pain in the small of my back, which entirely disabled me, so that I could not get up without the greatest pain and effort; nor could I walk without a cane, and but very little with. I applied Doctor Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, or Liquid Opodeldoc, and several other remedies, without any relief. After suffering in this way about a week, I purchased a bottle of Cramp and Pain Killer, prepared by CURTIS & PERKINS, Bangor, and after three applications was entirely relieved and free from pain, and am now entirely well. I also cured a friend of mine, who had been suffering for a long time with a lame side, with the same bottle. I believe it the best medicine in the world, and am happy to add my testimony in its favor.

Improvement of ### HASZARD'S GAZETTE.

TWICE A WEEK! IMPORTANT TO TOWN and COUNTRY SUBSCRIBERS

THE management of the Newspaper which, for the last 30 years, has been successfully conducted by J. D. HASZARD, Esq., is now transferred to the Subscriber, who will assume all the responsibilities thereof after the publication of the present number.

The circulation of Haszard's Gazette is, at present, and has always been, greater than that of any other newspaper in this Colony; and—availing himself of some of the greatest recent improvements which have been made in the art and machinery of the Printer,—its new proprietor and publisher hopes he shall be able still to secure for it the first place in the public estimation.

To this end, he has, at a considerable outlay, purchased a POWER PRESS; and, on his premises, made the alterations and additions which were requisite for its proper erection. About the beginning of February, he expects to have it in perfect working order; and—that being accomplished—he will, afterwards, issue Haszard's Gazette TWICE a week, of the same size as that in which it is at present published, and, to Subscribers, at the same price. The advantages which, from this LIBERAL ARRANGEMENT, will accrue to Subscribers and Advertisers, are so apparent, that they require no comment, and a due appreciation of it, by the public, will, it is hoped, appear in the increased patronage bestowed upon the Paper.

The Editorial Department will be entrusted to the management of a gentleman, whose ability and experience as a writer for the newspaper press, combined with the liberality and moderation of his political sentiments, are such as to afford a good guarantee for the future utility and popularity of the Paper.

By copious extracts from ENGLISH PAPERS; by approved and well-written TALES; by articles on AGRICULTURE and GARDENING, so timed as to have direct relation to the immediate objects of the farmer's skill and labor; by MORAL and RELIGIOUS matter, free from sectarian bias; and by comprehensive notices of Social and Political Reformations, now happily in progress amongst all the civilized nations of the earth, there will always be manifest in the management of HASZARD'S GAZETTE, an earnest desire to provide valuable and acceptable instruction and entertainment for all classes amongst its readers.

And, further,—that the patrons of Haszard's Gazette may be duly apprised of all PUBLIC NOTICES proceeding from the Government,—they will regularly appear in it—gratuitously published—under one general head.

For the transmission of IMPORTANT NEWS, by means of the ELECTRIC TELEGRAPH, the subscriber has also made arrangements with CORRESPONDENTS in Halifax, St. John, and Boston.

COMMUNICATIONS directly bearing on the general interests and well-being of the community, will always be thankfully received.

Health for a Shilling!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF LOSS OF HEALTH, DISORDERED STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND DETERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Lloyd, of Erw wen, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that, for a very long period, I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimmings in the head, attended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming, that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition, I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,
(Signed) JOHN LLOYD.

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY.

Extract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, DROPSY, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skilfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks. (Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY.

INFALLIBLE CURE OF A STOMACH COMPLAINT, WITH INDIGESTION AND VIOLENT HEAD-ACHES.

Extract of a Letter from S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton, Near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am requested by a Lady named Thomas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you, that, for a period of eight years herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, Indigestion, loss of Appetite, violent Head-aches, pains in the side weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last, she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.

(Signed) S. GOWEN.

A DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT AND SPASM IN THE STOMACH EFFECTUALLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Bostock, Druggist, of Ashton under Lyne, dated July 31, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I have much pleasure in handing to you a testimonial of the efficacy of your Medicines. A person in this neighbourhood, with whom I am well acquainted, was affected for a long time with violent spasmodic pains in the stomach and liver, arising from frequent colds, smells of paint, and the effects of a stooping position, which he was obliged to assume in his business. The spasms were of an alarming character, and frequently left him in a weak and debilitated condition. At length he heard of the salutary effects of your invaluable Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. The first dose gave him considerable relief, and by following them up in accordance with your directions, they have acted so wonderfully in cleansing the liver and stomach, and strengthening the digestive organs, that he has been restored to the enjoyment of good health.

I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) WILLIAM BOSTOCK.
